FOURTEENTH REPORT

FROM THE

CHURCH ESTATES COMMISSIONERS.

10, Whitehall Place,
February 1865.

SIR,

We, the Church Estates Commissioners, have the honour to make our Annual Report of our proceedings under the Act passed in the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, intituled "An "Act to facilitate the Management and Improvement of "Episcopal and Capitular Estates in England," and under the Act passed in the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and sixteen, intituled "An Act to continue and amend an Act to facilitate the "Management and Improvement of Episcopal and Capitu-"lar Estates in England," and under the Act passed in the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy-four, intituled "An Act to continue the Act to fa-"cilitate the Management and Improvement of Episcopal "and Capitular Estates in England," and under the Act passed in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy-four, intituled "An Act to continue "the Act concerning the Management of Episcopal and "Capitular Estates in England," and under the Act passed in the twenty-second and twenty-third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-six, intituled "An Act to continue "and amend the Act concerning the Management of Epis-"copal and Capitular Estates in England," and under the Act passed in the twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirty-one, intituled "An Act to continue the Act concerning the Manage- " ment of Episcopal and Capitular Estates in England, and " further to amend certain Acts relating to the Ecclesiasti- " cal Commissioners for England," and under the Acts passed in the twenty-sixth and twenty-seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-five, and the twenty-seventh and twenty-eighth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-four, intituled respectively "An Act for continuing various " expiring Acts."

We have, under the provisions of the 6th and 7th sections of the Act secondly above mentioned, transferred to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England during the past year a sum of stock equivalent to 100,000*l.* cash, in respect of the surplus proceeds of Enfranchisements completed. The aggregate amount which has been paid over or transferred to the account of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners is now 1,200,207*l.* 2*s.* 2*d.*, in addition to 130,000*l.* in respect of interest which has accrued on the surplus.

We last year reported that the transactions approved by us, between August 1851 and March 1864, were 2,516 in number, and that the value in fee of the Estates so agreed to be dealt with amounted to about 9,960,000*l.*

We have during this year approved the terms agreed upon in 122 cases; 107 being cases of sales of reversions, and 15 cases of purchases of leasehold interests, and the value in fee of the Estates so agreed to be dealt with is approximately 350,000*l.* The aggregate number of cases approved by us is therefore 2,638, and the value of the property dealt with amounts to about 10,310,000*l.* In 9 cases we declined to approve the terms proposed; but in four of these the terms have been modified so as to meet with our sanction, and they have been included in the number above stated to have been approved.

We set forth in Schedule A. all the cases in which during the past year we have approved sales of reversions or purchases of leasehold interests; and in Schedule B. the proposed sales of reversions which we have declined to sanction.

In Schedule A. are also set forth 12 cases of enfranchisement of copyholds of inheritance effected under the abovementioned Acts.

The transactions continue to be effected with facility, and the Commissioners have reason to believe that the terms are generally satisfactory to the Lessees as well as beneficial to the Church.

We have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servants,

CHICHESTER.

E. P. BOUVERIE.

SPENCER H. WALPOLE.

The Right Honourable
The Secretary of State for the Home Department.

SEVENTEENTH REPORT

FROM

TO THE RIGHT HONOURARLE HER MAJESTY'S PRINCIPAL SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE HOME DEPARTMENT, &c. &c. &c.

THE Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England submit, in accordance with the 26th Section of the Act 13 & 14 Vict. c. 94., and the 10th Section of the Act 17 & 18 Vict. c. 116., a Report of their proceedings for the year preceding the 1st of November 1864.

An abstract of the accounts of the Commissioners for the same period, is annexed in compliance with the directions of the firstly named Act. See Appendix, No. 1, p. 21. The Report of the Auditor will be found at page 44.

The grants which have been made by the Commissioners to Benefices, Districts, and new Parishes during the past year, and ratified by Orders in Council, are enumerated in the Appendix, Nos. 2, 3, and 4, pp. 45, 56, and 62. The Schemes for confirming such grants appear in the Appendix, No. 33, p. 105.

The Commissioners have during the past year made temporary grants to certain Benefices within the Parish of Manchester, under the provisions of "The Parish of Manchester Division Act, 1850." The particulars of these grants, together with the Scheme for confirming them are contained in the Appendix, No. 5, p. 65, and No. 33 p. 468.

The Commissioners have also made certain grants to meet benefactions in accordance with the 15th section of the Act 23 & 24 Vict. c. 124., with a view to making temporary provision for the cure of souls in districts in which large masses of population are collected for the purpose of working mines. The particulars of these grants will be found in the Appendix, No. 6, p. 66.

The particulars of the several grants made from the "Maltby Fund" since the last Report will be found in the Appendix, No. 7, p. 67.

The grants from the "Gally Knight Fund" which have been made during the past year are set forth in the Appendix, No. 8, p. 67.

During the past year the Commissioners have received by direction of the Lord Chancellor, under the provisions of "The Lord Chancellor's Augmentation Act, 1863" (26 & 27 Vict. c. 126), the sum of 73,684*l.* Of this amount 34,229*l.* 10*s.* have been appropriated, as required by his Lordship, towards the immediate augmentation of certain Benefices, the particulars of which are stated in the Appendix, No. 9, p. 68; and the remaining sum of 39,454*l.* 10*s.* has also been appropriated, under the direction of his Lordship, towards the prospective augmentation of certain Benefices, as set forth in the Appendix, No. 10, p. 69.

The purchase monies for Sales of Advowsons with reference to which Certificates have been issued by the Commissioners in accordance with the provisions of the 24th section of the last-mentioned Act, will be found in the Appendix, No. 11, p. 70.

A Schedule of the cases in which local claims on estates which have been enfranchised are created by the Acts 3 & 4 Vict. c. 113., and 17 & 18 Vict. c. 116., in compliance with the directions of the secondly-mentioned Act, is annexed to this Report. The same Schedule shows the period at which it was estimated that the previously subsisting lease or grant, in each case under which the estate was held, would have expired. See Appendix, No. 12, p. 70.

In accordance with the provisions of the Acts 3 & 4 Vict. c. 113., 4 & 5 Vict. c. 39., and 17 & 18 Vict. c. 84., schemes have been passed for apportioning the incomes of certain Benefices between the incumbents of those Benefices and the incumbents of certain other Benefices. See Appendix No. 13, p. 70.

Assignments of the patronage of certain Benefices have also been effected under the provisions of the Acts 3 & 4 Vict. c. 113., 4 & 5 Vict. c. 39., and 6 & 7 Vict. c. 37., in consideration of the augmentation of the incomes of such Benefices. The Schemes and particulars relating to these transactions will be found in the Appendix, No. 33, pp. 159 and 302, and No. 14, p. 71.

Under the provisions of the Acts 16 & 17 Vict. c. 50. exchanges of the patronage of certain Benefices have been made, and the Schemes and particulars relating thereto appear in the Appendix No. 33, pp. 391 and 439, and No. 15, p. 71.

Under "the Church Building Acts," "the Parish of Manchester Division Act, 1850," and "the New Parishes Acts," the following arrangements have been made by the Commissioners during the past year, viz:—

Seventy-six Districts have been constituted or assigned under the designation of either—

1. District Chapelries. See Appendix, No. 16, p. 72.
2. Consolidated Chapelries. See Appendix, No. 17, p. 73.
3. Particular Districts. See Appendix, No. 18, p. 74.
4. Districts and New Parishes. See Appendix, No. 19, p. 75.
5. Districts under "The Parish of Manchester Division Act, 1850." See Appendix, No. 20, p. 77.

In one case a grant has been made by way of compensation for loss of fees which have become payable to the incumbent of a new Parish formed under "the New Parishes Acts." See Appendix, No. 21, p. 77.

Orders under the 11th section of the Act 19 & 20 Vict. c. 104. authorizing the performance, in thirteen Churches or Chapels to which Districts belong, of the offices contemplated by that section, have been issued by the Commissioners. See Appendix, No. 22, p. 77.

Declarations of the patronage of two Churches have been also issued. See Appendix, No. 23, p. 78.

In one case a new Church has been substituted for an old Parish Church See Appendix No. 24, p. 78.

Scales of Pew Rents have been fixed for five Churches. See Appendix, No. 25, p. 78.

Two hundred and thirty-six conveyances of sites for Churches, burial grounds, and parsonage houses respectively have been accepted. See Appendix, No. 26, p. 79.

During the year to which this Report relates, certain real estates have been assigned to the Bishops of Lincoln and Norwich respectively as the permanent endowments of those Sees. The Schemes by which these transactions have been effected appear in the Appendix, No. 33, pp. 306 and 374.

In pursuance of the provisions of the Act 23 & 24 Vict. c. 124. a Scheme has been passed for annexing to the episcopal residence of the Archbishop of Canterbury at Addington in the county of Surrey, certain lands which are necessary for the enjoyment of such residence. See Appendix, No. 33, p. 504.

Authority has been given to the Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol to borrow money upon the security of the endowment of his See for the purpose of effecting certain alterations and improvements in the episcopal house of residence at Gloucester. See Appendix, No. 33, p. 443.

Schemes have been passed for amending two Orders in Council bearing date 29th November, 1859 and 27th July 1863 relating respectively to the commutation of the estates of the Dean and Chapter of Worcester and to the endowment of the College of Saint David at Lampeter. See Appendix, No. 33, pp. 462 and 364.

The Schemes and particulars relating to the augmentation of certain Archdeaconries by grants out of the Common Fund will be found in the Appendix, No. 33, pp. 349, 358, and 441, and No. 27, p. 85.

The Preferments, the endowments of which have become vested in the Commissioners during the year to which this Report has reference, are enumerated in the Appendix, No. 28, p. 85.

The Commissioners have continued to effect enfranchisements of estates vested in them, on the principles stated in their Twelfth Report, and the instances continue to be extremely few in which the price required by the Commissioners has been the subject of prolonged discussion and of ultimate refusal.

In pursuance of the provisions of the Act 17 & 18 Vict. c. 116. a Schedule is annexed of all sales of reversions and purchases of leasehold interests effected during the year preceding the 1st November last, and also of all cases of refusal, with the special reasons for the same. See Appendix, Nos. 29 and 30, pp. 85 and 97.

A list of the sales effected and of the leases granted with the sanction of the Commissioners, under the authority of "The Ecclesiastical Leasing Acts," during the past year, is inserted in the Appendix, Nos. 31 and 32, pp. 99 and 101.

Copies of all Schemes and Representations prepared by the Commissioners, and sanctioned and approved by Her Majesty in Council during the same year, will be found in the Appendix, No. 33, p. 105.

In their last Report the Commissioners presented a brief summary of the augmentation and endowment of benefices having cure of souls which they had effected or undertaken to effect up to the commencement of the period to which that Report relates. It was there shown that by the re-distribution and improvement of ecclesiastical revenues, property of the capital value of about 4,500,000*l.* had been thus appropriated for endowing cures or increasing poor livings, and that in addition to this the Church had been benefited by the munificence of private donors to the extent of about 1,000,000*l.* in capital value; these benefactions having been secured through the agency of the Board, the total improvement thus effected in the provision for the cure of souls throughout the country was represented by a capital sum of 5,500,000*l.*

The further grants which the Board stated, in the same Report, they should be prepared to appropriate in the then current year 1864 were of the additional capital value of about 700,000*l.*; and to meet a portion of such grants, benefactions exceeding 100,000*l.* have been obtained from private sources.

In proceeding with their general scheme for augmenting and endowing benefices during the five years succeeding 1863, which the Commissioners indicated in their last Report, they propose in the present and three succeeding years respectively to extend their rule as to augmentation to 300*l.* per annum on the sole ground of population to benefices having populations of 6,000, 5,000, 4,500, and 4,000 respectively. The aggregate amount to be thus appropriated will by this gradation be divided more equally than by descending from 8,000 to 4,000 by equal steps of 1,000, and this course will at the same time accelerate the augmentation of the benefices having respectively populations of 6,000, 5,000, and 4,500.

The Commissioners also stated that the local claims arising on the Estates of the Sees and Chapters transferred to them can only be entertained after the permanent Estates of the Corporations have been respectively provided, and undertook in that and the succeeding year to deal with the local claims on the estates formerly belonging to the Sees of Durham, York, and Peterborough, and of the Chapters of York and Peterborough. The permanent estates of the Sees of Lincoln and Norwich have now been provided, and the Commissioners will consider next year the local claims arising on the estates formerly belonging to those Corporations.

The Commissioners have determined for the current year:—

I. To provide 3,500*l.* per annum to meet benefactions of at least equal value, in accordance with their published rules dated March 1864.

II. To meet the remaining local claims arising in respect of York Archbishopric Estates and all those arising in respect of the Peterborough Bishopric Estates and of the York and Peterborough Capitular Estates.

III. To augment unconditionally to 300*l.* a year the income of every benefice in public patronage which existed on the 4th of February 1864, the population of which was by the census of 1861 not less than 6,000 persons.

IV. To augment the income of every benefice in private patronage having a like population to a like amount of 300*l.* a year, on condition that one half of the sum required to effect such augmentation be provided from non-ecclesiastical sources.

V. To appropriate the sum of 3,000*l.* per annum in perpetuity to the endowment of a limited number of new churches to which districts shall have been legally assigned since the 1st day of March 1864, containing in each case a population of not less than 6,000 persons, and not being situated within the limits of the ancient district of Manchester * ; and provided that the formation of any such district shall not involve the reduction of the population of any other benefice below 6,000 ; the grants to churches of this character which may be in public patronage to be made to the extent of 200*l.* a year unconditionally, and to those in private patronage to the extent of 100*l.* a year, upon condition that an endowment of equal value be provided from non-ecclesiastical sources.

The grants to be thus made during the current year would be of the capital value of about 800,000*l.*

Urgent representations have been made to the Commissioners with regard to the disappointment and inconvenience which have been experienced in consequence of their inability at present to make grants in the shape of capital towards providing Parsonage Houses, without interfering with their operations in arresting the wasteful practice of renewing leases on payment of fines.

Under these circumstances the Board express a hope that Parliament may not be unwilling to remove the impediments which prevent the appropriation to the erection of Parsonage Houses of any portion of the monies now required to be invested in real property.

All which is reported by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England.

In witness whereof, the said Commissioners have hereunto set their Common Seal this First day of March in the year One thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

L.S.

* Having regard to the provisions of "The Parish of Manchester Division Act," by which a special fund is created for the endowment and augmentation of cures within the parish of Manchester, No. V. will be considered as inapplicable to that parish, and Nos. III. and IV. as applicable to it only in a qualified sense.

y Report of the 22nd February 1865 (see page 44).

(Signed) G. Arbuthnot,
Auditor.

REPORT FROM THE AUDITOR TO THE COMMISSIONERS.

Treasury Chambers,
22nd February 1865.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I am enabled to certify to the correctness of the Balance Sheet appended to the Abstract of your Accounts, presented to Parliament, for the year ended the 31st October 1864, subject to any corrections which may be required in the prosecution of my detailed Audit, which is not yet completed.

The Balances of Cash and Stock have been verified by Certificates obtained from the Bank of England.

The errors referred to in my Report of the 24th February 1864, amounting with certain further errors subsequently discovered to 38*l.* 7*s.* 8*d.*, have been satisfactorily adjusted. Those of the previous year, which I then reported to be in course of adjustment, have also been settled.

The greater part of the errors to which I have directed attention in the course of the examination of the past year's Accounts has already been corrected, leaving for future adjustment only over-payments amounting to 2*l.* 18*s.* 8*d.*, and omissions to obtain sums due to the Commission amounting to 13*s.* 3*d.* It is possible, however, that further corrections may be necessary in the course of my further examination, which I hope to complete in the course of next month.

The important work of establishing a clear rental has been diligently advanced, and in connection with that business an improved course of proceeding has been followed in the examination of the Receivers' Accounts. The results are satisfactory.

I have the honour to be,
My Lords and Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,

The Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England.

(Signed) G. Arbuthnot.

Schemes and Representations sanctioned and approved by Her Majesty in Council during the Year preceding the 1st of November 1864.

(In continuation of Appendix No. 33 to the Sixteenth Report.)

No. 1538.

For authorizing the Sale and Disposal of certain Property formerly belonging to the Precentorship of the Cathedral Church of Salisbury.

Gazetted 20th November 1863.

At the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of November 1863.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the precentorship of the cathedral church of Salisbury, and now vested in us.

"Whereas on the vacancy of the said precentorship, which occurred in or about the month of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, by the decease of the Reverend Philip Fisher, Clerk, Doctor in Divinity, the then precentor, all the lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments theretofore belonging to the said precentorship (except rights of patronage) became by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas our estate in the lands, tithes, tenements hereditaments, and endowments aforesaid consists of a reversion expectant upon the determination of a beneficial lease, and such lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments produce, during the subsistence of such lease, only a small annual revenue, and partly on that account and partly on account of their character or situation are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the holder or holders thereof (if any), to be testified by his, her, or their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments theretofore belonging to the said Precentorship of Salisbury, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Salisbury.

No. 1539.

For making better provision for the Cure of Souls in certain Parishes and Districts.

Gazetted 20th November 1863.

At the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of November 1863.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

"We humbly recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, out of the common fund in the said Acts mentioned, in each and every year, to the incumbent for the time being of each of the benefices described in the first schedule hereunto annexed, the annual sum set opposite to the name of each such benefice in the last column of the same schedule, by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year; provided always, that the grants so recommended to be made by us to the benefices of Aylesbury and Shadforth shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or before the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, of a certificate under the hand of the bishop of the diocese, that a curate duly licensed by such bishop has in each instance been employed within the parish or district during the preceding half-year; and provided also, that with regard to the grant so recommended to be made by us to the benefice of Hampton Bishop, a like certificate be required that a curate has been duly employed at Tupsley, within the said parish of Hampton Bishop, and that with regard to the payment of portions amounting in each instance to one hundred pounds of the grants so recommended to be made by us to the benefices of Landkey with Swimbridge and Market Weighton with Shipton and Sawley with Long Eaton, a like certificate be required that a curate has been duly employed within each such parish or district; and provided furthermore, that the grant so recommended to be made by us to the benefice of Holy Trinity, Southwark, shall cease and determine upon and from the avoidance of the rectory of Saint Mary Newington, in the county of Surrey, next ensuing after the date of this scheme.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the messuages, lands, and premises, tithes, or rentcharges in lieu of tithes, moduses, and other hereditaments particularly described in the second and ten following schedules hereunto annexed, with their appurtenances, now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the several spiritual persons herein-after mentioned, that is to say, that the lands and hereditaments described in the second schedule hereunto annexed, situate within the parish of Barmby Moor, in the county and diocese of York, formerly belonging to the deanery of the cathedral and metropolitical church of Saint Peter, at York, and now vested in us, which said lands and hereditaments were lately held and occupied by John Singleton, Esquire, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Barmby Moor; that the lands and hereditaments described in the third schedule hereunto annexed, together with the messuage and buildings thereon, situate within the parish of Bothenhampton, in the county of Dorset and diocese of Salisbury, and also the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes arising upon such lands and hereditaments, all which were conveyed to us by a deed bearing date the fifteenth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Bothenhampton; that the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes described in the fourth schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate within the townships of Bonwm, Carwg, Mwstwr, and Tir Llanerch, in the parish of Corwen, in the county of Merioneth and diocese of Saint Asaph, formerly belonging to the sinecure rectory of Corwen, and now vested in us, shall be transferred to, and become absolutely vested in, the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of Saint Thomas, Glyndyfrdwy, in the same county and diocese; that all our estate and interest in the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes described in the fifth schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate within the parish of Llangar, in the said county of Merioneth and diocese of Saint Asaph, one moiety of which formerly belonged to the said sinecure rectory of Corwen, and is now vested in us, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the rector or incumbent for the time being of the rectory of the said parish of Llangar; that the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes described in the sixth schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate within the townships of Morfydd, Bodolas, and Ragatt, in the said parish of Corwen, and in the said county of Merioneth and diocese of Saint Asaph, formerly belonging to the said sinecure rectory of Corwen, and now vested in us, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the rector or incumbent for the time being of the rectory of the parish of Llansantffraid-Glyndyfrdwy, in the same county and diocese; that the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes described in the seventh schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate within the township of Gwerni Hywel, in the said parish of Corwen, and in the county of Denbigh and said diocese of Saint Asaph, formerly belonging to the said sinecure rectory of Corwen, and now vested in us, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of the parish of Yspytty Ivan, in the same county and diocese; that the messuage, lands, hereditaments, and premises described in the eighth schedule hereunto annexed, situate within the parish of Kirton-in-Lindsey, in the county and diocese of Lincoln, now vested in us, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Kirton-in-Lindsey; that the modus, or tithe, or rentcharge in lieu of tithe, described in the ninth schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate within the township of Monk Heselden, in the parish of Monk Heselden, in the county and diocese of Durham, formerly belonging to the first canonry in the cathedral church of Durham, and now vested in us, shall be transferred to, and become absolutely vested in, the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of the parish of Kyloe, in the county of Northumberland, and the said diocese of Durham; that the lands and hereditaments described in the tenth schedule hereunto annexed, situate within the parish of Oxenhall, in the county of Gloucester and diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, which were conveyed to us by a deed bearing date the seventeenth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Oxenhall; that all our leasehold estate and interest in the messuage, lands, hereditaments, and premises, described in the eleventh schedule hereunto annexed, situate within the parish of Thurlby, in the said county and diocese of Lincoln, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Thurlby ; that the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes, described in the twelfth schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate within the parish of Dymerchion otherwise Tremerchion, in the county of Flint and said diocese of Saint Asaph, now vested in us, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Dymerchion otherwise Tremerchion.

"And we further recommend and propose, that all our estate and interest in the lands and hereditaments situate within the parish of Burton Dassett, in the county of Warwick and diocese of Worcester, and comprising seven acres three roods and one perch, or thereabouts, together with the cottages, barn, and buildings thereon, formerly belonging to the prebend of Dassett, otherwise Dorset Parva, in the cathedral church of Lichfield, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Burton Dassett; and that all our estate and interest in the money payment, tithes, or rentcharges in lieu of tithes arising out of or upon lands situate within the parish of Moughtrey otherwise Mochtre, in the county of Montgomery and said diocese of Saint Asaph, and formerly belonging to the prebend of Mochtre, in the collegiate church of Brecon, shall, subject to any provisions affecting the same which are contained in the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Your Majesty, chapter eighty-two, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Moughtrey otherwise Mochtre.

"And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Reverend James Gram Brine, Clerk, the perpetual curate or incumbent of the perpetual curacy of All Saints, Chardstock, in the counties of Devon and Dorset and diocese of Salisbury, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that the lands and hereditaments described in the thirteenth schedule hereunto annexed, situate at Chardstock aforesaid, with their appurtenances, now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein shall in like manner, and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of All Saints, Chardstock ; provided always, that the annual sums or stipends, amounting together to thirty-five pounds payable by us to the said perpetual curate or incumbent, under the provisions of certain Orders of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date respectively the twenty-seventh day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, the seventeenth day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and the fourteenth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty, shall be reduced to an annual sum or stipend of twenty-five pounds thirteen shillings and sixpence, as from the first day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and shall be further reduced to an annual sum or stipend of seventeen pounds twelve shillings and twopence as from the thirteenth day of November in the same year.

"And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Reverend Brabazon Hallowes, Clerk, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Cilcen, in the said county of Flint and diocese of Saint Asaph, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes described in the fourteenth schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate within the said parish of Cilcen, with their appurtenances, now vested in us, shall, in like manner and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred to, and become absolutely vested in, the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Cilcen, in lieu of and in full substitution for and discharge of the annual sum or stipend of fifty pounds heretofore payable by us to the said vicar or incumbent under the provisions of the said Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the seventeenth day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four.

"And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Reverend Aris Henry Nourse, Clerk, the perpetual curate or incumbent of the perpetual curacy of Cogges, in the county and diocese of Oxford, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that the lands and hereditaments described in the fifteenth schedule hereunto annexed, situate at Cogges aforesaid, with their appurtenances, now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein, shall, in like manner, and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of Cogges; provided always, that the annual sum or stipend of nineteen pounds payable by us to the said perpetual curate or incumbent under the provisions of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, shall be reduced to an annual sum or stipend of seven pounds and twelve shillings as from the first day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and shall be further reduced to an annual sum or stipend of six pounds and sixteen shillings as from the first day of November in the same year.

"And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Reverend Arthur Thomas Gregory, Clerk, the perpetual curate or incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the parish of Flixton, in the county of Lancaster and diocese of Manchester, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes described in the sixteenth schedule hereunto annexed, and therein numbered I., arising out of or upon lands situate within the townships of Flixton and Urmston, in the said parish of Flixton, with their appurtenances, and also the lands and hereditaments described in the same schedule, and therein numbered II., situate within the said township and parish of Flixton, together with the tithes or rent-charges in lieu of tithes arising thereon, with their appurtenances, all which formerly belonged to the prebend of Offley and Flixton annexed to the fifth canonry in the cathedral church of Lichfield, and are now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein shall in like manner and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Flixton, in lieu of and in full substitution for and discharge of the annual sum or stipend of thirty pounds heretofore payable by us to the said perpetual curate or incumbent in respect of the estates formerly belonging to the said prebend or canonry, and also in lieu of and in full substitution for and discharge of the annual sum or stipend of thirty-three pounds heretofore payable by us to the same perpetual curate or incumbent under the provisions of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, and also of the annual sum or stipend of one hundred and fifty-eight pounds now payable by us to the same perpetual curate or incumbent under the provisions of another Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.

"And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Reverend Denis Kelly, Clerk, the perpetual curate or incumbent of the perpetual curacy of Holy Trinity, Gough Square, in the county of Middlesex and diocese of London, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that the messuages, lands, hereditaments, and premises described in the seventeenth schedule hereunto annexed, situate at Holloway, in the parish of Saint Mary, Islington, in the same county and diocese, with their appurtenances, shall in like manner, and by the authority aforesaid, subject, nevertheless, to the several indentures of lease, the dates of which with the names of the lessees to whom the same are respectively granted, the term for which the same are respectively held and the reserved rents to which the same are respectively subject, are in the said seventeenth schedule hereunto annexed set opposite to the description of the said hereditaments which are demised by such leases respectively, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of Holy Trinity, Gough Square; provided always, that the annual sum or stipend of forty-one pounds heretofore payable by us to the same perpetual curate or incumbent under the provisions of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, shall be reduced to an annual sum or stipend of seven pounds fifteen shillings and eightpence as from the fourteenth day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.

"And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Reverend Thomas Alfred Bangham, Clerk, the perpetual curate or incumbent of the perpetual curacy of Christ Church, Lichfield, in the county of Stafford and diocese of Lichfield, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that the lands and hereditaments described in the eighteenth schedule hereunto annexed, situate at Lichfield aforesaid, with their appurtenances, now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein, shall in like manner, and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of Christ Church, Lichfield; provided always, that the annual sum or stipend of thirty pounds, payable by us to the said perpetual curate or incumbent, under the provisions of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the fifteenth day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, shall be reduced to an annual sum or stipend of twenty-four pounds sixteen shillings and fourpence as from the fifth day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.

"And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Reverend Thomas Roberts Ellis, Clerk, the perpetual curate or incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the parish of Gyffin, in the county of Carnarvon and diocese of Bangor, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes described in the nineteenth schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate within the said parish of Gyffin, with their appurtenances, formerly belonging to the deanery of the cathedral church of Bangor, and now vested in us, shall in like manner, and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Gyffin, in lieu of and in full substitution for and discharge of the annual sum or stipend of thirty pounds heretofore payable by us to the said perpetual curate or incumbent in respect of the estates formerly belonging to the said deanery of Bangor.

"And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Reverend Richard Parry Jones, Clerk, the perpetual curate or incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the parish of Llanvihangel-Ysceiviog, with the chapelry of Llanfinnan annexed, in the county of Anglesey and diocese of Bangor, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes, described in the twentieth schedule, hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate within the said parish of Llanvihangel-Ysceiviog, with their appurtenances, formerly belonging to the deanery of the cathedral church of Bangor aforesaid, and now vested in us, shall, in like manner, and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Llanvihangel-Ysceiviog, with the said chapelry of Llanfinnan annexed, in lieu of and in full substitution for and discharge of the annual sum or stipend of seventy-two pounds and ten shillings heretofore payable by us to the said perpetual curate or incumbent in respect of the estates formerly belonging to the said deanery of Bangor, and also in lieu of and in full substitution for and discharge of the annual sum or stipend of sixteen pounds, heretofore payable by us to the same perpetual curate or incumbent, under the provisions of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the seventeenth day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four.

"And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Reverend Henry Everard Bullivant, Clerk, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Lubnam, otherwise Lubenham, in the county of Leicester and diocese of Peterborough, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that the lands and hereditaments described in the twenty-first schedule, hereunto annexed, situate within the said parish of Lubnam, otherwise Lubenham, with their appurtenances, now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein, shall in like manner and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Lubnam, otherwise Lubenham, in lieu of and in full substitution for and discharge of the annual sum or stipend of ten pounds, payable by us to the said vicar or incumbent, under the provisions of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twelfth day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine.

"And whereas it appears to us, after duly considering the circumstances of the several cases undermentioned, to be expedient that the grants respectively recommended to be made by us to the benefices or churches of Barmby Moor, Bothenhampton, Burton Dassett, Cogges, Eighton Banks, Saint Thomas, Glyndyfrdwy, Holy Trinity, Gough Square, Gyffin, Saint Nicholas, Hereford, Kirton-in-Lindsey, Christ Church, Lichfield, Llangar, Llansantffraid-Glyndyfrdwy, Llanvihangel-Ysceiviog, Saint Michael, Louth, Lubnam, otherwise Lubenham, Moughtrey, otherwise Mochtre, Oxenhall, Thurlby, and Yspytty Ivan, should commence and take effect from the several dates herein-after mentioned respectively, that is to say, in the case of the vicarage of Barmby Moor, from the twenty-fifth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three; in the case of the vicarage of Bothenhampton, from the fifteenth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the case of the vicarage of Burton Dasset, from the second day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two; in the case of the perpetual curacy of Cogges, from the fifth day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two; in the case of the perpetual curacy of Eighton Banks, from the twelfth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three; in the case of the perpetual curacy of Saint Thomas, Glyndyfrdwy, from the first day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three; in the case of the perpetual curacy of Holy Trinity, Gough Square, from the twenty-fifth day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two; in the case of the perpetual curacy of Gyffin, from the twenty-eighth day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two; in the case of the rectory of Saint Nicholas, Hereford, from the twenty-eighth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty; in the case of the vicarage of Kirton-in-Lindsey, from the twenty-first day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine; in the case of the perpetual curacy of Christ Church, Lichfield, from the fourth day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two; in the case of the rectory of Llangar, from the twelfth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one; in the case of the rectory of Llansantffraid-Glyndyfrdwy, from the twelfth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one; in the case of the perpetual curacy of Llanvihangel-Ysceiviog, from the twenty-eighth day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two; in the case of the perpetual curacy of Saint Michael, Louth, as from the twenty-eighth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three; in the case of the vicarage of Lubnam, otherwise Lubenham, from the eleventh day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three; in the case of the perpetual curacy of Moughtrey, otherwise Mochtre, from the eighth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three; in the case of the vicarage of Oxenhall, from the seventeenth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three; in the case of the perpetual curacy of Thurlby, from the sixth day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one; and in the case of the perpetual curacy of Yspytty Ivan, from the twelfth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the several grants herein-before recommended by us to be made to the said last-mentioned benefices or churches respectively shall commence and take effect from the said dates herein-before in that behalf mentioned respectively.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of Emmanuel, Holcombe, in the Parish of Bury, in the County of Lancaster and Diocese of Manchester.

Gazetted 20th November 1863.

At the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of November 1863.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twelfth day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiatical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Emmanuel, situate at Holcombe, in the parish of Bury, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Emmanuel, situate at Holcombe aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of Manchester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Bury described in the schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Holcombe.'

"And, with the like consent of the said James Prince, Bishop of Manchester (testified as aforesaid), we further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The Schedule to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Holcombe, being :—

"All that part of the township of Tottington-lower-end, in the parish of Bury, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester, which is not comprised within the limits either of the new parish of Saint Anne, Tottington, or of the new parish of Ramsbottom, severally situate within the county and diocese aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of the Holy Trinity, Clifton, in the City of Bristol and Diocese of Gloucester and Bristol.

Gazetted 20th November 1863.

At the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of November 1863.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the fifth year of His Majesty King George the Fourth, chapter one hundred and three, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-third day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the fifth year of His Majesty King George the Fourth, chapter one hundred and three, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate in the parish of Clifton, in the city and county of the city of Bristol, and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol.

"Whereas it has been represented to us that the said church of the Holy Trinity, situate in the said parish of Clifton, was built by subscription under and by virtue of the powers or authorities for such purpose contained in the secondly herein-before mentioned Act, and that such church was duly consecrated on or about the tenth day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty.

"And whereas it has been further represented to us that the several persons whose individual subscriptions to the fund raised for the erection of such church amounted to fifty pounds and upwards, did in accordance with the powers or authorities contained in the Act lastly referred to, elect from among themselves three trustees as the life trustees of the same church for the several purposes contemplated by the same Act.

"And whereas it has been further represented to us that the Reverend John Hensman, the incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Clifton, Clerk, John Scandred Harford, of Blaise Castle, near Bristol, Esquire, Abraham Hilhouse, of Sion Hill, in the said parish of Clifton, Esquire, and Daniel Burges, of Clifton Park, in the said parish of Clifton, Esquire, are now the majority of the surviving subscribers entitled to elect the trustees of the said church of the Holy Trinity, situate in the parish of Clifton, under the provisions of the Act lastly referred to.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of the Holy Trinity, situate in the parish of Clifton aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend Charles John, Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol (the bishop of the said diocese), of the Reverend William Marsh, the rector or incumbent of the rectory of the parish of Beddington, in the county of Surrey, Doctor in Divinity, of the Reverend William Carus, canon residentiary of the cathedral church of Winchester, of the Reverend John Venn, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Saint Peter, in the city of Hereford, of the Reverend Edward Auriol, the rector or incumbent of the rectory of the parish of Saint Dunstan in the West, in the city of London, and of the Reverend Edmund Hollond, of Hyde Park Gardens, in the county of Middlesex, Clerk, the patrons of the perpetual curacy of the parish of Clifton aforesaid, of the said John Hensman, John Scandred Harford, Abraham Hilhouse, and Daniel Burges, and of the Reverend Humphrey Allen, the minister or incumbent of the said church of the Holy Trinity, situate in the said parish of Clifton, (testified by their having respectively signed and sealed this representation,) we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Clifton which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church of the Holy Trinity, situate in the parish of Clifton aforesaid, and should be named 'The District Chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Clifton.'

"And with the like consents of the said Charles John, Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, of the said William Marsh, William Carus, John Venn, Edward Auriol, Edmund Hollond, John Hensman, John Scandred Harford, Abraham Hilhouse, Daniel Burges, and Humphrey Allen, (testified as aforesaid,) we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the church of the Holy Trinity aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof should be paid and belong to the minister or incumbent of the same church for the time being; provided always, that so long as the said John Hensman shall remain the incumbent of the said perpetual curacy of the parish of Clifton aforesaid, all the fees to be received in respect of the solemnization or performance of the said offices at the said church of the Holy Trinity shall be paid by the minister or incumbent thereof to the said John Hensman.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Clifton, being :—

"All that part of the parish of Clifton, in the city and county of the city of Bristol and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, which is comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing such parish from the district parish of Saint Paul, Bedminster, in the county of Somerset, and in the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, at a point in the middle of Cumberland Road ; and extending thence first north-westward and then northward along the middle of such road, passing in front of Avon Crescent, to the middle of the southern end of the swing bridge over the locks which connect Cumberland Basin with the Floating Harbour ; and extending thence northward along the middle of such bridge to its northern extremity ; and continuing thence first northward and then north-westward along the middle of the road which passes round the eastern and northern sides of the said Cumberland Basin as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of the road which passes between the Bonding Yard and Dowry Place upon the one side and Grenville Place and Caroline Place and Brunswick Place upon the other side ; and extending thence still north-westward to and along the middle of the last-described road to its junction with the Hotwell Road at the south-western end of Dowry Parade ; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road as far as the southern corner of Dowry Square ; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the road which forms the southern side of the said Dowry Square, and along the middle of Power Street, and of the road passing in front of Providence Place, and along the middle of the road commonly called 'Hope Chapel Hill,' to the junction of the last-named road with the road called 'Granby Hill ;' and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the western end of the road which leads past Cornwallis Crescent and past the top of Clifton Vale (otherwise called 'Mead Lane') to Clifton parish church ; and extending thence eastward to and along the middle of the last-described road, passing Cornwallis Crescent and the top of Clifton Vale, otherwise called Mead Lane as aforesaid, as far as the point where the footpath leading from Saville Place to Clifton Vale, otherwise Mead Lane, crosses the said road, and opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'C.H.T.D.C., 1863, No. 1,' and placed upon the southern side of the same road; and extending thence in a direct line south-eastward to such boundary stone; and continuing thence in the same direction and in a straight line across the close numbered 39 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Clifton, and upon the map hereunto annexed, to another boundary stone inscribed 'C.H.T.D.C., 1863, No. 2,' and placed on the western side of the footpath leading from Clifton parish church aforesaid to the before-mentioned Hotwell Road at the intersection of such footpath by the stone stile dividing the said close numbered 39 from the close numbered 38 upon the said maps; and continuing thence still south-eastward to a point in the middle of the said footpoth; and extending thence southward along the middle of the same footpath to the swing gate which divides the last-mentioned close from Ambrose Lane at a point opposite to the middle of the western extremity of the wall which forms the southern boundary of the close and premises known as 'Ambrose House,' and numbered 37 upon the said maps; and extending thence eastward to and along the middle of the last-described wall, passing at the back of the houses and premises in Crosby Row which are numbered respectively 1 and 2, to the junction of such wall with the wall which divides the close numbered 44 upon the same maps from the eastern side of the last-mentioned house and premises numbered 2 as aforesaid; and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-described wall to the gates at the entrance of the last-mentioned close; and extending thence eastward along the said gates, and then north-eastward along the middle of the wall which divides the said close numbered 44 as aforesaid from the close at the rear of the houses in Crosby Row aforesaid, to the eastern extremity of such wall where it is joined by the wall which divides Crosby Row from the premises known as 'Clifton Wood Terrace,' and numbered 45 upon the said maps; and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-described wall and along the gates at the entrance to the said Clifton Wood Terrace to the wall which forms the southern boundary of the road which passes in front of the said Crosby Row; and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-described wall for a distance of three yards or thereabouts to its junction with the wall which forms the back of the houses on the eastern side of Rees's Court; and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-described wall to its southern extremity; and continuing thence still southward to and along the middle of the passage which forms the entry to the said Rees's Court to a point in the middle of the Hotwell Road aforesaid opposite to the middle of the southern end of such passage; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named road as far as the boundary dividing the said parish of Clifton from the district chapelry of Saint Peter, Clifton Wood, in the city and county of the city of Bristol and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol aforesaid; and extending thence first eastward along the last-described boundary and then south-eastward along the same boundary to its junction with the boundary dividing the said parish of Clifton from the district parish of Saint Paul, Bedminster, aforesaid, in the middle of the Floating Harbour aforesaid; and extending thence south-westward along the last-described boundary as far as the point in the middle of Cumberland Road, where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the respective Registrars of the two several registries of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol at Bristol and at Gloucester.

For authorizing the Sale and Disposal of certain Property formerly belonging to the Fourth Canonry in the Cathedral Church of Durham.

Gazetted 20th November 1863.

At the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of November 1863.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the fourth canonry in the cathedral church of Durham, and now vested in us.

"Whereas on the vacancy of the said canonry, which occurred on or about the tenth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two by the decease of the Venerable Charles Thorp, Doctor in Divinity, Archdeacon of Durham, the then holder of the said fourth canonry, all the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments theretofore belonging to the said canonry (except rights of patronage) became by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, so vested in us as aforesaid, are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant, but are now in possession, but some portions thereof, on account of their character or situation are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time, and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Durham.

Gazetted 20th November 1863.

At the Court at Windsor, the 17th day November 1863.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the prebends of Ruiton, otherwise Ryton and Prees, otherwise Pipe Minor, in the cathedral church of Lichfield, annexed to the fourth canonry in the said church, and now vested in us.

" Whereas it was by the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, enacted that the whole of the separate estates and endowments belonging to the said prebends of Ruiton, otherwise Ryton and Prees, otherwise Pipe Minor (excepting any right of ecclesiastical patronage) should, upon the then next avoidance of the said prebends become absolutely vested in us for the purposes, and subject to the provisions, applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

" And whereas, under and by virtue of an indenture bearing date the eleventh day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, and made or expressed to be made between the Reverend Henry Dudley Ryder, Clerk, Master of Arts, prebendary of the said prebends, by Thomas Dudley Ryder, of Gray's Inn, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, and Richard Calthorpe Whitmore Ryder, of Lincoln's Inn, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, his attorneys duly appointed by a deed poll or instrument under the hand and seal of the said Henry Dudley Ryder, dated the twenty-third day of November one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, of the one part, and us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the other part, and of another indenture bearing date the thirteenth day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, and made or expressed to be made between the same Henry Dudley Ryder by his said attorneys, the said Thomas Dudley Ryder and the said Richard Calthorpe Whitmore Ryder of the first part, the said Thomas Dudley Ryder and the said Richard Calthorpe Whitmore Ryder of the second part, and us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the third part, all the estate and interest of him, the said Henry Dudley Ryder, as such prebendary as aforesaid, in all the lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments then belonging to the said prebends respectively, became vested in us for the consideration and subject to the covenants contained in the said indentures.

"And whereas some portions of the lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments aforesaid are subject to beneficial leases thereof, and produce, during the subsistence of such leases, only a small annual revenue, and partly on that account, and partly on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions, or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the holder or holders thereof (if any), to be testified by his, her, or their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments heretofore belonging to the said prebends of Ruiton, otherwise Ryton and Prees, otherwise Pipe Minor, or either of them, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.

For authorizing the Sale and Disposal of certain Property formerly belonging to the Bishoprick of Winchester.

Gazetted 11th December 1863.

At the Court at Windsor, the 8th day of December 1863.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the nineteenth day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the bishoprick of Winchester, and now vested in us.

"Whereas under the provisions of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and duly published in the London Gazette on the day following, the lands, tenements, and hereditaments called 'The Southwark Park Estate,' otherwise

'The Winchester Park Estate,' situate in the parish of Saint Saviour, Southwark, in the county of Surrey, and particularly described in the schedule to the said Order, which theretofore belonged to the bishoprick of Winchester, became and are now vested in us in fee simple for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas certain of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments aforesaid are subject to outstanding beneficial sub-leases, and partly on that account and partly on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable, under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions, or the purchase of the sub-leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such sub-leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof, as we shall at any time or from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act, with the consent of the parties interested in such beneficial sub-leases (if any), testified by his, her, or their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration, as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Winchester.

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

"Whereas the several benefactions, consisting of land, rent-charges, or other hereditaments, which are mentioned in the fourth column of the schedule hereunto annexed, have been secured to the several benefices set forth in the first column of the same schedule respectively, upon condition that certain capital sums herein-after mentioned should be appropriated by us to the said several benefices respectively.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered to appropriate out of the Common Fund created by the herein firstly-mentioned Act, to each of the several benefices specified in the first column of the said schedule hereunto annexed respectively, the capital sum set against the name of each such benefice in the fifth column of the same schedule, and that such capital sums respectively, or any part or parts thereof, may be paid and applied by us towards the purchase or acquisition for such livings respectively, or any one or more of them, of any land, tithe, or other hereditaments which may appear to us to be suitable for annexation to such benefices respectively, or towards defraying the cost of providing suitable parsonage houses for the same; and that in the meantime there shall be allowed and paid by us by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year, to the incumbents for the time being of the said several benefices respectively, in respect of such capital sums, or of such part or parts thereof as shall remain from time to time unapplied towards such purposes as aforesaid, the several yearly sums specified in the sixth column of the said schedule, and therein set against the names of the said several benefices respectively, or such parts of the said several yearly sums respectively as shall bear a proportion to the parts of the said several capital sums last-mentioned so remaining unapplied as aforesaid, corresponding with the proportion or proportions which the amounts of the said several yearly payments respectively bear to the amounts of the said respective capital sums so specified in the fifth column as aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

No. 1547.

For authorizing the Sale and Disposal of certain Property formerly belonging to the Prebend of Caistor in the Cathedral Church of Lincoln.

Gazetted 11th December 1863.

At the Court at Windsor, the 8th day of December 1863.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the prebend of Caistor in the cathedral church of Lincoln, and now vested in us.

"Whereas on the vacancy of the said prebend, which occurred on or about the third day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine by the elevation of the Very Reverend Walter Farquhar Hook, the then prebendary to the deanery of Chichester, all the lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments theretofore belonging to the said prebend (except any rights of patronage) became, by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas some portions of the lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments aforesaid are subject to beneficial leases and produce during the subsistence of such leases only small annual revenues, and partly on that account and partly on account of their character or situation are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the holder or holders thereof (if any), to be testified by his, her, or their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments theretofore belonging to the said prebend of Caistor, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lincoln.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of Saint Luke, Heywood, in the Parish of Bury, in the County of Lancaster and Diocese of Manchester.

Gazetted 8th January 1864.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 7th day of January 1864.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twelfth day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Luke situate at Heywood, in the parish of Bury, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester.

" Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Luke situate at Heywood aforesaid.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation,) we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those portions of the said parish of Bury which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Luke, Heywood.'

" And with the like consent of the said James Prince, Bishop of Manchester (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Luke, Heywood, being :—

"All those several portions of the parish of Bury, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester, which are comprised within and are co-extensive with those remaining parts of the township of Heap and chapelry of Heywood which are not included within the limits of the consolidated chapelry of Birkle of the particular district of Saint James, Heywood, and of the consolidated chapelry district of Saint Mary Birch, all in the county of Lancaster and diocese of Manchester aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the tenth day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the prebend of Leighton Beaudesert, otherwise Leighton Buzzard, in the cathedral church of Lincoln, and now vested in us.

" Whereas under an Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of another Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and by virtue of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, made under the provisions of the same Acts, and bearing date the thirteenth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and duly published in the London Gazette on the fourteenth day of the same month, all lands, tithes, and other hereditaments whatsoever then belonging to the said prebend (except rights of patronage), became absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

" And whereas our estate in the lands, tithes, and hereditaments aforesaid consists of reversions expectant upon the determination of beneficial leases for lives, and such lands, tithes, and hereditaments produce during the subsistence of such leases only small annual revenues, and partly on that account and partly on account of their character or situation are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any), to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments theretofore belonging to the said prebend, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lincoln.

No. 1553.

For assigning the Right of Patronage of the New Parish of Pendeen, in the County of Cornwall and Diocese of Exeter.

Gazetted 8th January 1864.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 7th day of January 1864.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the tenth day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words following; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for assigning the right of patronage of the new parish of Pendeen, in the county of Cornwall and in the diocese of Exeter.

"Whereas by an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-third day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, and published in the London Gazette on the ninth day of January in the following year, the district of Pendeen was constituted out of the Parish of Saint Just in the county and diocese aforesaid, and such district has since become a new parish under the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Act.

"And whereas no specific assignment of the whole or any part of the right of patronage and nomination of the minister of the said district, or so soon as the same should become a new parish as aforesaid, of the perpetual curate thereof, was made by the said Order, and such right of patronage and nomination has hitherto continued to be exercised in accordance with the directions in that behalf contained in the said Act.

"And whereas a sum of five hundred pounds sterling has been contributed and paid to us by the Reverend Richard Aitken, the perpetual curate of the said new parish of Pendeen, towards the augmentation of the endowment of the said new parish, and for the benefit of the perpetual curate thereof, and we have in respect of the said sum agreed with the said Richard Aitken, and have undertaken to provide and pay by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, to the perpetual curate of the said new parish (being duly licensed thereto), the yearly sum of sixteen pounds thirteen shillings and fourpence.

"And whereas the said sum of five hundred pounds was so contributed and paid by the said Richard Aitken as aforesaid, upon the understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said new parish, and of the nomination of the perpetual curate thereto, should be assigned to the said Richard Aitken, his heirs and assigns, in the manner herein-after recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said new parish of Pendeen, and of the nomination of the perpetual curate thereto, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Richard Aitken his heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or either of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Exeter.

Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the tenth day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the deanery of the cathedral church of Bangor, and now vested in us.

"Whereas on the vacancy of the said deanery, which occurred on or about the twenty-eighth day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two by the decease of the Very Reverend James Henry Cotton, the then Dean of Bangor, all the lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments theretofore belonging to the said deanery (except any rights of patronage) became, by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments aforesaid are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant, but are now in possession, but some portions thereof, on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund, it is expedient that the same, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Bangor.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church situate at Bierley in the Parish of Bradford, in the County of York and Diocese of Ripon.

Gazetted 8th January 1864.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 7th day of January 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the tenth day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church situate at Bierley, in the parish of Saint Peter, Bradford, in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church, situate at Bierley aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Saint Peter, Bradford, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church at Bierley, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Bierley.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (testified as aforesaid), we further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being; provided always, that so long as the Reverend John Burnet, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint Peter, Bradford, shall remain such vicar or incumbent all the said fees shall be paid by the minister aforesaid to the said John Burnet.

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Bierley, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Saint Peter, Bradford, in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon, which is comprised within those portions of the township of Bowling and of the eastern division of the township of North Bierley which are situate generally to the south of an imaginary line commencing at the point where the western boundary of the parochial chapelry of Tong in the county and diocese aforesaid meets the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Peter, Bradford, from the district chapelry of Saint Mary, Laister Dyke (sometime part of the last named parish); and extending thence north-westward along the last-described boundary as far as a point in the middle of Sticker Lane; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of such lane to its junction with the Leeds and Halifax turnpike road; and continuing thence, still south-westward, along the middle of such turnpike road to its intersection by the Bradford and Wakefield turnpike road; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named turnpike road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the eastern end of Upper Hall Lane; and extending thence westward to and along the middle of the last-named lane, for a distance of five hundred and forty-four yards, or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the middle of the north-western end of the wall or fence forming the north-eastern boundary of the gardens and premises belonging to Bowling Hall; and extending thence south-eastward to and along the middle of the said wall or fence to its junction with the wall or fence forming the south-eastern boundary of the same gardens and premises; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-described wall or fence to a point in the middle of the occupation road and footpath leading from Bowling Hall aforesaid to Dudley Hill, which said point is opposite to the middle of the south-western extremity of the last-described wall or fence; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the same road and footpath, for a distance of one hundred and sixty-five yards or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of the fence dividing the close numbered 1968 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Saint Peter, Bradford, and upon the map hereunto annexed, from the closes numbered respectively 1969 and 1970 upon the same maps; and extending thence south-westward to and along the middle of such last-mentioned fence to a point in the middle of the stream which divides the closes numbered respectively 1968 as aforesaid and 1967 upon the said maps from the close numbered 2117 upon the same maps; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said stream to a point opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of the fence dividing the close numbered 2124 upon the said maps from the close numbered 2117 as aforesaid; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-described fence and along the middle of the fences dividing the closes numbered respectively 2123, 2122, 2121, and 2120 upon the said maps from the closes numbered respectively 2117 as aforesaid, 2113, 2118, 2119, and 2105 upon the same maps to a point on the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Peter, Bradford, from the consolidated chapelry of Bankfoot in the county and diocese aforesaid, which said point is situate in the middle of Park Lane, otherwise called Oaks Lane, near to the farmhouse called Park Side, and opposite to the middle of the south-western extremity of the fence dividing the close numbered 2120 from the close numbered 2105 as aforesaid.

"And all which said several portions of the townships of Bowling and of the eastern division of the township of North Bierley aforesaid, are also situate to the east of another imaginary line, commencing at the last-described point on the boundary which divides the parish of Saint Peter, Bradford, from the consolidated chapelry of Bankfoot at or near to Park Side as aforesaid in the middle of Park Lane, otherwise called Oaks Lane, and extending thence southward along the last-described boundary, following the middle of the last-named lane to its southern extremity; and extending thence in a direct line south-eastward across the Leeds and Halifax turnpike road before-mentioned to the middle of the north-western end of a certain tramroad leading to the several coalpits and ironpits which are situate in and about Woodlands; and continuing thence, still south-eastward, along the middle of the said tramroad to the point where it crosses the boundary which divides the said township of Bowling from the eastern division of the township of North Bierley aforesaid; and extending thence south-westward along the said township boundary to its junction with the boundary separating the said eastern division of the township of North Bierley from the western division of the same township at a point on the eastern side of the line of the Bradford and Halifax Branch of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway; and extending thence south-eastward along the last-described boundary to its junction with the boundary which divides the parish of Saint Peter, Bradford, from the parish of Birstal as aforesaid at or near to the point where Toad Hole Beck flows into the Low Moor Beck."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.

For altering the Boundaries of the new Parish of Saint Peter Upper Gornal, in the County of Stafford and Diocese of Lichfield.

Gazetted 5th February 1864.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 3rd day of February 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty, of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eleventh day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter sixty, of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Saint Peter, Upper Gornal, in the county of Stafford and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the thirty-first day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and duly published in the London Gazette upon the sixteenth day of April in the same year, a portion of the parish of Sedgley, in the said county and diocese, was assigned as a separate district to the consecrated church of Saint Peter situate at Upper Gornal in the said parish, and such district was named 'The Chapelry District of Saint Peter, Upper Gornal.'

"And whereas the said chapelry district of Saint Peter, Upper Gornal, has, under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, since become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act and by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven.

"And whereas it has been proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Peter, Upper Gornal, should be altered as herein-after mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Lichfield (the bishop of the said diocese), of the Right Honourable William Earl of Dudley, the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Sedgley, of the Reverend William Lewis, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Sedgley aforesaid, and in right of such vicarage or incumbency the patron of the perpetual curacy of the said new parish of Saint Peter, Upper Gornal, and of the Reverend George Girdlestone Woodhouse, the incumbent of the said perpetual curacy of the new parish of Saint Peter, Upper Gornal, aforesaid (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that in our opinion it would be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Peter, Upper Gornal, should be altered so as to annex to such new parish all that portion of the said parish of Sedgley which is described in the first schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto appended, and is thereon coloured pink, and that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Peter, Upper Gornal, should be further altered so as to dissever therefrom all that portion thereof which is described in the second schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth upon the said map or plan hereunto appended, and is thereon coloured green.

"And we further represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that portion of the new parish of Saint Peter, Upper Gornal, aforesaid, so to be dissevered therefrom as last proposed, should be re-annexed to and should again form part of the parish of Sedgley aforesaid.

"And we humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The First Schedule to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The territory proposed to be dissevered from the Parish of Sedgley and to be annexed to the New Parish of Saint Peter, Upper Gornal, being :—

"All that portion of the parish of Sedgley, in the county of Stafford and in the diocese of Lichfield, which is comprised within that part of the hamlet of Woodsetton which is situate to the south of an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary dividing the said parish from the chapelry district of Saint Paul, Tipton, in the same county and diocese, at a point at the eastern end of the fence dividing the inclosure numbered 2233 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Sedgley and upon the map hereunto annexed; from the inclosure numbered 2246 upon the same maps, at which point a boundary stone inscribed 'U. G. St. P. N. P., 1863, No. 1,' has been placed; and extending thence, first westward to and along the middle of such fence, and then south-westward along the middle of the same fence to its junction with the fence dividing the inclosure numbered 2233, as aforesaid, from a certain occupation road leading to the inclosure numbered 2247 upon the said maps; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of such last-described fence to its junction with the fence dividing the inclosure and premises numbered 2242 upon the same maps from the said occupation road; and extending thence westward along the middle of the last described fence to its junction with the fence dividing the inclosure called 'Mons Hill' and numbered 2239 upon the said maps from the occupation road aforesaid; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-described fence to its junction with the fence dividing the inclosure last referred to from the inclosures and lands numbered respectively 2311, 2250, 2335, 2336, and 2338 on the same maps; and extending thence first westward and then generally north-westward along the middle of the last-described fence to its north-western extremity; and continuing thence, still north-westward and in a direct line, to a point in the middle of the road leading from Upper Gornal to the new turnpike road leading to Tipton Green; and extending thence westward along the middle of the said road leading from Upper Gornal, as aforesaid, for a distance of 140 yards or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of the southern end of the wall which divides the inclosure and premises belonging to Parkes's Hall Reservoir, and numbered 2149 upon the said maps, from the inclosures numbered respectively 2147 and 2146 upon the same maps; and extending thence northward to and along the middle of the said wall to a point in the middle of a certain stream called Parkes Hall Brook (which divides the inclosures numbered respectively 2151, 2152, and 2158 upon the said maps from the inclosure numbered 2146, as aforesaid, and from the inclosures numbered respectively 2145 and 2143 upon the same maps); and extending thence westward along the middle of the said stream as far as a point under the middle of the fence which divides the inclosure numbered 2132 upon the said maps from the inclosure numbered 2133 upon the same maps; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-described fence to its junction with the fence dividing the said close numbered 2133 from the closes numbered respectively 2142 and 2134 upon the before-mentioned maps; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the fence last referred to and along the middle of the fence dividing a certain lane (leading to Woodsetton) from the last-mentioned close to the junction of the last-described fence with the gate or fence dividing the said lane from the close numbered 2135 upon the said maps; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said gate or fence to its junction with the fence dividing the close numbered 2131 upon the said maps from the close numbered 2135 as aforesaid; and extending thence south-westward, along the middle of the fence last referred to, to a point on the boundary which divides the said parish of Sedgley from the new parish of Saint Peter, Upper Gornal (heretofore part of the parish of Sedgley aforesaid), at which point a boundary stone, inscribed 'U. G., St. P. N. P., 1863, No. 2,' has been placed.

"The SECOND SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The territory proposed to be dissevered from the New Parish of Saint Peter, Upper Gornal, and to be re-annexed to the Parish of Sedgley, being :—

"All that portion of the new parish of Saint Peter, Upper Gornal (heretofore part of the parish of Sedgley), in the county of Stafford and in the diocese of Lichfield, which is situate to the north and west of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said new parish of Saint Peter, Upper Gornal, from the hamlet of Cotwall End, in the parish of Sedgley aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the road leading from Cotwall End through Modenhill to the Dudley and Wolverhampton turnpike road, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the first mentioned road to its junction with the turnpike road aforesaid; and extending thence northward along the middle of such turnpike road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the western end of the wall or fence dividing the inclosure numbered 2420 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Sedgley and upon the map hereunto annexed from the inclosure and premises numbered 2421 upon the same maps; and extending thence eastward to and along the middle of such wall or fence to its junction with the fence dividing the inclosure numbered 2417 upon the said maps from the inclosure and premises numbered 2421 as aforesaid; and extending thence northward along the middle of such last-described fence to its junction with the fence dividing the inclosure numbered 2417 as aforesaid from the inclosure numbered 2422 upon the same maps; and extending thence eastward along the middle of such last-described fence to its junction with the fence dividing the inclosure numbered 2403 upon the said maps from the said inclosure numbered 2422; and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-described fence, and continuing in the same direction along the middle of the fences dividing the several enclosures numbered respectively 2402, 2401, 2400, and 2399 upon the said maps from the several inclosures numbered respectively 2422 as aforesaid, 2423, and 2424 upon the same maps to the northern extremity of the fence which divides the said inclosure numbered 2399 from the said inclosure numbered 2424; and extending thence, still northward, and in a straight line across the inclosure numbered 2425 on the aforesaid maps, to a point on the boundary dividing the said new parish of Saint Peter, Upper Gornal, from the hamlet of Woodsetton in the parish of Sedgley aforesaid, at which point a boundary stone inscribed 'U. G., St. P., N. P. 1863, No. 3,' has been placed."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lichfield.

No. 1559.

As to the Assignment of a Consolidated Chapelry to the Church called Christ Church, Biddulph Moor, in the County of Stafford and Diocese of Lichfield.

Gazetted 5th February 1864.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 3rd day of February 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twelfth day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church called Christ Church, situate at Biddulph Moor, in the parish of Biddulph, in the county of Stafford and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Biddulph and of the parish of Horton, in the same county and diocese, which lie contiguous one to another and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient, that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Biddulph and of the said parish of Horton should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church called Christ Church situate at Biddulph Moor aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, of James Bateman, of Biddulph Grange, in the said county of Stafford, Esquire, the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Biddulph, and of John Coutts Antrobus of Eaton Hall, in the county of Chester, Esquire, the patron of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Horton (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Biddulph and of the said parish of Horton which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church called Christ Church, situate at Biddulph Moor aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Christ Church, Biddulph Moor.'

"And we further represent, that it has been mutually agreed between the said James Bateman and the said John Coutts Antrobus (testified as aforesaid), that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry shall belong to and shall be exercised by the said James Bateman, his heirs and assigns.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Christ Church, Biddulph Moor, being :—

"All that portion of the parish of Biddulph, in the county of Stafford and in the diocese of Lichfield, which is situate generally to the north and east of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said parish of Biddulph from the parish of Horton, in the same county and diocese, at the point where the Pool Brook crosses the road leading from Horton to Knypersley; and extending thence first south-westward and then north-westward along the middle of such road to its junction with the road leading from Knypersley to Biddulph Moor, such point of junction being opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'B. M. Ch. Ch. C. C., 1863,' and placed on the western side of the last-described road in the middle of the eastern end of the fence which divides the close numbered 1157 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Biddulph, and upon the map hereunto annexed, from the close numbered 1159 upon the same maps; and extending thence first westward and in a direct line to such boundary stone; and continuing thence in a direction mainly north-westward along the middle of the said fence and along the middle of the fences which divide the close numbered 1158, the farmhouse and premises called 'Wickenstone,' and numbered 1213, and the closes numbered respectively 1212 and 1211 upon the said maps, from the closes numbered respectively 1159 as aforesaid, 1161, 1209, 1210, and 1267 upon the same maps to the junction of the fence dividing the close numbered 1211 from the close numbered 1267 as aforesaid, with the fence dividing the said close numbered 1211 from the close numbered 1265 upon the said maps; and extending thence in a direction mainly north-eastward along the middle of the last-described fence and along the middle of the fences dividing the close and building numbered 1262, and the several closes, premises, and plantations numbered respectively 1260, 1258, 1314, 1318, 1319, 1352, 1350, 1351, 1402, 1401, and 1400 upon the said maps from the closes numbered respectively 1265 as aforesaid, 1263, 1259, 1312, 1313, 1358, 1357, 1356, 1355, 1353, 1354, 1395, and 1399 upon the same maps to the northern extremity of the fence which divides the close and premises numbered 1400 from the close numbered 1399 as aforesaid, at a point on the southern side of the road leading from Biddulph to Biddulph Moor; and extending thence northward and in a direct line across the said road to the middle of the western end of the fence which divides the close numbered 1440 on the said maps from the close numbered 1444 upon the same maps; and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-described fence to its junction with the fence dividing the closes numbered respectively 1445, 1501, 1503, 1523, 1524, and 1525 upon the said maps from the close numbered 1444 as aforesaid; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-described fence to its junction with the fence dividing the close numbered 1681 upon the said maps from the closes numbered respectively 1444 as aforesaid and 1682 upon the same maps; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-described fence to its junction with the fence dividing the close numbered 1681 as aforesaid from the plantation called 'Sprinks Coppice,' and numbered 1723 upon the said maps; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-described fence to its junction with the fence dividing the closes numbered respectively 1680, 1678A, 1748B, and 1748 upon the said maps from the plantation called 'Sprinks Coppice,' and numbered 1723 as aforesaid; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-described fence to its junction with the fence dividing the close numbered 1748 as aforesaid from the close numbered 1975 upon the said maps; and extending thence north-eastward, along the middle of the last-described fence to its north-eastern extremity, at a point on the southern side of the road leading from Biddulph Moor, to the farm premises called Hurst; and continuing thence still north-eastward and in a direct line to a point in the middle of the last-described road; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the same road to its junction with the road leading from the farm premises called Hurst as aforesaid, past the western side of Troughstones Hill to High Bent and Horton, and numbered 1845 upon the said maps; and extending thence first eastward and then north-eastward along the middle of the last-described road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the southern end of the fence dividing the close numbered 1862 upon the said maps from the close numbered 1861 upon the same maps, such point being near the foot of the northern end of Troughstones Hill aforesaid; and extending thence northward to and along the middle of the last-described fence to its northern extremity; and continuing thence, still northward and in a direct line, to a point in the middle of a certain occupation road leading from the close numbered 1862 as aforesaid towards Biddulph Common; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said occupation road to its junction with the road leading past Biddulph Common to Biddulph Hall; and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-described road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the fence dividing the close numbered 2223 upon the said maps from the portion of Biddulph Common which is numbered 2221 upon the same maps; and extending thence north-eastward to and along the middle of the last-described fence to a point on the boundary dividing the said parish of Biddulph from the parochial chapelry of Rushton Spencer, in the parish of Leek and in the county of Stafford and diocese of Lichfield aforesaid.

"And also all that portion of the parish of Horton aforesaid which is situate to the north of an imaginary line commencing at the first described point upon the boundary dividing such parish from the said parish of Biddulph where the Pool Brook crosses the road leading from Knypersley to Horton as aforesaid; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said road to its junction with the road leading from Blackwood Hill to Rushton Spencer, and all which said portion of the parish of Horton aforesaid is also situate to the west of another imaginary line commencing at the last-described point of junction in the middle of the road leading from Blackwood Hill to Rushton Spencer; and extending thence northward along the middle of such road to the boundary which again divides the parish of Horton from the parish of Biddulph as aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lichfield.

No. 1560.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church called Christ Church, Eastbourne, in the County of Sussex and Diocese of Chichester.

Gazetted 5th February 1864.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 3rd day of February 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the seventeenth day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter sixty, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church called Christ Church, situate in the chapelry district of the Holy Trinity, Eastbourne (sometime part of the parish of Eastbourne), in the county of Sussex, and in the diocese of Chichester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church called Christ Church situate at Eastbourne aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Ashhurst Turner, Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said chapelry district of the Holy Trinity, Eastbourne, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Eastbourne.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Ashhurst Turner Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being; provided always, that so long as the Reverend Thomas Pitman, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Eastbourne, shall remain such vicar or incumbent, all the fees which shall be received in respect of such publication of banns of matrimony and in respect of such solemnization or performance of marriages and burials at Christ Church aforesaid shall be paid by the minister thereof to the said Thomas Pitman.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Eastbourne, being:—

"All that part of the chapelry district of the Holy Trinity, Eastbourne (sometime part of the parish of Eastbourne), in the county of Sussex and in the diocese of Chichester, which is situate to the north-east of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said chapelry district from the parish of Eastbourne aforesaid, at a point in the middle of a certain occupation road, leading from Eastbourne to Bedford Well, opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'E. Ch. Ch. D. C., 1863, No. 1,' and placed on the south-eastern side of the said road at the north-western end of the watercourse which divides the close numbered 323 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Eastbourne, and upon the map hereunto annexed, from the closes numbered respectively 322, 427, and 379 upon the same maps; and extending thence first south-eastward to such boundary stone, and continuing thence still south-eastward to and along the middle of the said watercourse, and then south-westward along the middle of the same watercourse to its junction with the watercourse dividing the close numbered 378 upon the said maps from the close numbered 379 as aforesaid; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last described watercourse, and along the middle of the watercourse dividing the close numbered 383 upon the said maps, from the said close numbered 379, to a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'E. Ch. Ch. D. C., 1863, No. 2,' and placed on the northern side of the last-described watercourse, at or near to its junction with the watercourse dividing the said close numbered 379 from the close numbered 380 upon the said maps; and extending thence in a direct line, still south-eastward, for a distance of one hundred and ten yards or thereabouts, across a portion of the said close numbered 383 to a point in the middle of the present north-western end of Bourne Street, and continuing thence still south-eastward along the middle of such street as far as the point where it intersects the Drove Road; and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with the road which leads from Westham, past Sea Houses, to Eastbourne; and extending thence south-eastward and in a direct line across the last described road to a point in the middle of the western end of a certain road or passage which leads towards the sea and passes between the building called 'The Working Men's Hall,' and numbered 480 upon the said maps, and the house and garden occupied by James Parks, of Eastbourne, and numbered 479 upon the same maps; and extending thence eastward along the middle of the said road or passage to its eastern extremity; and extending thence in a direct line due east to the south-eastern boundary of the said chapelry district of the Holy Trinity, Eastbourne."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chichester.

EDMUND HARRISON.

No. 1561.

For making better Provision for the Cure of Souls in certain Parishes and Districts.

Gazetted 5th February 1864.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 3rd day of February 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventeenth day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

"We humbly recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, out of the Common Fund in the said Acts mentioned, in each and every year to the incumbent for the time being of each of the benefices described in the first schedule hereunto annexed, the annual sum set opposite to the name of each such benefice in the last column of the same schedule, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year; provided always, that the grants so recommended to be made by us to the benefices of Breaston with Risley, Saint Paul, Haggerstone, Pocklington, Saint Paul, Shadwell, and Weeford with Hints, shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or before the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, of certificates under the hand of the bishops of the respective dioceses, that a curate duly licensed by such bishop has in each instance been employed within the parish or district during the preceding half year; and provided also, that a like certificate be required with regard to the payment of a portion amounting to one hundred pounds of the grant so recommended to be made by us to the benefice of Ebberston with Allerston; and provided furthermore, that with regard to the grant so recommended to be made by us to the benefice of Friday Bridge, a like certificate be required that a curate has been duly employed at Coldham and Pear Tree Hill, within the said district of Friday Bridge; and provided also, that such lastly-mentioned grant shall be payable only so long as the said hamlets or places called respectively Coldham and Pear Tree Hill shall continue to form part of the district which is now for spiritual purposes under the charge of the perpetual curate or incumbent of Friday Bridge.

"And we further recommend and propose that the lands and premises, tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes, annual rents or money payments, and other hereditaments particularly described in the second and six following schedules hereunto annexed, with their appurtenances, now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the several spiritual persons herein-after mentioned; that is to say:—That the rentcharges described in the second schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate within the parish of North Anston, in the county and diocese of York, which were conveyed to us by a deed, bearing date the sixth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, made between Charles Wright, of North Anston aforesaid, Esquire, of the first part, Robert Wright, of the same place, Esquire, of the second part, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the third part, and the Right Honourable Henry Thomas, Earl of Chichester, of the fourth part, which deed is intended to be deposited in the registry of the diocese of York, shall be transferred and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of North and South Anston; that the rentcharges or chief rents described in the third schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate at or near Tonge, in the parish of Prestwich-cum-Oldham, in the county of Lancaster and diocese of Manchester, which were conveyed to us by a deed, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of September in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, made between William Langton and Charles Langton, both of Liverpool, in the said county of Lancaster, Esquires, of the first part, the Reverend William Hornby, Clerk, vicar of Saint Michael's-on-Wyre, in the same county, of the second part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the third part, which deed is intended to be deposited in the registry of the diocese of Manchester, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of Saint Martin, Castleton Moor, in the same county and diocese; that the lands and hereditaments described in the fourth schedule hereunto annexed, situate at Croydon, in the county of Surrey and diocese of Canterbury, which were conveyed to us by a deed bearing date the thirtieth day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and made between John Russell, of Number 3, Bedford Park, in the parish of Croydon, Esquire, of the one part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the other part, which deed is intended to be deposited in the registry of the diocese of Canterbury, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of Saint Peter, Croydon; that the lands and hereditaments described in the fifth schedule hereunto annexed, situate at Esh, in the county and diocese of Durham, formerly belonging to the fourth canonry in the cathedral church of Durham, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of Esh; that the lands and hereditaments described in the sixth schedule hereunto annexed, situate at Greetland in the parish of Halifax, in the county of York and diocese of Ripon, which were conveyed to us by a deed bearing date the fifth day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and made between Sir Joseph Radcliffe, of Rudding Park, in the said county of York, Baronet, of the one part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the other part, which deed is intended to be deposited in the registry of the diocese of Ripon, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of Saint Thomas, Greetland; that the lands and hereditaments described in the seventh schedule hereunto annexed, situate within the parish of Minety, in the counties of Gloucester and Wilts and diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, formerly belonging to the archdeaconry of Wilts, and now vested in us, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Minety; that the land and hereditaments described in the eighth schedule hereunto annexed, situate at Staleybridge, in the parish of Ashton-under-Lyne, in the county of Lancaster and diocese of Manchester, which were conveyed to us by a deed bearing date the fourth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and made between the Right Honourable George Harry, Earl of Stamford and Warrington, of the first part, John Petty Muspratt, of Lombard Street, in the city of London, banker, William Cotton, of Leytonstone, in the county of Essex, Esquire, Matthew Whiting, of Barge Yard, Bucklersbury, in the said city of London, merchant, and Kirkman Daniel Hodgson, of Saint Helen's Place, in the said city, merchant, of the second part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the third part, which deed is intended to be deposited in the registry of the diocese of Manchester, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of New Saint George, Staleybridge.

"And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Reverend Morgan Hughes, Clerk, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Corwen, in the county of Merioneth and diocese of St. Asaph, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme that the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes described in the first part of the ninth schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate within the said parish of Corwen, with their appurtenances; and also the lands and hereditaments described in the second part of the same schedule, situate within the same parish, with their appurtenances, all which formerly belonged to the sinecure rectory of Corwen, and are now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein shall, in like manner and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Corwen; provided always, that the same tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes, lands, and hereditaments, to be so annexed as last-mentioned, shall be charged and chargeable at all times for ever hereafter, exclusively and in exoneration of all or any other property formerly belonging to the said sinecure rectory, with certain payments amounting to three pounds per annum, to which the said sinecure rectory was formerly liable in respect of tenths, annuals, and lactuals.

"And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Reverend Henry Ellershaw, Clerk, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Millington, with the vicarage of the parish of Great Givendale annexed, both in the said county and diocese of York, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that the money payments in lieu of tithes described in the first part of the tenth schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate within the said parish of Millington, with their appurtenances, and also the lands and hereditaments, described in the second part of the same schedule, situate within the said parish of Millington, with their appurtenances, all which formerly belonged to the deanery of the cathedral and metropolitical church of Saint Peter at York, and are now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein shall, in like manner and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the said united vicarages of Millington and Great Givendale, in lieu of and in full substitution for and discharge of the annual sum or stipend of five pounds and sixteen shillings heretofore payable by us to the said vicar or incumbent in respect of the estates formerly belonging to the said deanery.

"And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Reverend Thomas Richardson, Clerk, the perpetual curate or incumbent of the perpetual curacy of Saint Matthew, Pell Street, London, in the county of Middlesex and diocese of London, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that the messuages, lands, hereditaments, and premises described in the eleventh schedule hereunto annexed, situate in the parish of Bethnal Green, in the same county and diocese, with their appurtenances, all which hereditaments and premises were conveyed to us in and by a deed bearing date the sixteenth day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and made between Samuel Wray, of Number 15, Albion Grove, Thornhill Road, Barnsbury, in the said county of Middlesex, Gentleman, of the first part; George Clarkson, of Number 9A, Great Saint Helen's, Bishopsgate, in the city of London, surveyor, of the second part; the said George Clarkson, of the third part; George Holme, of Number 15, Percy Street, Liverpool, in the said county of Lancaster, architect, and Montague Gosset, of Number 4, Coleman Street, in the said city of London, Gentleman, of the fourth part; the said Thomas Richardson, of Number 17, Prince's Square, Saint George's in the East, in the said county of Middlesex, Clerk, of the fifth part; and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the sixth part; which deed is intended to be deposited in the registry of the diocese of London, shall, in like manner and by the authority aforesaid, subject, nevertheless, to the several indentures of lease, the dates of which, with the names of the lessees to whom the same are respectively granted, and the reserved rents to which the same are respectively subject, are in the said eleventh schedule hereunto annexed, set opposite to the description of the said hereditaments which are demised by such leases respectively, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of Saint Matthew, Pell Street, in lieu of and in full substitution for and discharge of an annual sum of sixty-three pounds eight shillings and eightpence, part of the annual sum or stipend of sixty-four pounds heretofore payable by us to the said perpetual curate or incumbent under the provisions of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

"And whereas it appears to us, after duly considering the circumstances of the cases undermentioned, to be expedient that the grants respectively recommended to be made by us to the benefices or churches of North and South Anston, Saint Martin, Castleton Moor, Corwen, Saint Peter, Croydon, Esh, Saint Jude, Gray's Inn Road, Saint Thomas, Greetland, Haxby, Millington with Great Givendale, Minety, Saint Matthew, Pell Street, London, and Strensall, should commence and take effect from the several dates herein-after mentioned respectively; that is to say: in the case of the perpetual curacy of North and South Anston, from the twelfth day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three; in the case of the perpetual curacy of Saint Martin, Castleton Moor, from the twenty-ninth day of September in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three; in the case of the vicarage of Corwen, from the twelfth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one; in the case of the perpetual curacy of Saint Peter, Croydon, from the thirtieth day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three; in the case of the perpetual curacy of Esh, from the tenth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two; in the case of the perpetual curacy of Saint Jude, Gray's Inn Road, from the twenty-eighth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three; in the case of the perpetual curacy of Saint Thomas, Greetland, from the fifth day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three; in the case of the perpetual curacy of Haxby, from the twenty-fourth day of September in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three; in the case of the vicarage of Millington, with the vicarage of Great Givendale annexed, from the nineteenth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two; in the case of the vicarage of Minety, from the twenty-fifth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three; in the case of the perpetual curacy of Saint Matthew, Pell Street, London, from the twenty-sixth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three; and in the case of the vicarage of Strensall, from the twenty-fourth day of September in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three:

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the several grants herein-before recommended by us to be made to the said last-mentioned benefices respectively shall commence and take effect from the said dates herein-before in that behalf mentioned respectively.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

EDMUND HARRISON.

No. 1562.

As to the Assignment of a Consolidated Chapelry to the Church of Saint Mark, Victoria Docks, Plaistow, in the County of Essex and Diocese of London.

Gazetted 5th February 1864.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 3rd day of February 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twelfth day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mark, situate at Victoria Docks, in the new parish of Saint Mary, Plaistow, in the county of Essex and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Saint Mary, Plaistow, of the parish of East Ham, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and of the parish of Woolwich, in the county of Kent and in the said diocese of London, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective new parish and parishes.

" And whereas it appears to us to be expedient, that such contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint Mary, Plaistow, and of the said parishes of East Ham and Woolwich should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Mark situate at Victoria Docks aforesaid.

" Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, the bishop of the diocese, and in right of his see the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of East Ham, of the Reverend Abel John Ram, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of West Ham, in the said county of Essex and diocese of London, and as such vicar or incumbent the patron of the perpetual curacy of the said new parish of Saint Mary, Plaistow, and of the Right Reverend Joseph Cotton, Bishop of Rochester, the patron in right of his see of the rectory of the said parish of Woolwich (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint Mary, Plaistow, and of the said respective parishes of East Ham and Woolwich, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Mark situate at Victoria Docks aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Mark, Victoria Docks.'

" And we further represent, that it has been mutually agreed between the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, Abel John Ram, and Joseph Cotton, Bishop of Rochester (testified as aforesaid), that the first turn or right of presentation and appointment to the church of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Mark, Victoria Docks, which shall hereafter arise shall belong to and be exercised by Charles Capper, of Upton, in the said county of Essex, Esquire, his heirs or assigns ; and that, subject thereto, every subsequent right of presentation and appointment to the church of the said consolidated chapelry shall belong to and be exercised by the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, and his successors, Bishops of London, for ever.

" We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

" The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

" The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Mark, Victoria Docks, being :—

" All that part of the new parish of Saint Mary, Plaistow, in the county of Essex and in the diocese of London, which is situate to the south and west of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing such new parish from the parish of West Ham in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of the North Woolwich Road; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-western end of Hallsville Road; and extending thence north-eastward to and along the middle of the last-named road, and along the middle of Roscoe Street to a point in the middle of Forty Acre Lane and continuing thence, still north-eastward, along the middle of the last-named lane to a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern extremity of Old Star Lane and due north-west of a boundary stone inscribed 'V. D. St. M. C. C., 1863, No. 1,' and placed on the eastern side of Forty Acre Lane aforesaid; and extending thence south-eastward to such boundary stone, and continuing thence in the same direction and in a straight line across the close numbered 809 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of West Ham, and upon the map hereunto annexed, to a boundary stone inscribed 'V. D. St. M. C. C., 1863, No. 2,' and placed on the western side of Butcher Head Lane, at a point opposite to the middle of the north-western end of New Marsh Lane; and continuing thence, still south-eastward, across Butcher Head Lane, and along the middle of New Marsh Lane aforesaid, to a point in the middle of Dirty Lane; and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named lane as far as a point opposite to the middle of the western end of the ditch called Lay Wick Ditch; and extending thence eastward to and along the middle of such ditch to its junction with the western side of Prince Regent Lane; and continuing thence, still eastward and in a direct line, to a point in the middle of the last mentioned lane; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the same lane as far as a point opposite to the middle of the western end of Whitfield Lane; and extending thence eastward to and along the middle of the last-named lane to a point in the middle of the fence dividing such lane from the close numbered 458 on the before-mentioned maps; and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-described fence to its junction with the ditch dividing the said close numbered 458 upon the aforesaid maps from the closes numbered respectively 461 and 460 upon the same maps; and extending thence eastward along the middle of the said ditch to its junction with the fence dividing the close numbered 460 as aforesaid from the close called Four Acre Tunn Marsh Corner Field and numbered 459 upon the said maps; and extending thence south-eastward and in a straight line across the last-mentioned close to a boundary stone inscribed 'P. W. H. 1801,' which marks the boundary dividing the said new parish of Saint Mary, Plaistow, from the parish of East Ham in the same county and diocese. And also all that part of the said parish of East Ham which is situate to the south of an imaginary line extending along the middle of a certain stream known as the Open Cut Sewer. And also all that part of a certain detached portion of the parish of Wool-wich, in the county of Kent and in the said diocese of London, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the west by the said parish of East Ham, on the south and east by the River Thames, and on the north by an imaginary line extending along the middle of the Open Cut Sewer aforesaid. And also all that other detached portion of the said parish of Woolwich, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the east, north, and west by the said parish of East Ham, and on the south by the River Thames."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of Saint Mary, Plaistow, in the Parish of Bromley, in the County of Kent and Diocese of Canterbury.

Gazetted 5th February 1864.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 3rd day of February 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the seventeenth day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mary, situate at Plaistow, in the parish of Bromley, in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Canterbury.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient, that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Mary situate at Plaistow aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Charles Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Bromley which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church of Saint Mary situate at Plaistow, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Mary, Plaistow.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Charles Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury (testified as aforesaid), we further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being; provided always, that so long as the Reverend James Edward Newell, the present incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Bromley, shall remain such incumbent, all the said fees which may be received by the said minister of the church of Saint Mary aforesaid shall be paid by him to the said James Edward Newell.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Mary, Plaistow, being:—

'All that part of the parish of Bromley, in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Canterbury, which is situate to the west of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides such parish from the parish of Lee, in the said county of Kent and in the diocese of London, at a point in the middle of Burntash Lane; and extending thence southward along the middle of such lane as far as a point opposite to the middle of the north-western end of the road leading to Hall's Farm, called 'Milk Street'; and extending thence south-eastward to and along the middle of such road to its junction with the occupation road leading from the said farm through the close numbered 142 upon the map of the ordnance survey of the said parish of Bromley, published in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and upon the map hereunto annexed; and continuing thence, still south-eastward, along the middle of the said occupation road to its junction with the road leading from Tandy's, past Sundridge Park and Freelands to Widmore; and extending thence in a direction generally southward along the middle of the last-described road (passing to the east of the cottage situate in the triangular plot numbered 220 upon the maps aforesaid) as far as a point opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of Freelands Road; and extending thence first south-westward to and along the middle of the last-named road, and then southward along the middle of the same road as far as the point where it is intersected by the northern branch of the footpath leading from Chislehurst to Bromley opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'P. St. M. D. C. 1863, No. 1,' and placed on the western side of the said road in the northern angle formed by its junction with the said branch footpath, and all which said part of the parish of Bromley aforesaid is also situate to the north of another imaginary line commencing at the last-described point in the middle of Freelands Road, opposite to the said boundary stone; and extending thence first westward along the middle of the said branch footpath, past the said boundary stone, and across the close numbered 339 on the maps aforesaid, and then, in a direction generally south-westward, along the middle of the same branch footpath, passing to the south and in front of the cottages called 'Crystal Palace Row,' and also to the north and in front of the houses called 'Zion Place,' and passing also the northern end of a certain street leading to Park Road, and also the front of the wooden cottages belonging to John Nettlefold, of Bromley, auctioneer, and then continuing in a direction almost due south-west, still along the middle of the said branch footpath, past the northern end of the street called 'Palace Grove' and across the close numbered 381 upon the said maps, to the point on the western side of such close where six footpaths meet, opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'P. St. M. D. C., 1863, No. 2,' and placed near the southern end of the fence which divides the said close numbered 381 from the close numbered 380 upon the same maps; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the footpath which leads to and across the said close numbered 380 to a point opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of the fence which divides the close numbered 318 upon the said maps from the nursery gardens situate at the back of Bromley College, and numbered 378 upon the same maps; and extending thence south-westward to and along the middle of such fence to its junction with the wall which divides the said close numbered 318 from the gardens and premises belonging to Bromley College aforesaid, and continuing thence still south-westward along the middle of such wall to its south-western extremity upon the eastern side of the London Road; and extending thence in a straight line due west for a distance of five hundred and seventy yards or thereabouts, crossing the last-named road and the closes numbered respectively 315, 316, and 314, and the plantation numbered 246 upon the said maps, and crossing also Bromley Hill Wood and the close numbered 245 upon the same maps to a boundary stone inscribed 'P. St. M. D. C., 1863, No. 3.' and placed at the middle of the north-eastern end of the fence which divides the close numbered 244 upon the said maps from the closes numbered 310 and 309 upon the same maps; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-described fence crossing the River Ravensbourne to the boundary which divides the said parish of Bromley from the parish of Beckenham, in the county of Kent and diocese of Canterbury aforesaid, at the parish boundary stone situate one hundred yards or thereabouts north-west of the centre of the northern side of Beckingham Bridge."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Canterbury.

No. 1566.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of Saint Mark, Notting Hill, in the County of Middlesex and Diocese of London.

Gazetted 5th February 1864.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 3rd day of February 1864.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty four, of the Act of the first and second years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and seven, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the seventeenth day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

" We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the first and second years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and seven, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mark, situate at Notting Hill, in the district parish of Saint John, Notting Hill, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

" Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Mark, situate at Notting Hill aforesaid :

" Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London, and of the Reverend John Philip Gell, the incumbent of the said district parish of Saint John, Notting Hill, (testified by their having respectively signed and sealed this representation,) we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said district parish of Saint John, Notting Hill, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church of Saint Mark, situate at Notting Hill, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Mark, Notting Hill.'

"And with the like consent of the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, and of the said John Philip Gell, (testified as aforesaid,) we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the saine church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Mark, Notting Hill, being:—

"All that part of the district parish of Saint John, Notting Hill, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, wherein the present incumbent of such district parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is situate generally to the north-west of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides such district parish from the new parish of All Saints, Notting Hill, in the county and diocese aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the road or street called Ladbroke Grove opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of the road called Lansdowne Road North; and extending thence south-westward to and along the middle of the last-named road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of Chichester Road; and extending thence north-westward to and along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with the road or street called Elgin Crescent; and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named road or street to its junction with the Clarendon Road; and continuing thence, still southward, diagonally across the last-named road, to a point in the middle of the north-eastern end of the road called Portland Road North; and extending thence first south-westward along the middle of the last-named road and then north-westward along the middle of the same road (the distance traversed in the last-mentioned direction being one hundred and seven yards or thereabouts) to a point opposite to the middle of the eastern end of the partition wall which separates the houses and premises situate on the western side of the said road and numbered respectively 77 and 79, and also similarly numbered on the map hereunto annexed; and extending thence south-westward to and along the middle of the said partition wall to its western extremity; and continuing thence still south-westward and in a direct line to a point on the boundary which divides the said district parish of Saint John, Notting Hill, from the district parish of Saint James, Norlands, in the county and diocese aforesaid, at or near to the house called or known as Sherman's."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of Saint Mary, Cofton, in the Chapelry of Starcross, in the County of Devon and Diocese of Exeter.

Gazetted 5th February 1864.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 3rd day of February 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the seventeenth day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mary, situate at Cofton, in the consolidated chapelry district of Starcross, in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter.

" Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Mary, situate at Cofton aforesaid.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter, (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation,) we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said consolidated chapelry district of Starcross which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Mary, Cofton.'

" And with the like consent of the said Henry, Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter, (testified as aforesaid,) we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

" We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

" The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

" The District Chapelry of Saint Mary, Cofton, being:—

" All that part of the consolidated chapelry district of Starcross, in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter, which is situate to the east and south of an imaginary line commencing on the boundary which divides the said consolidated chapelry district from the parish of Dawlish, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of the turnpike road leading from Dawlish to Starcross opposite to the south-eastern end of Smuggler's Lane; and extending thence first northward along the middle of the said road and then north-eastward along the middle of the same road as far as a point near South Brook Cottage opposite to the middle of the northern end of the road leading to Cockwood; and extending thence in a straight line due east to the eastern boundary of the said consolidated chapelry district of Starcross in the estuary of the River Exe."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Exeter.

No. 1570.

For constituting the District of Saint James, Hampstead Road, out of the Parish of Saint Pancras, in the County of Middlesex and Diocese of London.

Gazetted 5th February 1864.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 3rd day of February 1864,

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following ; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion, that the particular part of the said parish of Saint Pancras herein-after mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in the manner herein-after set forth.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the said parish of Saint Pancras have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein mentioned Acts.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said parish of Saint Pancras which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint James, Hampstead Road.'

"And we further recommend and propose that there shall be paid by us in each and every year by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the herein secondly-mentioned Act, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds, and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or the first day of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister as aforesaid; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry of such district shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister succeeding to such district: Provided always, that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the minister of the said district, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land tithe or other hereditament should be conveyed or secured to such minister and his successors in fee, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint James, Hampstead Road, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is comprised within and is bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said parish from the new parish of Christchurch, Saint Pancras, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of Stanhope Street opposite to the middle of the south-western end of Rutland Street; and extending thence southward along the said boundary following the middle of Stanhope Street aforesaid and the middle of Mary Street to the junction of the same boundary in the middle of the last-named street with the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Pancras from the new parish of Saint Mary Magdalene, Saint Pancras, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and continuing thence still southward along the last-described boundary (still following the middle of Mary Street aforesaid) as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-western end of Charles Street; and extending thence north-eastward to and along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with the Hampstead Road; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said road to a point on the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Pancras from the new parish of All Saints, Saint Pancras, in the same county and diocese, such point being situate at the junction of the said Hampstead Road with the Euston Road; and extending thence north-eastward along the last-described boundary (following the middle of the last-named road) as far as the point where such road is intersected by the road forming the western side of Euston Square; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last described road to its junction with Melton Street; and continuing thence still north-westward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Drummond Street; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named street as far as a point on the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Pancras from the district chapelry of Somers Town, in the county and diocese aforesaid, such point being opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of Whittlebury Street; and extending thence first north-westward along the last described boundary following the middle of the last-named street, and then westward along the same boundary following the middle of Cardington Street as far as the point at which such boundary diverges from the last-named street; and extending thence first northward and then north-westward along the same boundary to its junction in the middle of the road forming the north-western side of Ampthill Square with the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Pancras from the new parish of Saint Matthew, Bedford New Town, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence first south-westward along the last-described boundary following the middle of the last-mentioned road; and then northward along the same boundary following the middle of the Hampstead Road aforesaid; and then south-westward still along the same boundary following the middle of Rutland Street aforesaid to the junction of such boundary with the boundary dividing the parish of Saint Pancras from the new parish of Christchurch, Saint Pancras, as aforesaid, at the first-described point in the middle of Stanhope Street opposite to the middle of the south-western end of Rutland Street aforesaid, where the said imaginary line commenced.

"Save and except such portion of the territory situate within the limits herein-before described as consists of a certain plot of land comprising four acres or thereabouts, which said plot has been under the provisions of certain Acts of Parliament, to wit, those of the twenty-ninth George the Third, chapter forty-seven, and of the thirtieth George the Third, chapter seventy, taken for the purposes therein specified out of the said parish of Saint Pancras and made for such purposes a part of the parish of Saint James, Westminster."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-before secondly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the incumbent and to the patrons of the parish out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such incumbent and patrons have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

As to the Assignment of a Consolidated Chapelry to the Church of Saint John the Evangelist, Calder Vale, in the Parish of Garstang, in the County of Lancaster and Diocese of Manchester.

Gazetted 4th March 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 1st day of March 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourteenth day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate at Calder Vale, in the parish of Saint Helen,

Garstang, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Saint Helen, Garstang, and of the parochial chapelry of Bleasdale, within the parish of Lancaster, in the county and diocese aforesaid, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a a population which is situate at a distance from the church of the said parish of Saint Helen, Garstang, and from the church of the said parochial chapelry of Bleasdale.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous parts of the said parish of Saint Helen, Garstang, and of the said parochial chapelry of Bleasdale should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint John the Evangelist situate at Calder Vale aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, of Thomas Pedder of Finsthwaite House, Newton in Cartmel, in the said county of Lancaster, gentleman, and of Richard Pedder, of Winckley Square, Preston, in the same county, gentleman, the patrons of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint Helen, Garstang, of George Marton, of Capernwray Hall, in the said county of Lancaster, gentleman, the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Lancaster, and of the Reverend Joseph Turner, the vicar or incumbent of such last-mentioned vicarage, and as such vicar or incumbent the patron of the perpetnal curacy of the said parochial chapelry of Bleasdale (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous parts of the said parish of Saint Helen, Garstang, and of the said parochial chapelry of Bleasdale, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which parts, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint John the Evangelist situate at Calder Vale aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist, Calder Vale.'

"And we further represent, that it has been mutually agreed between the said Thomas Pedder, Richard Pedder, George Marton, and Joseph Turner (testified as aforesaid), that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist, Calder Vale, shall belong to and be exercised alternately by the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint Helen, Garstang, and by William James Garnett, of Quernmore Park, in the said county of Lancaster, Esquire, his heirs and assigns, and that the first such right of presentation and appointment as aforesaid which shall arise shall belong to and be exercised by such last-mentioned vicar or incumbent.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist, Calder Vale, being :—

"All that part of the parish of Saint Helen, Garstang, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester, which is comprised within those portions of the township of Claughton, and of the township of Barnacre-with-Bonds, and within that detached portion of the township of Catterall, which are situate to the north-east of an imaginary line commencing on the boundary dividing the said township of Claughton from the township of Bilsborough, in the same parish, at a point in the centre of Walmsley Bridge, which carries a certain lane leading to Sandholme Mill over the River Brock ; and extending thence in a direction mainly north-westward along the middle of the said lane, passing Duckworth Hall and Langtrees and Crab Tree Nook, and crossing the boundary which divides the said township of Claughton from the township of Barnacre-with-Bonds aforesaid to the southern end of Sandholme Bridge, near Sandholme Mill aforesaid ; and extending thence northward along the middle of the said bridge crossing the River Calder to the middle of the southern end of Sandholme Lane ; and extending thence in a direction mainly northward along the middle of the last-named lane to its junction with Park Head Lane; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named lane to its junction near Cross House with the road called Smithy Hill ; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with Pasture Lane ; and extending thence first north-westward and then north-eastward along the middle of the last-named lane to a point in the middle of its northern extremity ; and extending thence first westward to a point in the middle of the fence which divides Barnacre Moor from Woodacre Pasture; and extending thence northward along the middle of the same fence to its junction with the fence dividing Upper Pasture Wood from Woodacre Pasture aforesaid and Lower Pasture Wood ; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-described fence to the boundary which divides the said township of Barnacre-with-Bonds from the township of Nether Wyersdale, in the said parish of Saint Helen, Garstang.

"And also all that part of the parish of Lancaster, in the said county of Lancaster and diocese of Manchester aforesaid, which is comprised within that portion of the parochial chapelry and township of Bleasdale which is situate to the north-west of an imaginary line commencing on the boundary which divides the said parochial chapelry and township from the parish of Slaidburn, in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon, at a point in the middle of the north-eastern end of Hunters Clough; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said clough to its junction with the River Calder aforesaid; and extending thence in a direction generally westward along the middle of the river last referred to as far as the point at which it is joined by East Grain Brook; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said brook as far as a point at which it is joined by a certain stream which divides Luddocks Fell from Calder Fell; and extending thence southward to and along the middle of the last described stream to a boundary stone inscribed 'C. V. St. J. C. C. 1864, No. 1,' and placed at the source of the same stream; and extending thence in a direct line due south to another boundary stone inscribed 'C. V. St. J. C. C. 1864, No. 2,' and placed on the northern side of Calder Dyke; and continuing thence, still due south, to a point in the middle of the said dyke; and extending thence in a direction generally westward along the middle of the same dyke for the distance of rather more than a mile to a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'C. V. St. J. C. C. 1864, No. 3,' and placed on the northern side of the said dyke at a point due north of the northern corner of Bleasdale Tower Wood; and extending thence in a straight line due south, crossing Hazelhurst Fell, to the said northern corner of Bleasdale Tower Wood aforesaid; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the fence which forms the north-western boundary of the said wood to the south-western extremity of such fence near the quarry in the western corner of the same wood; and extending thence westward diagonally across the road leading from Hazelhurst Fell to Bleasdale Tower to the boundary which divides the said parochial chapelry and township of Bleasdale from the before-mentioned detached portion of the township of Catterall, in the parish of Saint Helen, Garstang, aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of All Saints, Bishopsgate, in the City and Diocese of London.

Gazetted 4th March 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 1st day of March 1864.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourteenth day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following ; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints situate in Bishopsgate, in the parish of Saint Botolph Without, Bishopsgate, in the city of London and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient, that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of All Saints, situate in Bishopsgate aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Saint Botolph Without, Bishopsgate, which is described in the schedule hereunto written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of All Saints, Bishopsgate.'

"And with the like consent of the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of All Saints, Bishopsgate, being :—

"All that part of the parish of Saint Botolph Without, Bishopsgate, in the city of London and in the diocese of London, which is situate to the north of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing such parish from the new parish of Saint James, Curtain Road, in the county of Middlesex and in the same diocese of London, at a point in the middle of Sun Street; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of such street to its junction with Bishopsgate Street Without, and extending thence eastward and in a direct line across the last-named street to a point in the middle of the south-western end of Union Street; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named street as far as the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Botolph Without, Bishopsgate, from the particular district of Saint Mary, Spitalfields, in the county and diocese aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

As to the Assignment of a Consolidated Chapelry to the Church of Saint James, Doncaster, in the County and Diocese of York.

Gazetted 4th March 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 1st day of March 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following ; that is to to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint James situate in the parish of Saint George, Doncaster, in the county of York and in the diocese of York.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Saint George, Doncaster, of the new parish of Christ Church, Doncaster, and of the new parish of Balby with Hexthorpe, in the county and diocese aforesaid, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population, which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parish and new parishes respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Saint George, Doncaster, of the said new parish of Christ Church, Doncaster, and of the said new parish of Balby with Hexthorpe, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint James situate at Doncaster aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William, Archbishop of York, who is, in right of his see, the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint George, Doncaster, of George Jarratt, of Elmfield, Doncaster aforesaid, Esquire, the patron of the perpetual curacy of the said new parish of Christ Church, Doncaster, and of the Reverend Robert John Banks, incumbent of the church of Saint Catherine, Loversall, in the said county of York, the patron of the perpetual curacy of the said new parish of Balby with Hexthorpe (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Saint George, Doncaster, of the said new parish of Christ Church, Doncaster, and of the said new parish of Balby with Hexthorpe, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint James situate at Doncaster aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint James, Doncaster.'

"And we further represent, that it has been mutually agreed between the said William, Archbishop of York, the said George Jarratt, and the said Robert John Banks (testified as aforesaid), that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint James, Doncaster, shall belong to and be exercised jointly by Edmund Denison, of Doncaster aforesaid, Esquire, and Edmund Beckett Denison, of Stone Buildings, Lincoln's Inn, in the county of Middlesex, one of Your Majesty's counsel, during their joint lives, and that from and after the decease of either of them, the said Edmund Denison and Edmund Beckett Denison, such right of presentation and appointment as aforesaid, shall belong to and shall be exercised by the survivor of them; and that from and after the decease of such survivor the aforesaid right of presentation and appointment shall belong to and shall be exercised by the said William, Archbishop of York, and his successors, Archbishops of York, for ever.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint James, Doncaster, being :—

"All those several portions of the parish of Saint George, Doncaster, in the county of York and in the diocese of York, of the new parish of Christ Church, Doncaster (some time part of the said parish of Saint George, Doncaster), and of the new parish of Balby with Hexthorpe, also some time part of the said parish of Saint George, Doncaster, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint George Doncaster from the new parish of Balby with Hexthorpe aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the River Don, near to the south-western end of the branch of the same river which is called 'The New Cut,' and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said river as far as a point opposite to the middle of the said south-western end of the 'New Cut' aforesaid; and continuing thence still north-eastward to and along the middle of the said New Cut as far as a point under the centre of New Friars Bridge which carries the Great North Road over the same New Cut; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of such road as far as a point in the centre of Friars Bridge, which carries the same road over the River Cheswold; and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named river as far as a point in the middle of the wall or fence forming the eastern boundary of the yard and premises attached to and forming part of the Doncaster Station of the Great Northern Railway ; and extending thence in a direction mainly south-eastward along the middle of the said wall or fence to a point in the middle of the road leading from the said Railway station to the street called ' West Laith Gate ;' and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-described road to its junction with the said street called West Laith Gate ; and extending thence south-westward for a distance of twenty-eight yards along the middle of the last-named street, as far as a point opposite to the middle of the north-western end of West Street ; and extending thence south-eastward to and along the middle of the last-named street to a point on the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint George, Doncaster, from the new parish of Christ Church, Doncaster, aforesaid, in the middle of the street called ' St. Sepulchre's Gate ;' and extending thence south-westward along the last described boundary, following the middle of the last-named street as far as a point opposite to the middle of the north-western end of Union Street, and extending thence south-eastward to and along the middle of the last-named street (crossing Cleveland Street), and continuing in the same direction across Saint James's Street, and to and along the middle of Carr Lane to a point on the boundary dividing the said new parish of Christ Church, Doncaster, from the new parish of Balby with Hexthorpe aforesaid, such last-mentioned point being situate at the junction of Carr Lane, with Green Dike Lane ; and continuing thence still south-eastward along the last-described boundary as far as a point on the eastern side of the road called ' Decoy Bank,' opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of the Road called ' Red Bank ;' and extending thence south-westward to and along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with the road called ' Balby Carr Bank ;' and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named road, and continuing in the same direction across the Balby Road and to and along the middle of Little Moor Lane to the junction of the last-named lane with Hexthorpe Lane ; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of 198 yards to a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of the wall or fence forming the south-western boundary of the cottages and premises known as Hexthorpe Villas ; and extending thence north-westward to and along the middle of the said last-mentioned wall or fence to its north-western extremity upon the southern side of the back lane leading from Doncaster to Hexthorpe, and continuing thence still north-westward and in a straight line to a point in the middle of the last-described lane ; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the same lane, for a distance of forty-seven yards, to a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of a certain occupation road leading from the said last-described lane towards Hexthorpe Ings ; and extending thence north-westward to and along the middle of the last-described road as far as a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed ' D. St. J. C. C. 1864, No. 1,' and placed on the north-eastern side of the said occupation road in the middle of the south-eastern end of the fence dividing the close numbered 32 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Saint George, Doncaster, and upon the map hereunto annexed, from the close numbered 31 upon the same maps ; and continuing thence still north-westward to such boundary stone, and then in the same direction along the middle of the last-described fence to its north-western extremity ; and continuing thence still north-westward and in a direct line across Hexthorpe Ings aforesaid to a boundary stone inscribed 'D. St. J. C. C. 1864, No. 2,' and placed on the southern bank of the River Don aforesaid, and continuing thence in the same direction to the boundary in the middle of the same river which divides the said new parish of Balby with Hexthorpe, from the parish of Sprotborough in the county and diocese aforesaid ; and extending thence north-eastward along the last-described boundary, following the middle of the said river, to the junction of such boundary with the first-mentioned boundary dividing the parish of Saint George, Doncaster, from the new parish of Balby with Hexthorpe as aforesaid at the first described point, near the south-western end of the New Cut, where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of York.

For setting out and constituting a District for Spiritual Purposes and annexing such District to the Church of Saint Barnabas, Openshaw, in the Parish of Manchester, in the County of Lancaster and Diocese of Manchester.

Gazetted 4th March 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 1st day of March 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-one, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following: that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-one, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for setting out and constituting a district for spiritual purposes, and annexing such district to the consecrated church of Saint Barnabas, situate at Openshaw, and within the original limits of the parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district for spiritual purposes should be set out and constituted for and be annexed to the consecrated church of Saint Barnabas situate at Openshaw aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose, that all that part of the said parish of Manchester which is described in the schedule hereunder written, and which is also delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, be severed and disannexed from the said parish of Manchester, and shall be set out and constituted for and be annexed to the said church of Saint Barnabas situate at Openshaw, and shall become and be a district for spiritual purposes, and shall be named 'The District of Saint Barnabas, Openshaw.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the herein named Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Barnabas, Openshaw, being :—

"All that part of the parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester, which now constitutes 'The Particular District of Saint Barnabas, Openshaw,' as the same is laid down and limited under the provisions of the under-mentioned Instrument and Order, that is to say, firstly, an instrument bearing date the eighteenth day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty, and made and issued under the hand of the Right Reverend John Bird, the then Bishop of the diocese of Chester, in which diocese the said parish of Manchester was at that time situate, which said Instrument is registered in the Registry of the said diocese of Chester; and secondly, an Order of Her Majesty in Council, bearing date the thirtieth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and published in the London Gazette of the fifth day of September in the lastly-mentioned year."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the said firstly-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the incumbent and to the patrons of the perpetual curacy of the church of Saint Barnabas, Openshaw, and such incumbent and patrons have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Manchester.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of Saint John the Baptist, Leusden, in the Parish of Widecombe-in-the-Moor, in the County of Devon and Diocese of Exeter.

Gazetted 4th March 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 1st day of March 1864.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eleventh day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John the Baptist situate at Leusden, in the parish of Widecombe-in-the-Moor, in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint John the Baptist situate at Leusden aforesaid :

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Widecombe-in-the-Moor which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church of Saint John the Baptist, situate at Leusden, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Leusden.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Henry, Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Leusden, being :—

"All that part of the parish of Widecombe-in-the-Moor, in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter, which is situate generally to the south and west of an imaginary line commencing at a point upon the boundary dividing the said parish from the parish of Buckland-in-the-Moor, in the same county and diocese, such point being situate at or near the confluence of the two streams (the one flowing from the village of Widecombe and the other flowing from the homestead and farm known as West Shallowford), which together form the River Webbern ; and extending thence first westward and then northward along the middle of the last mentioned of the same two streams to a point opposite to the middle of the south-western end of the fence dividing the inclosure numbered 1054 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Widecombe-in-the-Moor and upon the map hereunto annexed from the inclosure numbered 1058 upon the said maps ; and extending thence first northward and then north-eastward to and along the middle of such last-mentioned fence and of the fence or fences dividing the inclosures numbered respectively 1054 as aforesaid and 1049 upon the said maps from the inclosures numbered respectively 1056, 1055, and 1050 upon the same maps to the junction of the fence dividing the inclosure numbered 1049 as aforesaid from the inclosure numbered 1050 as aforesaid with the fence dividing the inclosure numbered 1047 upon the said maps from the inclosure numbered 1050 as aforesaid ; and extending thence northwestward along the middle of such last-mentioned fence and of the fences dividing the inclosures numbered respectively 1047 as aforesaid and 1046 upon the said maps from the inclosures numbered respectively 1051, 1052, and 1053 upon the same maps to a point in the middle of the public road leading from Ponsworthy past Linchover to Widecombe, such point being opposite to the middle of the north-western end of the last-described fence dividing the inclosure numbered 1046 from the inclosure numbered 1053 as aforesaid; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of such public road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the eastern end of the road leading to and through the homestead known as Dudon Farm (otherwise Jordan Farm); and extending thence north-westward to and along the middle of such last-described road (crossing the farm yard belonging to the said last-named homestead and passing wholly to the south of the messuage or dwelling-house belonging to the same homestead, and also passing between such homestead and the building numbered 1616 upon the said maps,) as far as a point in the middle of the eastern end of a certain occupation road leading from Dudon Farm (otherwise Jordan Farm) aforesaid to the inclosure or common called Dudon Ball (otherwise Jordan Ball); and extending thence westward along the middle of such occupation road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the northern end of that portion of a certain water called Dudon (or Jordan) Mill Stream which divides the close and buildings known as Dudon Mill and numbered 1620 upon the said maps from the close numbered 1621 upon the same maps; and extending thence southward to and along the middle of such portion of the said water to the junction of the same water with the herein-before mentioned stream which flows from West Shallowford; and extending thence first westward along the middle of such last-described stream and then generally north-westward along the middle of the same stream as far as a point in the centre of the bridge which carries the high road leading from Cockenford Mill through West Shallowford to Cator Gate over such stream; and extending thence generally north-westward along the middle of such last-described road as far as a point in the middle of Cator Gate aforesaid opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of the fence dividing the inclosure numbered 2298 upon the before-mentioned maps from the inclosure numbered 2320 upon the same maps; and extending thence in a direction generally south-westward to and along the middle of such fence and of the fences dividing the inclosures numbered respectively 2299, 2300, and 2306 upon the said maps from the said enclosure numbered 2320 upon the same maps to the boundary dividing the said parish of Widecombe-in-the-Moor from the parish of Lydford, in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Exeter.

ARTHUR HELPS.

No. 1579.

For constituting the District of Saint Michael, Hawthorn, out of the Parish of Easington, in the County and Diocese of Durham.

Gazetted 4th March 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 1st day of March 1864.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighteenth day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven ; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Easington, in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham.

" Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portion of the said parish of Easington herein-after mentioned and described (such portion not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purpose of divine worship) should be constituted a separate district in the manner herein-after set forth.

" And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the said parish of Easington have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein-mentioned Acts.

"And whereas by an indenture, bearing date on or about the thirteenth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and made or expressed to be made between Samuel Long, of Bromley Hill, in the county of Kent, Esquire, and Russell Ellice, of Leadenhall Street, in the City of London, Merchant, of the first part, Richard Lawrence Pemberton, of 'The Barnes,' in the county of Durham, Esquire, of the second part, and us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the third part (which indenture is intended to be enrolled in Your Majesty's High Court of Chancery, at Westminster), the said Samuel Long and Russell Ellice did, at the request of the said Richard Lawrence Pemberton, grant and confirm unto us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and our successors, in aid of the endowment of the district herein after recommended to be constituted, a yearly rentcharge of seventy-five pounds, issuing and payable out of and charged upon certain lands, tenements, and hereditaments situate in the township of Hawthorn, in the said parish of Easington.

"And whereas the Reverend James Manisty is the rector or incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Easington, and the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham, is, in right of his see, the patron of the rectory of the said parish of Easington.

"And whereas by an indenture, bearing date on or about the twenty-third day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and made or expressed to be made between the said James Manisty of the first part, the said Charles, Bishop of Durham, of the second part, and us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the third part (which last-mentioned indenture is also intended to be enrolled in Your Majesty's High Court of Chancery, at Westminster), the said James Manisty, with the privity of the said Charles, Bishop of Durham, granted unto us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and our successors, in further aid of the endowment of the district herein-after recommended to be constituted, certain tithe commutation rentcharges or portions of tithe commutation rentcharges, amounting in gross to the sum of twenty-seven pounds nine shillings and elevenpence per annum, issuing, arising, and payable out or in respect of certain lands and hereditaments situate in the township of Hawthorn aforesaid, and being portions of the tithe commutation rentcharges belonging to the said rectory of Easington.

"And whereas the said yearly rentcharge of seventy-five pounds and the said tithe commutation rentcharges, amounting in gross to the sum of twenty-seven pounds nine shillings and elevenpence per annum, were so granted and confirmed to us and our successors as aforesaid, upon the understanding that the annual sum of fifty pounds should be granted and paid out of our Common Fund in further augmentation of the endowment herein-before provided for the district herein-after recommended to be constituted.

"And whereas it has been proposed to us by the said Richard Lawrence Pemberton and James Manisty, and it appears to us to be expedient, that in consideration of the grants of the said yearly rentcharge of seventy-five pounds and of the said tithe commutation rentcharges respectively, as aforesaid, the whole right of patronage of the district herein-after recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister of the same, should be assigned to the said Richard Lawrence Pemberton, his heirs and assigns, in manner herein-after mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose, that all that portion of the said parish of Easington, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portion, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Michael, Hawthorn.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that the said yearly rentcharge of seventy-five pounds so granted unto us as aforesaid, and also the said tithe commutation rentcharges or portions of tithe commutation rentcharges amounting in gross to the yearly sum of twenty-seven pounds nine shillings and elevenpence likewise so granted to us as aforesaid, and all our estate and interest therein respectively, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, become transferred to and be absolutely vested in the minister of the district so recommended to be constituted so soon as one shall be appointed and licensed in accordance with the provisions of the herein secondly named Act and in his successors, ministers of the same district, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us in each and every year to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed as aforesaid, the sum of fifty pounds by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister as aforesaid, and that in case a vacancy in the ministry of such district shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount then next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister making the vacancy or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister succeeding to such district: Provided always, that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the minister of the said district, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, tithe, or other hereditament should be conveyed or secured to such minister and his successors, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereto, shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said Richard Lawrence Pemberton, his heirs and assigns, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Michael, Hawthorn, being :—

"All that part of the parish of Easington, in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham, which is comprised within so much of the township of Hawthorn as is not included within the limits of the new parish of the Holy Trinity, South Hetton, in the county and diocese aforesaid."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has been, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-before secondly mentioned Act, transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron of the said parish of Easington, out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such incumbent and such patron have respectively signified their assent to the same scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Durham.

ARTHUR HELPS.

No. 1580.

As to the Assignment of a Consolidated Chapelry to the Church of Saint Katharine, Savernake Forest, in the Parish of Great Bedwyn, in the County of Wilts and Diocese of Salisbury.

Gazetted 12th April 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of April 1684.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourteenth day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Katharine, situate in Savernake Forest, in the parish of Great Bedwyn, in the county of Wilts and in the diocese of Salisbury.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Great Bedwyn, of the parish of Little Bedwyn, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and of the parish of Burbage, in the same county and diocese, which lie contiguous one to another and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parishes of Great Bedwyn, Little Bedwyn, and Burbage should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Katharine, situate in Savernake Forest aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend Walter Kerr, Bishop of the said diocese of Salisbury, and also in right of his see patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Burbage, and of the Most Honourable George William Frederick, Marquis of Ailesbury, the patron both of the vicarage of the said parish of Great Bedwyn and of the vicarage of the said parish of Little Bedwyn, (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation,) we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parishes of Great Bedwyn, Little Bedwyn, and Burbage, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Katharine, situate in Savernake Forest aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Katharine, Savernake Forest.'

"And we further represent, that it has been mutually agreed between the said Walter Kerr, Bishop of Salisbury, and the said George William Frederick, Marquis of Ailesbury (testified as aforesaid), that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Katharine, Savernake Forest, shall belong to and be exercised by the said George William Frederick, Marquis of Ailesbury, during his life, and that from and after his decease the said right of presentation and appointment shall belong to and be exercised by the Most Honourable Mary Caroline, now the wife of the said Marquis (provided that she should survive him), and that from and after the decease of both of them, the said Marquis and Marchioness, the said right of presentation and appointment shall belong to and be exercised by the heirs and assigns of him the said George William Frederick, Marquis of Ailesbury.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Katharine, Savernake Forest, being :—

"All those portions of the several parishes of Great Bedwyn, Little Bedwyn, and Burbage, in the county of Wilts and in the diocese of Salisbury, which are comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Great Bedwyn from the said parish of Burbage at a point in the middle of the fence (forming part of the southern boundary of Savernake Forest) which divides that portion of such forest known as 'Long String,' and numbered 645 and 646 upon a certain map or plan deposited in the Estate Office of the Marquisate of Ailesbury and entitled 'Great Bedwyn parish, except the tithing of Marten.' and upon the map hereunto annexed, from the close called Durley Field, and numbered 759 upon the same maps, such point being at or near the north-eastern end of the fence which divides the said close called Durley Field from the close called Hill Field, and numbered 631 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Burbage and upon the map hereunto annexed, and being also opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'I. S. F. St. K. C. C. 1863,' and placed on the northern side of the said fence, at a distance of one hundred and twelve yards and a half or thereabouts from the south-western corner of the base of a certain summer-house called the Octagon Tower situate within the said forest; and extending thence first south-eastward along the middle of the said fence and then either south-eastward or eastward or northward along the middle of the fences (forming other part of the southern boundary of Savernake Forest aforesaid) which divide the said portion numbered 645 and the portion numbered 646 as aforesaid of the said part of such forest known as Long String from the closes called respectively Harbour Field and Limpton Field, and numbered respectively 758, 753 upon the said two first-mentioned maps, as far as the junction of the said fence dividing the last-mentioned portion of Long String aforesaid from the close called Limpton Field aforesaid with the fence which divides that other portion of Long String aforesaid which is planted and numbered 646 and 646A upon the said two first-mentioned maps from the same last-named close; and extending thence first eastward and then north-eastward along the middle of such last-named fence and of the fences which divide the said portion of Long String which is planted and numbered 646 and 646A as aforesaid and the close called Lower Barn Field, and numbered 651 upon the said two first-mentioned maps, from a certain sheep-down numbered 740 and 739 upon the same maps to the point where the fence dividing the said close called Lower Barn Field from that portion of the sheep-down before referred to, which is numbered 739 upon the said two first-mentioned maps, meets the south-western extremity of the fence which divides the field called Haw Field, and numbered 652 upon the said two first-mentioned maps, from certain public roads called respectively Crofton Lane and Bloxham Lodge Lane or Bloxham Lodge Road; and continuing thence north-eastward (crossing a certain green drive leading from the Brail Woods towards the mansion called Tottenham Park or Savernake House) along the middle of the said last-described fence to the junction of such fence with the fence dividing the said field called Haw Field from the wood called Haw Wood Copse or Haw Wood and numbered 653 upon the said two first-mentioned maps; and extending thence south-eastward across the last-named road as far as the north-western extremity of the fence dividing the close called Meadow at Bloxham and the plantation called Coppice at Bloxham Lodge (which said close and plantation are respectively numbered 675 and 673 upon the said two first-mentioned maps) from the close called Park Field, and numbered 676 upon the same maps, and from the close called Little Park Field, and numbered 677 upon the said maps, and from those portions which are numbered 678 and 679 of a certain down numbered 678, 679, and 681 upon the said two first-mentioned maps; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-described fence as far as its junction with the fence which divides the said plantation called Coppice at Bloxham Lodge and the close called Dog Kennel Meadow, and numbered 672 upon the said two first-mentioned maps, and the plantation called Bloxham Coppice, and numbered 667 upon the same maps, from that portion of the same down which is numbered 681 as aforesaid, and from the plantation called Bloxham Lands, and numbered 682 upon the said two first-mentioned maps, and from the plantation forming part of that portion of the close called Bloxham Mead which is numbered 665 upon the same maps; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-described fence as far as the point at the extremity of the same fence where such fence meets the fence dividing that portion of the close called Bloxham Mead as aforesaid which is numbered 664 on the said two first-mentioned maps from the plantation called Bloxham Coppice and numbered 667 as aforesaid; and extending thence first generally north-westward along the middle of the last-named fence and then north-eastward along the middle of the fence dividing the said last-named portion of the said close called Bloxham Mead from the close called 'Adjoining Well Meadow,' and numbered 663 upon the said two first-mentioned maps, as far as a point in the middle of the fence dividing the closes called 'Adjoining Well Meadow' and 'Adjoining Well Meadow,' and numbered 662 and 661 upon the same maps, from the aforesaid first-named close called also 'Adjoining Well Meadow' and numbered 663 as aforesaid; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-described fence as far as a point in the middle of the before-mentioned road leading from Crofton Lane aforesaid to Bloxham Lodge and to Stock Common, such point being opposite to the middle of the north-western extremity of the said last described fence; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the same road to its north-eastern extremity; and continuing thence in a direct line north-eastward across Stock Common aforesaid to a boundary stone inscribed '2 S. F. St. K. C. C. 1863,' and placed on the western side of the fence forming the eastern boundary of and dividing Stock Common from a certain garden now in the joint occupation of Henry Bartholomew, junior, and Sarah Smart, widow, opposite to the point in such fence where the boundary which formerly divided the enclosure (now part of the said garden) numbered 303 on the said two first-mentioned maps from the enclosure (now as to a portion of it part of the same garden) numbered 304 on the same maps commenced; and extending thence eastward across the said garden along the line of the said old boundary to a point in the middle of the fence dividing the close called Davis's Ground, and numbered 301 upon the said two first-mentioned maps, from the aforesaid garden and from the close called the Three Cornered Ground and Roadway and numbered 275 on the same maps; and extending thence first northward along the middle of the last-described fence and then eastward along the middle of the same fence to its junction with the fence dividing the close called the Long Ground, and numbered 295 upon the said two first-mentioned maps, from the close called Three Cornered Ground and Roadway as aforesaid; and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named fence to its junction with the fence dividing the said close called the Long Ground from the close called Woody Cow Leys and Brake and numbered 288 upon the said two first-mentioned maps; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said last-described fence for a distance of 205 yards (little more or less) to a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed '3 S. F. St. K. C. C. 1863' and placed on the northern side of the same fence; and extending thence north-eastward to such boundary stone; and continuing thence in a direct line north-eastward across the close called Cow Leys, and numbered 289 upon the said two first-mentioned maps, to a boundary stone inscribed '4 S. F. St. K. C. C. 1863,' and placed at or near the junction of the fence forming the northern boundary of the last-named close with the fence dividing the close called Hill Ground, and numbered 282 upon the said two first-mentioned maps, from the wood called Stock Gulley Wood and numbered 284 upon the same maps; and extending thence northward to and along the middle of the last-described fence and of the fence dividing the said last-named close and the close called Munday's Ground, and numbered 280 upon the said two first-mentioned maps, from the close called Great Mead, and numbered 279 upon the same maps, to a point in the middle of the road leading from Great Bedwyn to Marlborough, opposite to a boundary stone inscribed '5 S. F. St. K. C. C. 1863,' and placed on the southern side of the said road in the middle of the northern extremity of the said fence dividing Munday's Ground from Great Mead as aforesaid; and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-described road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the southern end of the droveway called Buttridge's Green and numbered 226 upon the said two first-mentioned maps; and extending thence northward to and along the middle of such droveway as far as a point in the middle of the fence dividing the same droveway from the close called Bushel Leys or more commonly Rushey Leys and numbered 220 upon the said two first-mentioned maps (including that portion of the same close called Five Acre Border and numbered 230 upon the same maps); and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-described fence to its junction with the fence dividing Five Acre Border and Bushel Leys or Rushey Leys aforesaid from the closes called respectively Five Acre Robinson and Oat Leys or Bear Field and from the plantation called Faggothy Coppice (which several closes and plantation are respectively numbered 229, 231, and 233 upon the said two first-mentioned maps); and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-described fence to its junction with the fence dividing the said close called Bushel Leys or Rushey Leys from the close called Bewley Field and numbered 235 upon the said two first-mentioned maps; and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-described fence for a distance of seventy-four yards or thereabouts as far as a boundary stone inscribed '5A S. F. St. K. C. C. 1863,' and placed in the middle of such fence at the point where the same fence meets the fence dividing the said close called Rushey Leys, from the droveway numbered 208 upon the said two first-mentioned maps; and extending thence north-eastward across such droveway to a point in the middle of the southern end of the fence dividing the plantation called Bewley Coppice, and numbered 207 upon the same maps, from the said close called Bewley Field; and continuing thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-described fence to a point on the boundary dividing the said parish of Great Bedwyn from the said parish of Little Bedwyn, which point is situate at or near to the middle of the north-eastern extremity of the same last-described fence and is opposite to a boundary stone inscribed '6 S. F. St. K. C. C. 1863,' and placed in the north-eastern angle of the said close called Bewley Field; and extending thence first westward and then north-westward along the said parish boundary as far as a point in the middle of Chisbury Lane; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said lane as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of a certain private road leading through the farmyard belonging to the messuage or homestead known as Lower Chisbury Farm and connecting Chisbury Lane aforesaid with Monk's Lane; and extending thence north-westward to and along the middle of the said private road to its junction with Monk's Lane; and continuing thence either north-westward or north-eastward along the middle of the last-named lane as far as a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed '7 S. F. St. K. C. C. 1863,' and placed on the northern side of the said last-named lane at the point where the boundary which formerly divided the plantation called Herring Point Coppice, and numbered 166 upon a certain map called the Little Bedwyn map and deposited in the said estate office and upon the map hereunto annexed, from the close called Lower Cow Leys and Upper Wood Furlong, and numbered 145 upon the said two last-mentioned maps, commenced; and extending thence north-westward to such boundary stone; and continuing thence north-westward along the line of the said old boundary as far as the point where such old boundary meets the fence which actually divides the said last-named plantation from the said last-named close; and continuing thence in a direction generally north-westward along the middle of the last-described fence and of the fence which divides the same last-named close from the plantation called Wood Furlong Coppice, and numbered 165 upon the said two last-mentioned maps, to a point in the middle of a certain occupation road leading past and forming the eastern boundary of the wood called Round Coppice and numbered 164 upon the said two last-mentioned maps, such point being opposite to the middle of the northern extremity of the last-described fence; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-mentioned occupation road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of the fence which forms the northern boundary of Round Coppice aforesaid; and extending thence north-westward to and along the middle of the last-described fence to a point in the middle of the road leading from Horse Hall Hill to the Hungerford and Marlborough Turnpike Road opposite to a boundary stone inscribed '8. S. F. St. K. C. C. 1863' and placed in the middle (or nearly so) of the northern end of the said last-described fence; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said road leading from Horse Hall Hill to the junction of the same road with the aforesaid turnpike road leading from Hungerford to Marlborough; and continuing thence in a direct line still north-eastward across such turnpike road to a point on the boundary dividing the said parish of Little Bedwyn from the parish of Froxfield, in the same county and diocese; and extending thence in a direction generally north-westward along the last-described parish boundary to its junction with the boundary dividing the said parish of Little Bedwyn from the parish of Ramsbury in the same county and diocese; and extending thence in a direction mainly south-westward or westward along the last-described parish boundary to its junction with the boundary dividing the said parish of Little Bedwyn from the parish of Mildenhall in the same county and diocese; and extending thence first southward and then generally south-westward along the last-described parish boundary to its junction with the boundary dividing the said parish of Little Bedwyn from the new parish of Savernake, in the same county and diocese; and extending thence in a direction generally south-eastward along the last-described parish boundary to its junction with the boundary dividing the said parish of Burbage from the said new parish of Savernake; and extending thence south-westward along the last-described parish boundary as far as a point in the middle of the northern end of the fence forming the western boundary of the several closes numbered respectively 687, 688, and 686 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Burbage and upon the map hereunto annexed, such point being near to a boundary stone inscribed '9. S. F. St. K. C. C. 1863,' and placed in the most western angle of the close numbered 687 as aforesaid; and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-described fence to a point in the middle of the road known as the Green Drive, otherwise 'Love Walk,' opposite to the middle of the southern extremity of the said last-described fence; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said last-mentioned road (crossing the road leading from Burbage to Durley) to a point in the middle of the fence forming part of the southern boundary of Savernake Forest aforesaid; and extending thence first southward and then south-eastward along the middle of the said fence to the point opposite to the boundary stone numbered 1, where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Salisbury.

As to the Assignment of a Consolidated Chapelry to the Church of Saint John, Colchester, in the County of Essex and Diocese of Rochester.

Gazetted 12th April 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of April 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourteenth day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate in the parish of Saint Andrew, Greenstead, in the county of Essex and in the diocese of Rochester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the parishes of Saint Andrew, Greenstead, aforesaid, of Saint Michael, Mile End, otherwise Myland, of Langham, of Ardleigh, of All Saints, Colchester, and of Saint Botolph, Colchester, all in the said county and diocese, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the parishes aforesaid should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate in the parish of Saint Andrew, Greenstead aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend Joseph Cotton, the Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester, of the Right Honorable Richard, Baron Westbury, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, acting on behalf of Your Majesty, as the patron in right of the Crown, both of the rectory of the said parish of Saint Andrew, Greenstead, and of the vicarage of the said parish of Ardleigh, of the Right Honourable Anne Florence, Dowager Countess Cowper, the patron of the rectory of the said parish of Saint Michael, Mile End, otherwise Myland, of the Right Honourable Edward Cardwell, Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, acting on behalf of Your Majesty, as the patron, in right of Your Majesty's Duchy of Lancaster, of the rectory of the said parish of Langham (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), and with the consent of the Master and Fellows of Balliol College within the University of Oxford, the patrons both of the rectory of the said parish of All Saints, Colchester, and of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Saint Botolph, Colchester (in testimony whereof the said Master and Fellows have affixed their common or corporate seal to this representation), we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parishes of Saint Andrew, Greenstead, of Saint Michael, Mile End, otherwise Myland, of Langham, of Ardleigh, of All Saints, Colchester, and of Saint Botolph, Colchester, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate in the said parish of Saint Andrew, Greenstead aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John, Colchester.'

"And with the same consents, so testified respectively as aforesaid, we further humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint John, Colchester, should belong to and be exercised by the Venerable Charles Parr Burney, Clerk, Archdeacon of Colchester, and his successors, archdeacons of the same archdeaconry.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John, Colchester, being :—

"All those portions of the several parishes of Saint Andrew, Greenstead, of Saint Michael, Mile End (otherwise Myland), of Langham, and of Ardleigh, in the county of Essex and in the diocese of Rochester, and also all that detached portion of the parish of All Saints, Colchester, and also all that detached portion of the parish of Saint Botolph, Colchester, in the same county and diocese, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Andrew, Greenstead, from the detached portion of the parish of Saint Botolph, Colchester aforesaid, at a point on the western side of the turnpike road leading from Colchester to Manningtree (at which point a boundary stone inscribed 'C. St. I. C. C. 1864, No. 1,' has been placed) opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of the fence dividing the cottage and garden numbered 270 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Greenstead, and upon the map hereunto annexed from that portion of the close numbered 274 upon the same maps which lies to the south of the Great Eastern Railway; and extending thence first north-westward and then north-eastward to and along the middle of the said fence to its junction with the wall or fence dividing the cottage and garden numbered 271 upon the said maps from the same portion of the same close; and continuing thence still north-eastward along the middle of the last-described wall or fence to its junction with the fence forming the southern boundary of the line of the Great Eastern Railway, at which point of junction a boundary stone inscribed 'C. St. I. C. C. 1864, No. 2,' has been placed; and continuing thence in a direct line still north-eastward across the said line of railway to a boundary stone inscribed 'C. St. I. C. C. 1864, No. 3,' and placed on the northern side of the said line of railway in the middle of the south-eastern end of the fence dividing the cottages and gardens numbered respectively 272 and 273 upon the said maps from that portion of the close numbered 274 as aforesaid which lies to the north of the said line of railway; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-described fence to a point in the south-western angle of the cottage and garden numbered 273 as aforesaid at or near to which point a boundary stone inscribed 'C. St. I. C. C. 1864, No. 4,' has been placed; and extending thence in a direct line due north to a point in the middle of the lane which connects the turnpike road before referred to with the road leading from the Manningtree Road towards Saint John's Church; and extending thence westward along the middle of the said lane to its junction with the last-described road; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the same last-described road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the eastern end of the fence dividing the close numbered 285 upon the said maps from a certain occupation road leading to Blomfield's Farm; and extending thence westward to and along the middle of the last-described fence and along the middle of the fence dividing the close numbered 286 upon the said maps from the occupation road aforesaid and from the homestead belonging to Blomfield's Farm aforesaid to a point on the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Andrew, Greenstead, from the detached portion of the parish of All Saints, Colchester, aforesaid; and extending thence, first southward and then westward and then again southward along the last-described boundary to its junction with the boundary dividing the said detached portion of the parish of All Saints, Colchester, from the parish of Saint Botolph, Colchester, aforesaid; and extending thence in a direction mainly westward along the last-described boundary (crossing the road leading from Colchester to Ipswich) to the junction of the said last-mentioned boundary with the boundary dividing the said detached portion of the parish of All Saints, Colchester, from the parish of Saint Michael, Mile End, aforesaid; and extending thence north-eastward along the last-described boundary as far as the middle of the road leading to Mile End Hall and numbered 75 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Saint Michael, Mile End, and upon the said map hereunto annexed; and extending thence first westward and then north-westward along the middle of the last-described road to a point in the middle of the gate forming the north-western termination of such road; and extending then south-westward along the middle of such gate to its junction with the wall or fence forming the southern and western boundary of the inclosure adjoining Mile End Hall aforesaid and numbered 79 upon the maps last referred to; and extending thence mainly north-westward along the middle of the last-described wall or fence to its junction with the wall or fence forming the southern boundary of a certain cottage and garden forming part of the inclosure and buildings numbered 80 upon the said maps; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of such last-described fence to its junction with the fence dividing the said cottage and garden from the close numbered 81 upon the same maps; and extending thence first north-eastward and then south-eastward along the middle of the last-described wall or fence to a boundary stone inscribed 'C. St. I. C. C. 1864, No. 5,' and placed in the middle of the eastern extremity of the last-mentioned wall or fence; and extending thence in a direct line north-eastward for a distance of sixty-five yards or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the stile forming the south-western termination of a certain footpath which leads from Mile End Hall aforesaid to Brinkley Lane; and extending thence still north-eastward along the middle of the said footpath to its junction with the last-named lane; and continuing thence still north-eastward along the middle of the same lane to its junction with the road leading from Wyncolls past Severalls Hall to Boxted; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-described road as far as the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Michael, Mile End, from the parish of Langham aforesaid ; and extending thence south-eastward along the last-described boundary as far as a point opposite to the middle of the southern end of the fence dividing the wood called Kiln Wood, and numbered 17 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Langham and upon the said map hereunto annexed, from the closes numbered respectively 18 and 19 upon the same maps ; and extending thence in a direction mainly north-eastward to and along the middle of the last-described fence to a point in the middle of the lane leading from Langham Lodge ; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-described lane to a point on the boundary dividing the said parish of Langham from the parish of Ardleigh aforesaid, such point being situate in the middle of the road leading from Colchester to Ipswich before mentioned; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the road last referred to for a distance of 543 yards or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of the north-western end of the road leading to Ardleigh Wick; and extending thence south-eastward to and along the middle of the last-described road for a distance of 62 yards or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of the fence dividing the close numbered 609 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Ardleigh and upon the map hereunto annexed from the close numbered 610 upon the same maps; and extending thence south-westward to and along the middle of the last-described fence and then south-eastward along the middle of the fences dividing the closes numbered respectively 606 and 605 upon the said maps from the closes numbered respectively 610 as aforesaid and 612 upon the same maps to a point in the middle of the fence forming the eastern termination of a certain lane leading to the Colchester and Ipswich Road aforesaid ; and extending thence westward for a distance of eighty-nine yards along the middle of the said lane to a point opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of the fence dividing the closes numbered respectively 597 and 598 upon the said last-mentioned maps from the close numbered 596 upon the same maps ; and extending thence south-westward to and along the middle of the last-described fence to the junction of such fence with the fence dividing the close numbered 592 upon the said last-mentioned maps from the closes numbered respectively 596 as aforesaid, 593, and 591, upon the same maps; and extending thence first south-eastward and then south-westward along the middle of the last-described fence to a point in the middle of the road numbered 560A upon the said last-mentioned maps opposite to the middle of the south-western end of the last-described fence ; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-mentioned road for a distance of seventy-two yards or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of the northern end of the fence dividing the close and buildings numbered 560 upon the said maps, and called 'Catchpools,' from the close numbered 561 upon the same maps ; and extending thence southward to and along the middle of the last-described fence and along the middle of the fences dividing the closes numbered respectively 559 and 558 upon the said maps from the close numbered 561 as aforesaid and from the close numbered 562 upon the same maps to a point in the middle of a certain stream flowing from Kiln Wood to Ardleigh Water Mill opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of the fence dividing the close numbered 558 from the close numbered 562 as aforesaid; and continuing thence south-eastward along the middle of the said stream as far as a point opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of the fence dividing the close numbered 572 upon the said maps from the close numbered 575 upon the same maps; and extending thence first south-westward to and along the middle of the last-described fence and then in a direction mainly south-eastward along the middle of the fences dividing the closes numbered respectively 574, 457, 456, and the farm premises called Bromley John, and numbered 461 upon the said maps, from the closes numbered respectively 575 as aforesaid, 449, 448, 450, 455, and 454 upon the same maps to a point in the middle of the gate forming the north-western termination of the road leading to the last-named farm premises; and continuing thence still south-eastward along the middle of the last-described road to its junction with the first-mentioned turnpike road leading from Colchester to Manningtree aforesaid; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the road last referred to for a distance of twenty-five yards or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of the north-western end of the fence dividing the close numbered 420 upon the last-mentioned maps from the close numbered 417 upon the same maps; and extending thence, first south-eastward to and along the middle of the last-described fence, and then alternately south-westward and south-eastward along the middle of the fence dividing the closes numbered respectively 420 as aforesaid, 419, and 466 upon the said maps from the close numbered 416 upon the same maps to the junction of such last-described fence with the fence forming the western boundary of the line of the Great Eastern Railway aforesaid; and continuing thence in a direct line south-eastward to a point in the middle of the same railway; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of such railway to a point under the centre of the bridge which carries over such railway a certain footpath leading from the last-mentioned turnpike road to Crockleford Heath; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of such footpath as far as a point opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of the fence dividing the close numbered 470 upon the said maps from the close numbered 472 upon the same maps; and extending thence south-westward to and along the middle of the last-described fence and of the fence dividing the closes numbered respectively 470 as aforesaid and 473 upon the same maps from the close numbered 471 upon the same maps to the boundary dividing the said parish of Ardleigh from the detached portion of the parish of Saint Botolph, Colchester, aforesaid, on the eastern side of the farm premises known as Fitch's; and ex-

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of Saint Paul, Rusthall, in the Parish of Speldhurst, in the County of Kent and Diocese of Canterbury.

Gazetted 12th April 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of April 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourteenth day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Paul situate at Rusthall, in the parish of Speldhurst, in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Canterbury.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Paul situate at Rusthall aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Charles Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Speldhurst which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Paul, Rusthall.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Charles Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being; provided always, that so long as the Reverend John James Saint, the present rector or incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Speldhurst, shall continue to be such rector or incumbent all the fees which shall be received in respect of the solemnization or performance of the aforesaid offices at the said church of Saint Paul Rusthall shall be paid by the minister thereof to the said John James Saint.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Paul, Rusthall, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Speldhurst, in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Canterbury, which is situate generally to the south-east of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides such parish from the new parish of Eridge Green, in the county of Sussex and in the diocese of Chichester, at the point near the High Rocks where the brook called the 'County Stream' crosses Tea Garden Lane; and extending thence first northward and then north-eastward along the middle of the said lane for a distance of one hundred and seventy-five yards or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of the fence dividing the close numbered 53 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Speldhurst and upon the map hereunto annexed from the plantation numbered 54 upon the same maps; and extending thence north-westward to and along the middle of the said fence to its junction with the fence dividing the close numbered 53 as aforesaid from the plantation numbered 100 upon the said maps; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-described fence and along the middle of the fences dividing the closes numbered respectively 106 and 102 upon the said maps from the plantation numbered 100 as aforesaid and from the plantation numbered 104 and from the close numbered 103 upon the same maps to the junction of the fence dividing the close numbered 102 from the close numbered 103 as aforesaid with the fence dividing the close numbered 68 upon the said maps from the close numbered 103 as aforesaid; and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-described fence and then northward along the middle of the fences dividing the close numbered 68 as aforesaid, and the closes numbered respectively 67 and 66 upon the said maps from the closes numbered respectively 96, 73, and 76 upon the same maps to the northern extremity of the fence which divides the close numbered 66 from the close numbered 76 as aforesaid upon the southern side of the turnpike road leading from Langton Green to Tunbridge Wells; and continuing thence still northward and in a direct line to a point in the middle of the said turnpike road; and extending thence eastward along the middle of the same turnpike road for a distance of sixty yards or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of the southern end of a certain road and footway leading over Rusthall Common aforesaid to Workhouse Lane; and extending thence northward to and along the middle of the last-described road and footway as far as a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'R. St. P. D. C. 1864, No. 1,' and placed on the western side of such road and footway in the middle of the eastern end of the fence dividing the close numbered 1046 upon the said maps from the close numbered 1047 upon the same maps; and extending thence westward and in a direct line to the said boundary stone; and continuing thence first westward along the middle of the last-described fence and then either northward or north-westward along the middle of the fences dividing the closes numbered respectively 1046 as aforesaid, 1043, 1042, 1041 and 1037, upon the said maps from the closes numbered respectively 90, 91, and 92, and the plantation numbered 93 upon the same maps to a boundary stone inscribed 'R. St. P. D. C. 1864, No. 2,' and placed on the southern side of the lane called Workhouse Lane in the middle of the northern end of the fence dividing the close numbered 1037 from the plantation numbered 93 as aforesaid ; and continuing thence northward and in a direct line to a point in the middle of the said lane ; and extending thence first westward and then north-westward along the middle of the last-named lane to its junction near Old House Farm with the road and footpath leading from Farnham to Lower Green ; and extending thence in a direction generally north-eastward along the middle of the said road and footpath (passing Old House Farm aforesaid) as far as a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'R. St. P. D. C. 1864, No. 3,' and placed on the southern side of such road and footpath in the middle of the north-western end of the fence dividing the closes numbered respectively 1059 and 1058 upon the said maps from the close numbered 1076 upon the same maps; and extending thence south-eastward and in a direct line to such boundary stone ; and continuing thence first south-eastward and then north-eastward along the middle of the last-described fence to its junction with the fence dividing the close numbered 1058 as aforesaid from the close numbered 1075 upon the said maps ; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-described fence, and along the middle of the fences dividing the closes numbered respectively 1057, 1462, and 1056 upon the said maps from the closes numbered respectively 1075 as aforesaid, 1389, and 1073 upon the same maps to a boundary stone inscribed 'R. St. P. D. C. 1864, No. 4,' and placed upon the western side of the road leading from Rusthall Common to Lower Green in the middle of the south-eastern extremity of the fence dividing the close numbered 1056 from the close numbered 1073 as aforesaid ; and continuing thence still south-eastward and in a direct line to a point in the middle of the said road ; and extending thence southward along the middle of the same road for a distance of twenty-two yards or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of the north-western end of the fence dividing the close numbered 1064 upon the said maps from the close numbered 1036 upon the same maps ; and extending thence first south-eastward to and along the middle of the last-described fence and then either north-eastward or northward along the middle of the fences which divide the closes numbered respectively 1107, 1105, and 1158, upon the said maps from the closes numbered respectively 1036 as aforesaid, 1112, 1113, 1085, and 1103 upon the same maps to the eastern extremity of the fence dividing the close numbered 1158 from the close numbered 1103 as aforesaid upon the western bank of a certain stream which flows through Hurst Wood ; and continuing thence north-eastward and in a direct line to a point in the middle of such stream ; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the same stream to the boundary which divides the said parish of Speldhurst from the new parish of Saint John, Tunbridge Wells, in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Canterbury aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Canterbury.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of Saint Luke, Kingston-upon-Hull, in the diocese of York.

Gazetted 12th April 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of April 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Luke, situate in the parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull, in the county of the town of Kingston-upon-Hull and in the diocese of York.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Luke, situate in the parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William, Archbishop of York (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Luke, Kingston-upon-Hull.'

"And with the like consent of the said William, Archbishop of York (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being; provided always, that so long as the Reverend John Healey Bromby, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull, shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent all the fees which shall be payable in respect of the performance of the before-mentioned offices at the said church of Saint Luke shall be paid by the minister thereof to the said John Healey Bromby.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Luke, Kingston-upon-Hull, being :—

"All that part of the parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull, in the county of the town of Kingston-upon-Hull and in the diocese of York, which is comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said parish from the district chapelry of Saint Stephen, Hull, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of the Anlaby Road opposite to the middle of the northern end of Walker Street; and extending thence southward to and along the middle of the last-named street to its intersection by Adelaide Street; and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-named street to its intersection by Great Thornton Street; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named street as far as a point opposite to the middle of the western end of William Street; and extending thence eastward to and along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Cogan Street; and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Great Passage Street; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named street as far as a point opposite to the middle of the southern end of Lower Union Street; and extending thence northward to and along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Osborne Street; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named street to its intersection by Anne Street; and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named street to a point in the middle of the wall which crosses and forms the northern extremity of the same last-named street and which is part of a continuous series of walls inclosing and bounding on the south and east certain land belonging to 'The Guild or Brotherhood of Masters and Pilots, Seamen of the Trinity House in Kingston-upon-Hull,' upon which land the almshouses belonging to the said guild or brotherhood, which are called 'The Master-Mariners and Mariners Almshouses,' are situate; and extending thence first eastward and then northward along the middle of such wall and of the other walls forming the rest of the said continuous series passing (throughout the whole length of the same walls) immediately along the rear of the said almshouses, or some of them, as far as a point on the boundary dividing the said parish of Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull, from the said district chapelry of Saint Stephen, Hull, such point being situate in the middle of Carr Lane, opposite or nearly opposite to the middle of the northern end of that one of the said continuous series of walls which abuts upon the same Carr Lane; and extending thence south-westward along the said boundary dividing the said parish of Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull, from the said district chapelry of Saint Stephen, Hull (following thereby first the middle of Carr Lane aforesaid and then the middle of the Analaby Road aforesaid), to the point in the middle of the last-named road where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of York.

No. 1584.

For making better Provision for the Cure of Souls in certain Parishes and Districts.

Gazetted 12th April 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of April 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

"We humbly recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us out of the Common Fund in the said Acts mentioned in each and every year to the incumbent for the time being of each of the benefices described in the first schedule hereunto annexed, the annual sum set opposite to the name of each such benefice in the last column of the same schedule, by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year.

"Provided always, that the grants so recommended to be made by us to the benefices of Alrewas, Caistor-with-Holton-le-Moor and Clixby, Holy Trinity, Hoxton, and Liddington-with-Caldecot, shall be paid only upon the production to us on or before the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year of certificates, under the hand of the bishops of the respective dioceses, that a curate duly licensed by such bishop has, in each instance, been employed within the parish or district during the preceding half-year; and provided also, that the said grant so recommended to be made by us to the benefice of Holy Trinity, Hoxton, shall continue in force only until a new district or districts for spiritual purposes shall have been constituted either wholly or in part out of the new parish of Holy Trinity, Hoxton.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the messuages, land, and premises, tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes, and other hereditaments particularly described in the second and nine following schedules hereunto annexed, with their appurtenances, now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the several spiritual persons herein-after mentioned, that is to say, that the lands and hereditaments described in the second schedule hereunto annexed, situate within the parish of St. Albans, in the county of Hertford and diocese of Rochester, which were conveyed to us by a deed bearing date the sixteenth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and made between the Right Honourable James Walter, Earl of Verulam, and Gerard Wolfe Lydekker, of Harpenden Lodge, in the said county of Hertford, Esquire, of the one part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the other part, which deed is intended to be deposited in the registry of the diocese of Rochester, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the rector or incumbent for the time being of the rectory of the said parish of St. Albans; that the lands and hereditaments described in the third schedule hereunto annexed, situate at Aston Brook, in the parish of Aston-juxta-Birmingham, in the county of Warwick and diocese of Worcester, which were conveyed to us by deed bearing date the fifth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and made between Josiah Yeomans Robins, formerly of Allersley Park, in the county of Warwick, but now of Myton, in the same county, Esquire, Ebenezer Robins, of Birmingham, in the said county of Warwick, Surveyor, Samuel Holland, formerly of Plas yn Penrhyn, in the county of Merioneth, but now of Tau y Bwlch, in the same county, Esquire, John Hillier Blount, of Bagshot, in the county of Surrey, Doctor in Medicine, and Henry Parker, the younger, formerly of Avenue Road, Regent's Park, in the county of Middlesex, but now of Potter's Bar, in the same county, Gentleman, of the first part, the Right Reverend Henry, Lord Bishop of Worcester, of the second part and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the third part, which deed has been deposited in the registry of the diocese of Worcester, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of Aston Brook aforesaid; that the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes described in the fourth schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate within the parish of Henllan, in the county of Denbigh and diocese of St. Asaph, formerly belonging to the deanery of the cathedral church of Saint Asaph, and now vested in us, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of Bylchau, in the same county and diocese; that the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes, described in the fifth schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate within the said parish of Henllan, in the said county of Denbigh and diocese of Saint Asaph, formerly belonging to the said deanery of the cathedral church of Saint Asaph, and now vested in us, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of Trefnant in the same county and diocese; that the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes described in the sixth schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate within the parish of Chigwell, in the county of Essex and diocese of Rochester, formerly belonging to the prebend of Saint Pancras, and now vested in us, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetal curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of Saint John, Chigwell, in the same county and diocese; that the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes described in the seventh schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate within the said parish of Chigwell, in the said county of Essex and diocese of Rochester, formerly belonging to the said prebend of Saint Pancras, and now vested in us, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the minister for the time being of the district of Chigwell Row, in the same county and diocese; that the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes described in the eighth schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate within the parish of Elm, in the county of Cambridge and diocese of Ely, and now vested in us, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the minister for the time being of the district of Fridaybridge, in the same county and diocese; that the lands and hereditaments described in the ninth schedule hereunto annexed, together with the messuage and buildings thereon, situate within the parish of Hurst, in the county of Berks and diocese of Oxford, formerly belonging to the deanery of the cathedral church of Salisbury and now vested in us, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Hurst, with the chapelry of Twyford annexed; that the messuage, lands, hereditaments, and premises described in the tenth schedule hereunto annexed, situate within the parish of Llanstephan, in the county of Carmarthen and diocese of Saint David's, which were conveyed to us by a deed bearing date the thirtieth day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and made between Elizabeth Lloyd, of Laques, in the said parish of Llanstephan, of the one part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the other part, which deed is intended to be deposited in the registry of the diocese of Saint David's, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Llanstephan; that the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes, described in the eleventh schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate within the parish of Heckfield, in the county of Southampton and diocese of Winchester, which were conveyed to us by a deed bearing date the twentieth day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and made between the Warden and Scholars of Saint Mary College of Winchester, in Oxford, commonly called New College, in Oxford, of the one part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the other part, which deed is intended to be deposited in the Registry of the diocese of Winchester, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of Mattingley in the same county and diocese.

"And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Reverend William Gibson Patchell, Clerk, the minister of the district of Drove End, in the county and diocese of Lincoln, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes, described in the twelfth schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate within the parish of Gedney, in the same county and diocese, with their appurtenances now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein shall, in like manner and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred and become absolutely vested in the minister for the time being of the said district of Drove End, in lieu of and in full substitution for and discharge of the annual sum or stipend of one hundred and thirty pounds, now payable by us to the same minister, under the provisions of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

"And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Reverend Charles Robert King Dallas, Clerk, the perpetual curate or incumbent of the perpetual curacy of Saint John, Farncombe, in the county of Surrey and diocese of Winchester, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes, described in the thirteenth schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate within the parish of Godalming, in the same county and diocese, with their appurtenances, formerly belonging to the deanery of the cathedral church of Salisbury, and now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein, shall, in like manner, and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of Saint John, Farncombe, in lieu of and in full substitution for and discharge of the annual sum or stipend of forty pounds, now payable by us to the same perpetual curate or incumbent under the provisions of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the ninth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and also in lieu of and in full substitution for and discharge of the annual sum or stipend of fifty pounds now payable by us to the same perpetual curate or incumbent under the provisions of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-third day of September in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine.

"And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Reverend John Edwards, Clerk, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Minety, in the counties of Gloucester and Wilts and diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes described in the fourteenth schedule hereunto annexed arising out of or upon lands situate within the said parish of Minety, with their appurtenances, formerly belonging to the archdeaconry of Wilts and now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein shall, in like manner and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Minety in lieu of and in full substitution for and discharge of the annual sum or stipend of ten pounds now payable by us to the same vicar or incumbent in respect of the estates formerly belonging to the said archdeaconry.

"And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Reverend Sydney Henry Armitstead, Clerk, the perpetual curate or incumbent of the perpetual curacy of Saint John the Evangelist, Sandbach Heath, in the county and diocese of Chester, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that the lands and hereditaments described in the first part of the fifteenth schedule hereunto annexed situate at Sandbach aforesaid, with their appurtenances, all which hereditaments and premises were conveyed to us by a deed bearing date the first day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and made between Philip Tatton Mainwaring, of Peover Hall, in the said county of Chester, Esquire, and Henry Eardley Aylmer Dalbiac, late of Chester Place, Hyde Park, in the county of Middlesex, but now of Udney House, Teddington, in the county of Surrey, Esquire, of the first part, Frederick William Steward, of Lincoln's Inn Fields, in the said county of Middlesex, Gentleman, of the second part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the third part, which deed is intended to be deposited in the registry of the diocese of Chester, and also the lands and hereditaments described in the second part of the same schedule likewise situate at Sandbach aforesaid, with their appurtenances, all which said last-mentioned hereditaments and premises were conveyed to us by a deed bearing date the ninth day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and made between William Winstanley Hull, of 'The Knowle,' near Belper, in the county of Derby, Esquire, and Peter Mere Latham, of Lower Grosvenor Street, in the said county of Middlesex, Doctor in Physic, of the one part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the other part, which said last-mentioned deed is also intended to be deposited in the said registry of the diocese of Chester, and all our estate and interest therein shall, in like manner and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of Saint John the Evangelist, Sandbach Heath, and shall be in lieu of and substitution for a portion amounting to one hundred and nine pounds per annum of the yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and fifty pounds now payable by us to the same perpetual curate or incumbent under the provisions of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twentieth day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

"And whereas it appears to us, after duly considering the circumstances of the cases undermentioned, to be expedient that the grants respectively recommended to be made by us to the benefices of Saint Albans, Aston Brook, Fridaybridge, Hurst-with-Twyford, Llanstephan, Llanthewy Vach, Mattingley, Saint Margaret, Uxbridge, and Saint Mark, Whitechapel, should commence and take effect from the several dates herein-after mentioned respectively, that is to say, in the case of the rectory of Saint Albans from the sixteenth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three; in the case of the perpetual curacy of Aston Brook from the fifth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three; in the case of the perpetual curacy of Fridaybridge from the twenty-ninth day of September in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two; in the case of the perpetual curacy of Hurst with the chapelry of Twyford annexed from the twenty-sixth day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three; in the case of the perpetual curacy of Llanstephan from the thirtieth day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three; in the case of the perpetual curacy of Llanthewy Vach from the twenty-fifth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three; in the case of the perpetual curacy of Mattingley from the twentieth day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four; in the case of the perpetual curacy of Saint Margaret, Uxbridge, from the twenty-eighth day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four; and in the case of the perpetual curacy of Saint Mark, Whitechapel, from the tenth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the several grants herein-before recommended by us to be made to the said last-mentioned benefices respectively shall commence and take effect from the said dates herein-before in that behalf mentioned respectively.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the respective Registrars of the several dioceses of York, London, Durham, Winchester, Saint Asaph, Bath and Wells, Chester, Chichester, St. David's, Ely, Gloucester and Bristol, Lichfield, Lincoln, Llandaff, Oxford, Peterborough, Ripon, Rochester, Salisbury, and Worcester.

EDMUND HARRISON.

No. 1585.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church called Chapel-le-Dale, in the Parish of Bentham, in the County of York and Diocese of Ripon.

Gazetted 12th April 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of April 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King

George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church called Chapel-le-Dale, situate in the ancient parochial chapelry of Ingleton Fells, otherwise Chapel-le-Dale, in the ancient parochial chapelry of Ingleton, within the parish of Bentham, in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church called Chapel-le-Dale as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those parts of the said parish of Bentham which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which parts, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Chapel-le-Dale.'

"And with the like consent of the said Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (testified as aforesaid), we further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being; provided always, that so long as the Reverend Richard Denny, the present incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the said ancient parochial chapelry of Ingleton, shall continue to be such incumbent all the fees which shall be received in respect of the performance of the said offices at the said church called Chapel-le-Dale shall be paid by the minister thereof to the said Richard Denny.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Chapel-le-Dale, being:—

"So much of the ancient parochial chapelry of Ingleton Fells, otherwise Chapel-le-Dale, in the ancient parochial chapelry of Ingleton, within the parish of Bentham, in the county of York and in the Diocese of Ripon, as lies wholly outside the common or commonable land within the same parish, which is called or known as Scales Moor; and also all such other part (if any) of the said ancient parochial chapelry of Ingleton Fells, otherwise Chapel-le-Dale; and also all such part (if any) of that portion of the said ancient parochial chapelry of Ingleton, within the said parish of Bentham, which is not included within the said ancient parochial chapelry of Ingleton Fells, otherwise Chapel-le-Dale, as may consist of that part of the said common or commonable land, called or known as Scales Moor, which is situate to the east of an imaginary line, commencing at a point in the middle of the wall which divides Scales Moor from Twisleton Pasture (opposite to which point a boundary stone inscribed C-le-D. D. C. 1864, No. 1,' has been placed on the northern side of such wall); and extending thence in a direct line north-eastward for a distance of one thousand and forty yards or thereabouts across the said common or commonable land as far as the south-eastern corner of a certain inclosure used as a fold for cattle, and called or known as Hard Rigg Fold; and continuing thence north-eastward along the eastern wall of such inclosure as far as the northern end of the same wall; and extending thence in a direct line north-westward across the said common or commonable land for a distance of one thousand and seventy yards or thereabouts to a point (near to West Fell End) upon the boundary dividing the said parish of Bentham from the parish of Thornton-in-Lonsdale, in the county and diocese aforesaid, at which point a boundary stone inscribed 'C.-le-D. D. C., 1864 No. 2,' has been placed."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.

EDMUND HARRISON.

No. 1586.

For constituting the District of Saint Michael, Islington, in the County of Middlesex and Diocese of London.

Gazetted 12th April 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of April 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the six and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the new parish of Saint Andrew, Islington, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Islington, herein-after mentioned and described (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship), should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes in manner herein-after set forth.

"And whereas, by an indenture bearing date the twenty-seventh day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and made or expressed to be made between James Randell, of Number 25, Mark Lane, in the city of London, Esquire, Charles Randell, of Duke Street, Southwark, in the county of Surrey, Esquire, Edward Randell, of the same place, Esquire, and Henry Randell the younger, of Mark Lane aforesaid, Esquire, trustees of the will of John Randell, late of Blackheath, in the county of Kent, Esquire, deceased, of the first part; Susan Shaw, now the wife of Alexander Shaw, of Cavendish Square, in the county of Middlesex, surgeon, but formerly the widow of the said John Randell, of the second part; the said Charles Randell (surviving executor of the will of George Randell, late of Blackheath, in the county of Kent, Esquire, deceased), of the third part; Martha Randell, of Number 10, Marine Square, Brighton, in the county of Sussex, spinster, Mary Smith, of Number 28, New Steine, Brighton, aforesaid, widow, Ann Hammond, of Oxford Terrace, Hyde Park, in the said county of Middlesex, widow, Elizabeth Randell, of Lee, Blackheath, in the county of Kent, spinster, and Sarah Randell, of Number 28, New Steine, Brighton, aforesaid, spinster, of the fourth part; and us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the fifth part; the said several persons, parties to the said indenture, of the first, second, third, and fourth parts, did, under and in conformity with the powers and trusts of the said will of John Randell aforesaid, probate whereof was granted on the twenty-first day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six to James Randell, William Randell, Charles Randell, and George Evans, grant, release, and confirm unto us, the said

Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, our successors and assigns, for the permanent endowment of the district herein-after recommended to be constituted, certain pieces or parcels of land or ground situate in Maiden Lane, in the parish of Saint Mary, Islington, in the county of Middlesex, with the several messuages and buildings thereon, the particulars whereof are set forth in a schedule annexed to or forming part of the said indenture, and are likewise set forth in the first schedule hereunder written.

"And whereas the said pieces or parcels of land or ground, with the several messuages and buildings thereon, are subject to certain leases, the particulars of which are also set forth in the before-mentioned indenture, and in the first schedule hereunder written, as aforesaid, and the several rents or reservations payable under or in respect of the said leases amount to the annual sum of one hundred and ninety-eight pounds.

"And whereas, in order to raising the permanent endowment of the said district herein-after recommended to be constituted to two hundred pounds per annum, the said several persons, parties to the said indenture, of the first, second, third, and fourth parts, or some or one of such persons, have or has contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England the sum of sixty pounds sterling, and we in respect thereof have agreed with the said persons or person so contributing the said sum of sixty pounds as aforesaid, and have undertaken to provide and pay by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year to the minister of the said district, when duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the herein secondly-mentioned Act, the yearly sum of two pounds.

"And whereas a sum of fifty pounds per annum, part of the aforesaid sum of two hundred pounds per annum so provided as aforesaid by the said several persons, parties to the said indenture of the first, second, third, and fourth parts, or some of them, for the endowment of the district herein-after recommended to be constituted, was so provided upon the understanding that we should, in order to increasing the endowment of the said district, appropriate out of the Common Fund created by the firstly herein-named Act the capital sum of one thousand pounds, as herein-after mentioned, for the benefit of the minister of the said district, when duly licensed, as before-mentioned, and upon the further understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district and of the nomination of the minister thereto should be assigned in the manner herein-after stated.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose, that all that part of the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Islington, which is described in the second schedule hereunder written and which is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Michael, Islington.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that the said pieces or parcels of land or ground with the several messuages and buildings thereon situate in Maiden Lane aforesaid, and subject to the leases thereof herein-before mentioned, together with the rents or reservations payable under or in respect of such leases so granted, released, and confirmed unto us and our successors and assigns as aforesaid, and all our estate and interest therein respectively, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, become and be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the minister of the district so recommended to be constituted, so soon as one shall be appointed and licensed in accordance with the provisions of the herein secondly named Act, and in his successors, ministers of the same district.

"And we further recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered to appropriate out of the common fund created by the firstly herein-mentioned Act as aforesaid, a capital sum of one thousand pounds for the benefit of the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, and that such capital sum, or any part thereof, may be paid or applied by us towards the purchase or acquisition, for the endowment of such district, of any land, tithe, or other hereditament which may appear to us to be suitable for annexation thereto ; and that in the meantime there shall be allowed and paid by us, by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, to the minister for the time being of the said district, when duly licensed as aforesaid, in respect of such capital sum, or such part thereof as shall remain from time to time unapplied towards such purposes as aforesaid, the annual sum of thirty-three pounds six shillings and eightpence, or such a part thereof as shall bear the same proportion to the whole of such annual sum as the part of the said capital sum so remaining unapplied as aforesaid bears to the amount of the whole of such capital sum.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted and of the nomination of the minister thereof shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Susan Shaw during her life, and that from and after her decease the said right of patronage of the said district and of the nomination of the minister thereof shall be assigned to and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised jointly by the said trustees of the said will of the said John Randell, deceased, their heirs and assigns, upon the trusts and for the purposes of his said will.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The Second SCHEDULE to which the foregoing scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Michael, Islington, being:—

"All that part of the new parish of Saint Andrew, Islington, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, wherein the present incumbent of such new parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is situate to the west of the consolidated chapelry of Saint Thomas, Islington, in the same county and diocese, and also to the west of an imaginary line commencing at the northern extremity of the western boundary of the said consolidated chapelry at a point in the middle of Bemerton Street; and extending thence northward along the middle of such street and along the middle of Upper Bemerton Street, to a boundary stone inscribed 'I. St. M. D. 1864,' and placed on the southern side of the wall or fence dividing the northern extremity of the last-named street from the premises belonging to the North London Railway Company; and continuing thence in the same direction and in a straight line for a distance of seventy-seven yards or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the line of the North London Railway; and which said part of the new parish of Saint Andrew, Islington, aforesaid, is situate to the south of another imaginary line commencing at the last-mentioned point in the middle of the line of the North London Railway aforesaid; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of such line as far as the boundary upon the western side of Maiden Lane which divides the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Islington, from the new parish of Saint Thomas, Agar Town, in the same county and diocese."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-before secondly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron of the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Islington, out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such incumbent and such patron have respectively signified their assent to the same scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

No. 1587.

For constituting the District of Saint John the Evangelist, Middlesbrough, in the County and Diocese of York.

Gazetted 12th April 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of April 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the tenth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Middlesbrough, in the county of York and in the diocese of York.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of Middlesbrough herein-after mentioned and described (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship) should be constituted a separate district in manner herein-after set forth.

"And whereas a sum of three thousand pounds sterling has been contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England by certain persons to be applied in and towards the provision of a church for the district herein-after recommended to be constituted.

"And whereas it has been proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that in consideration of the contribution and payment to us of the said sum of three thousand pounds as aforesaid the whole right of patronage of the said district herein-after recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, should be assigned as herein-after recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and most Reverend William, Archbishop of York (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that all that part of the said parish of Middlesbrough which is described in the schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, be constituted and become and be a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint John the Evangelist, Middlesbrough.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us in each and every year to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, the sum of two hundred pounds, and that so soon as a church shall have been erected within such district, and shall have been approved by us and consecrated as the church of such district, and for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the said last-mentioned Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us in each and every year to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish, the further sum of one hundred pounds, making in the whole the sum of three hundred pounds, and that the said sums of two hundred pounds, or three hundred pounds, as the case may be, shall be paid by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister or of the consecration of such church as aforesaid, as the case may be ; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November the amount then next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish ; provided always, that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time, that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the minister or perpetual curate of the said district or new parish, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, tithe, or other hereditament should be conveyed or secured to such minister or perpetal curate and his successors, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and so soon as the same shall become a new parish as aforesaid then of the said new parish, and of the nomination or appointment of the minister or perpetual curate thereto, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said William, Archbishop of York, and his successors, Archbishops of York, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint John the Evangelist, Middlesbrough, being :—

"All that the greater part of the parish of Middlesbrough, in the county of York and in the diocese of York, which consists of those several portions of such parish which are situate wholly without that other part of the same parish which contains the parish church of St. Hilda, and which is comprised within and is bounded by an imaginary line commencing on the municipal boundary of the borough of Middlesbrough at a point in the middle of the western end of Bridge Street West; and extending thence eastward along the middle of the said street to the point where it is intersected by the road leading through Queen's Square otherwise called Queen's Terrace; and extending thence northward along the middle of such road and across Gosford Street to a point in the middle of the south-western end of Cleveland Street; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named street and across East Street to a point in the middle of the south-western end of Durham Street ; and continuing thence still north-eastward along the middle of the last-named street and across Commercial Street to a point in the middle of the south-western end of the road leading to the Ferry landing; and continuing thence in the same direction along the middle of the last-described road to its north-eastern extremity; and continuing thence in the same direction and in a straight line across Middlesbrough Harbour to a point on the said municipal boundary of the borough of Middlesbrough in the mid-channel of the River Tees ; and extending thence north-westward along the said municipal boundary following the mid-channel of the River Tees aforesaid as far as the point where such boundary diverges therefrom; and continuing thence first south-westward and then south-eastward and then again south-westward along the same boundary, passing to the west of Port Darlington and crossing the Old Middlesbrough branch line of the Stockton and Darlington Railway, to the junction of the said municipal boundary with the boundary dividing the said parish of Middlesbrough from a certain detached portion of the parish of West Acklam in the county and diocese aforesaid; and continuing thence still south-westward along the last-described parish boundary to the point where it rejoins the municipal boundary aforesaid; and continuing thence in the same direction along the said municipal boundary as far as the first-described point in the middle of the western end of Bridge Street West, where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-before secondly-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron of the said parish of Middlesbrough, out of which it is intended that the district in such scheme recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and certain observations and objections which have been offered and taken by the incumbent of the said parish have been aid before Her Majesty in Council together with the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has, notwithstanding such observations and objections, been approved by Her Majesty in Council : now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of York.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of the Holy Trinity, Bordesley, in the Parish of Aston-juxta-Birmingham, in the County of Warwick and Diocese of Worcester.

Gazetted 12th April 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of April 1864.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the tenth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty four, in the words following; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly ay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Bordesley, in the parish of Aston-juxta-Birmingham, in the county of Warwick and in the diocese of Worcester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient, that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of the Holy Trinity situate at Bordesley aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Aston-juxta-Birmingham, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Bordesley.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Henry, Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being; provided always, that so long as the Reverend George Peake, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Aston-juxta-Birmingham, shall remain such vicar or incumbent all the said fees which may be received by the minister of the said church of the Holy Trinity, Bordesley, as aforesaid, shall be paid by him to the said George Peake.

"We therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Bordesley, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Aston-juxta-Birmingham, in the county of Warwick and in the diocese of Worcester, which is comprised within and is bounded by an imaginary line commencing at the point in the middle of Birmingham and Coventry turnpike road where the boundary of the parish of Yardley, in the county of Worcester and in the said diocese of Worcester, meets the boundary which divides the said parish of Aston-juxta-Birmingham from the new parish of Saint Andrew, Bordesley, in the county of Warwick and in the diocese of Worcester aforesaid; and extending thence north-westward along the last-described boundary, following thereby the middle of the said turnpike road, and also the middle of Kingston Road and of Adderley Street, following also the eastern side of the Birmingham and Warwick Canal as far as the intersection of such last-mentioned boundary by the boundary dividing the hamlet of Bordesley in the said parish of Aston-juxta-Birmingham from the hamlet of Deritend in the same parish ; and extending thence first southward and then south-westward along the said hamlet boundary to its junction in the middle of the River Rea with the boundary dividing the said parish of Aston-juxta-Birmingham from the parish of Saint Martin, Birmingham, in the county of Warwick and diocese of Worcester aforesaid ; and extending thence south-eastward along the last-described boundary to its junction with the boundary dividing the parish of Aston-juxta-Birmingham aforesaid from the new parish of Saint Paul, Balsall Heath, in the county of Worcester and in the diocese of Worcester aforesaid ; and extending thence first southward and then south-eastward along the last-described boundary as far as a point in the middle of the line of the Midland Railway ; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said line of railway as far as the centre of the bridge which carries the said line of railway over the main line of the Great Western Railway ; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named line of railway as far as the boundary dividing the parish of Aston-juxta-Birmingham from the parish of Yardley as aforesaid ; and extending thence north-eastward along the last-described boundary as far as the point in the middle of the Birmingham and Coventry turnpike road where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Worcester.

No. 1589.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of Saint James, Hampton Hill, in the County of Middlesex and Diocese of London.

Gazetted 12th April 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of April 1864.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty

King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the seventeenth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following ; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commisioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint James, situate at Hampton Hill, in the parish of Hampton, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint James situate at Hampton Hill aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Hampton which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Hampton Hill.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being ; provided always, that so long as the Reverend James Burrow, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Hampton, shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent all fees which shall be payable in respect of the performance of burials at the said church of Saint James, situate at Hampton Hill aforesaid, shall be paid by the said minister thereof to the said James Burrow.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Hampton Hill, being :—

"All that part of the parish of Hampton, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, which is situate to the north of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing such parish from the parish of Hanworth, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of the Hanworth Road; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said road to its junction with the road leading from Hampton to Twickenham; and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-described road as far as the centre of the bridge which carries such road over Longford River; and extending thence north-eastward to and along the middle of the said river (which in this part flows through Bushey Park) to the middle of the eastern extremity of the pond near the southern corner of the Bushey Stables; and continuing thence still north-eastward and in a direct line for a distance of two hundred and forty-two yards or thereabouts, crossing a further portion of the said Bushey Park, to a point in the middle of the south-western end of the Stew Ponds; and extending thence still in the last-named direction along the middle of the said Stew Ponds to the boundary which divides the said parish of Hampton from the parish of Teddington in the county and diocese aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

No. 1590.

For authorizing the Sale and Disposal of certain Property formerly belonging to the Prebend of Flixton, in the Cathedral Church of Lichfield.

Gazetted 12th April 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of April 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her

Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventeenth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property, formerly belonging to the prebend of Flixton, in the cathedral church of Lichfield, annexed to the fifth canonry in the said church, and now vested in us.

"Whereas on the vacancy of the said canonry and prebend, which occurred on or about the twenty-seventh day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, by the decease of the Reverend Spencer Madan, clerk, the then holder of the said fifth canonry and of the said prebend of Flixton, all the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments theretofore belonging to the said canonry and prebend (except rights of patronage) became, by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments so vested in us as aforesaid, are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant, but are now in possession; but some portions thereof, on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.

No. 1591.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of Saint George, Staleybridge, in the Parish of Ashton-under-Lyne, in the County of Lancaster and Diocese of Manchester.

Gazetted 12th April 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of April 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the seventeenth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint George (commonly called Old Saint George's) situate at Staleybridge, in the parish of Ashton-under-Lyne, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint George (commonly called Old Saint George's) situate at Staleybridge aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Ashton-under-Lyne which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Old Saint George's, Staleybridge.'

"And, with the like consent of the said James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being; provided always, that so long as the Reverend George Chetwode, the present rector or incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Ashton-under-Lyne, shall continue to be such rector or incumbent all the fees to be received in respect of the publication of banns and of the solemnization or performance of the offices aforesaid at the said church of Saint George (commonly called Old Saint George's), at Staleybridge, shall be paid by the minister thereof to the said George Chetwode.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Old Saint George's, Staleybridge, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Ashton-under-Lyne, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is situate to the south-west of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing such parish from the new parish of New Saint George, Staleybridge, in the same county and diocese, at the point where Arlees Lane joins May Hill Lane, such point being opposite to the middle of the south-western end of a certain road leading across Spout Brook to Luzley; and extending thence north-eastward for a distance of ninety-six yards or thereabouts to and along the middle of the said last-described road to a point (near Spout Brook aforesaid) opposite to the middle of the north-western end of a certain road, which is or is supposed to be an old Roman road, leading from the same last-described road, past Luzley End, into a certain other road that leads past Little London towards Lower Beestow; and extending thence south-eastward to and along the middle of the said Roman or supposed Roman road as far as a point (at the junction of such road with the said road leading past Little London towards Lower Beestow) opposite to the north-western end of a certain footpath or bridle road leading past the north side of Stone Acre or Standrick Hill to Heyrod (which footpath or bridle road is other part of the same Roman or supposed Roman road); and extending thence south-eastward to and along the middle of the said footpath or bridle road as far as a point in the middle of that portion of the turnpike road leading from Saddleworth to Staleybridge which is called 'Ridge Hill Lane and Hole'; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said turnpike road for a distance of thirty-five yards or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of the western end of a certain bridge which carries over the line of the Manchester and Huddersfield Branch of the London and North-western Railway a certain other footpath leading from the same turnpike road past Heyrod Old Hall and along Spring Bank and across the river Tame to Spring Grove (which last described footpath is also part of the said Roman or supposed Roman road); and extending thence first eastward and then southward and then south-eastward to and along the middle of the last described footpath (crossing the said bridge) as far as a point upon the boundary dividing the said parish of Ashton-under-Lyne from the particular district of Saint Paul, Staleybridge, in the county and diocese of Chester, which point is situate in the middle of the bridge that carries the said last-described footpath over the said River Tame."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

For authorizing the Sale and Disposal of certain Property formerly belonging to the Prebend of Holme in the Cathedral Church of York.

Gazetted 12th April 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of April 1864.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventeenth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following ; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the prebend of Holme, in the cathedral church of York, and now vested in us.

"Whereas under an Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and another Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and by virtue of an Order of Your Majesty in Council made under the provisions of the same Acts, bearing date the thirteenth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and duly published in the London Gazette on the fourteenth day of the same month, all lands, tithes, and other hereditaments whatsoever then belonging to the said prebend (except rights of patronage) became absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas our estate in the lands, tithes, and hereditaments aforesaid consists of reversions expectant upon the determination of beneficial leases for lives, and such lands, tithes, and hereditaments produce during the subsistence of such leases only small annual revenues, and partly on that account and partly on account of their character or situation are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions, or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders thereof (if any), to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments theretofore belonging to the said prebend of Holme, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of York.

No. 1593.

For altering the Boundaries of the District Chapelry of Saint Paul, Clifton, in the County of Gloucester and Diocese of Gloucester and Bristol.

Gazetted 29th April 1864.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 26th day of April 1864.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty, of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter sixty, of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation for altering the boundaries of the district chapelry of Saint Paul, Clifton, in the county of Gloucester and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol.

"Whereas, by the authority of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-second day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, and published in the London Gazette on the twenty-fifth day of the same month, a part of the parish of Clifton, in the county and diocese aforesaid, was assigned as a district to the consecrated church of Saint Paul situate in such parish, and was called 'The District Chapelry of Saint Paul, Clifton.'

"And whereas it has been proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that the boundaries of the said district chapelry of Saint Paul, Clifton, should be altered as herein-after mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend Charles John, Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, of the Reverend William Marsh, the rector or incumbent of the rectory of the parish of Beddington, in the county of Surrey, Doctor in Divinity, of the Reverend William Carus, canon residentiary of the cathedral church of Winchester, of the Reverend John Venn, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Saint Peter, in the city of Hereford, of the Reverend Edward Auriol, the rector or incumbent of the rectory of the parish of St. Dunstan-in-the-West, in the city of London, and of the Reverend Edmund Hollond, of Hyde Park Gardens, in the county of Middlesex, Clerk, the patrons of the perpetual curacy of the parish of Clifton aforesaid, and of the perpetual curacy of the said district chapelry of Saint Paul, Clifton, and with the consents of the Reverend John Hensman, the incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Clifton, and of the Reverend Frederick Vaughan Mather, the incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the said district chapelry of Saint Paul, Clifton (testified by their having respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that in our opinion it would be expedient that the boundaries of the said district chapelry of Saint Paul, Clifton, should be altered so as to dissever from the said parish of Clifton and to include within the said district chapelry all that further portion of the said parish of Clifton which is described in the schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth on the map hereunto annexed; and that the said last-mentioned portion of the said parish of Clifton shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this representation, be so included within and shall be and form part of the said district chapelry of Saint Paul, Clifton.

"And we humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"Territory proposed to be dissevered from the Parish of Clifton and annexed to the District Chapelry of Saint Paul, Clifton :—

"All that portion of the parish of Clifton, in the county of Gloucester and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, which is comprised within and is bounded by an imaginary line commencing at the point in the middle of Queen's Road where the boundary of the parish of Saint Michael, Bristol, in the county and diocese aforesaid, is met by the boundary which divides the said parish of Clifton from the district chapelry of Saint Paul, Clifton (sometime part of the said parish of Clifton) ; and extending thence north-westward along the last-described boundary, following in part the middle of the said Queen's Road, and in part the middle of the road called Richmond Hill, as far as a point in the middle of Queen's Road aforesaid opposite to the middle of the north-western end of the said Richmond Hill ; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said Queen's Road for a distance of fifty yards or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of the north-western end of the wall which divides the garden and premises belonging to Waterloo Villa from the garden and premises belonging to the house known as No. 2, Park House, and numbered and named accordingly on the map hereunto annexed, and from the garden and premises belonging to the house known as No. 1, Park House, and numbered and named accordingly on the said map hereunto annexed; and extending thence south-eastward to and along the middle of the said wall to its southern extremity; and extending thence in a direct line north-eastward diagonally across the road called 'Richmond Spring Road' to a point in the middle of the north-western end of the wall which divides the garden and premises belonging to Devonshire Villa from the garden and premises belonging to Coburg Villa and from the garden and premises belonging to Clifton Villa; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last described wall to its south-eastern extremity; and continuing thence still south-eastward to and along the middle of the road known as Frederick Place to its junction with the road known as Meridian Place; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with the road called Ruysdale Place; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named road, passing the front of the Roman Catholic Chapel to the junction of the said last-named road with the road known as Park Place; and continuing thence still south-eastward to the middle of the north-western end of a certain passage which leads from Park Place aforesaid past the convent of Saint Catherine towards Berkeley Place; and extending thence still south-eastward along the middle of such passage as far as a point opposite to the easternmost angle of the wall which encloses the premises belonging to the said convent; and extending thence first south-westward to and along the middle of the said wall, then north-westward and then north-eastward along the middle of the same wall as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern extremity of a certain embankment called Honeypen Hill Embankment which passes along the back of Berkeley Court and Rock Court; and extending thence first north-westward to and along the middle of the said embankment and then south-westward along the middle of the same embankment to its extremity; and extending thence south-eastward to a point in the middle of the wall dividing the gardens belonging to the houses on the western side of Rock Court aforesaid from the houses and gardens on the eastern side of Burton's Court; and extending thence first southward and then south-eastward along the middle of the said wall to a point in the middle of a certain passage which connects Burton's Court with Rock Court aforesaid opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of the said wall; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said passage to its junction with Rock Court; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named court to a point on the boundary dividing the said parish of Clifton from the parish of Saint George, Bristol, in the county and diocese aforesaid, such point being situate on the northern side of Berkeley Place aforesaid, opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of Rock Court; and extending thence north-eastward along the last-described boundary to its junction near the south-western end of the road called the Triangle, with the boundary which divides the said parish of Clifton from the parish of Saint Michael, Bristol, aforesaid; and continuing thence still north-eastward along the last-described boundary to the point in the middle of the Queen's Road where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct, that the same and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the respective Registrars of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol at Bristol and at Gloucester.

For effecting a Transfer of the Patronage of the Perpetual Curacy of the New Parish of Salcombe, in the County of Devon and Diocese of Exeter.

Gazetted 29th April 1864.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 26th day of April 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter thirty-nine, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventeenth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the patronage of the perpetual curacy of the new parish of Salcombe, in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter.

"Whereas the perpetual curacy of the said new parish of Salcombe is in the patronage of the incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the parish of West Alvington, in the said county and diocese.

"And whereas, with a view to making additional provision for the cure of souls within the limits of the said new parish, the perpetual curacy whereof was ill endowed, the Right Honourable William Reginald, Earl of Devon, has augmented the endowment of the said perpetual curacy, by securing, inter alia, to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor clergy, in trust for the benefit of the incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy, an annual sum of forty-five pounds charged upon certain lands and hereditaments situate within the parish of Malborough, in the said county of Devon, now belonging to him, upon the understanding that the patronage of the said perpetual curacy should be transferred as is herein-after recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of Exeter, and of the Reverend Douglas Macdonald, Clerk, incumbent of the said vicarage of West Alvington, in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme, and in consideration of the annual sum so granted to the said perpetual curacy as aforesaid, we humbly recommend and propose, that upon and from the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the exclusive right of patronage of the said perpetual curacy of the new parish of Salcombe, and of the nomination of the incumbent thereto and to the church thereof, shall be assigned and transferred from the said Reverend Douglas Macdonald, vicar of West Alvington, and his successors in the said vicarage, and become and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said William Reginald, Earl of Devon, his heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.

No. 1595.

As to the Assignment of a Consolidated Chapelry to the Church of Saint John the Evangelist, Bishops Hull, in the County of Somerset and Diocese of Bath and Wells.

Gazetted 29th April 1864.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 26th day of April 1864.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the seventeenth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following ; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John the Evangelist, Bishops Hull, situate partly in the parish of Bishops Hull, in the county of Somerset and in the diocese of Bath and Wells, and partly in the parish of Wilton, in the same county and diocese.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Bishops Hull and of the parish of Saint Mary Magdalene, Taunton, in the county and diocese aforesaid, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Bishops Hull and of the said parish of Saint Mary Magdalene, Taunton, together with the contiguous portion of the said parish of Wilton, whereon the said church of Saint John the Evangelist, Bishops Hull, is partly situate as aforesaid, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Robert John, Baron Auckland, Bishop of the said diocese of Bath and Wells, of the Reverend Wadham Pigott Williams, the patron and also the incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Bishops Hull, of Sarah Cottle, of Clearmont House, Weymouth, in the county of Dorset, widow, the patron of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Wilton, and of the Reverend William Robinson Clark, the patron and also the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint Mary Magdalene, Taunton (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Bishops Hull, of the said parish of Wilton, and of the said parish of Saint Mary Magdalene, Taunton, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint John the Evangelist, Bishops Hull, situate partly in the said parish of Bishops Hull and partly in the said parish of Wilton as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist, Bishops Hull.'

"And we further represent, that it has been mutually agreed between the said Wadham Pigott Williams, the said Sarah Cottle, and the said William Robinson Clark (testified as aforesaid), that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist, Bishops Hull, shall belong to and shall be exercised by the Reverend Frederick Jeremiah Smith, of Taunton, in the said county of Somerset, Clerk, his heirs and assigns.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist, Bishops Hull, being :—

"All that portion of the parish of Bishops Hull, in the county of Somerset and in the diocese of Bath and Wells, which is situate within the parliamentary boundary of the borough of Taunton ; and also all that triangular portion of the parish of Wilton in the county and diocese aforesaid which is situate within the fence which forms the boundary of the site of the church of Saint John the Evangelist, Bishops Hull ; and also all that triangular portion of the parish of Saint Mary Magdalene, Taunton, in the county and diocese aforesaid, which is comprised within and is bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing such parish from the said parish of Bishops Hull, at a point on the western side of Cann Street, opposite to the middle of the north-western end of the wall which divides the grounds belonging to the Shire Hall from the houses and premises situate on the eastern side of the said street, and from the houses and premises situate on the northern side of the western end of the street or road called 'Shuttern;' and extending thence south-eastward to and along the middle of the said wall to a point in the middle of the said street or road called 'Shuttern,' opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of the same wall; and extending thence westward along the middle of the same street or road to the boundary which divides the parish of Saint Mary Magdalene, Taunton, from the parish of Bishops Hull as aforesaid, at or near to the southern end of Cann Street before mentioned; and extending thence north-eastward along the said boundary following the western side of Cann Street aforesaid to the first-described point opposite to the middle of the north-western end of the wall which divides the grounds belonging to the Shire Hall from the houses and premises situate on the eastern side of the same street where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Bath and Wells.

ARTHUR HELPS.

No. 1596.

For assigning certain Lands and Hereditaments as the Endowment of the See of Lincoln.

Gazetted 6th May 1864.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 4th day of May 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, sections two, three, four, and seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :—

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, sections two, three, four, and seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for assigning certain lands and hereditaments as the endowment of the see of Lincoln.

" Whereas the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Lincoln, succeeded to the see of Lincoln on an avoidance which happened before the passing of the herein-before mentioned Act, and is in receipt of the amount named by Act of Parliament as the income of the Bishop of Lincoln, videlicet, five thousand pounds per annum ; and the said John, Bishop of Lincoln, has signified to us his willingness to accept an endowment for his see in lands and hereditaments in lieu of his said income, and that the arrangement herein-after set forth should be made for that purpose.

" And whereas the lands and hereditaments specified and described in the first part of the schedule hereto annexed, now belong to and are vested in the said bishop and his successors in the said see, and the lands and hereditaments specified and described in the second part of the same schedule are now vested in us, and the lands and hereditaments so specified in the said two parts of the schedule aforesaid are together, in the opinion of our Estates Committee, convenient to be held as the endowment of the said see of Lincoln, and are calculated to secure to the holder thereof as nearly as may be (after deducting costs of management) a net annual income of five thousand pounds and no more.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the said John, Bishop of Lincoln, testified by his having signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal, we humbly recommend and propose that upon the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly published Order, the lands, tenements, and hereditaments particularly described in the first part of the schedule hereunto annexed, with their appurtenances, shall be assigned and remain as a part endowment for the said see of Lincoln, absolutely freed and discharged from all right, title, interest, claim, or demand of or from us other than such as is created or allowed by the said Act ; and that the lands and hereditaments specified and described in the second part of the said schedule hereto annexed, with all our right, title, estate, and interest therein, and in any tithes, or rentcharges in lieu of tithes, arising thereout or charged thereupon, and the benefit of the perpetual land tax (if any) charged upon the same premises shall be assigned as a further endowment of the said see of Lincoln, and shall as from the twenty-fifth day of March last become and be absolutely vested in the said bishop as an endowment for his see, as contemplated by the said Act, subject always and nevertheless to the liabilities and charges to which the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments are now specifically liable, to the end that all the lands, hereditaments and emoluments of or belonging to the said see of Lincoln, except such as are so specified and described in the said two parts of the schedule aforesaid, and except also all rights of patronage and presentation, and the residence of the bishop may become vested absolutely in us, under and by virtue and subject to the provisions of the said herein-before mentioned Act.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid in conformity with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament.

No. 1597.

For altering the Boundaries of the Consolidated Chapelry District of Christ Church, Derry Hill, and New Parish of Chittoe, in the County of Wilts and Diocese of Salisbury.

Gazetted 14th June 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of June 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

"Whereas, by the authority of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the eleventh day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, and published in the London Gazette upon the sixteenth day of November in the same year, certain contiguous portions of the parishes of Calne, Bremhill, and Bishop's Cannings, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and also certain contiguous portions of the parishes of Chippenham and Corsham, in the said county of Wilts and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and also the whole of the extra-parochial place called 'Pewisham;' and also the whole of the liberty of Bowood, which said extra-parochial place and liberty are respectively situate in the said county of Wilts and in the said diocese of Salisbury, were formed into a consolidated chapelry district, and were assigned to the consecrated church called Christ Church, situate at Derry Hill, in the said parish of Calne, and such consolidated chapelry district was called 'The Consolidated Chapelry District of Christ Church, Derry Hill.'

"And whereas, under the provisions of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, the said consolidated chapelry district of Christ Church, Derry Hill, is subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the said diocese of Salisbury.

"And whereas, by the authority of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the nineteenth day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, and published in the London Gazette upon the fifth day of June in the same year, certain contiguous portions of the said parish of Bishop's Cannings and of the parish of Bromham, in the said county of Wilts and diocese of Salisbury, were formed into a consolidated chapelry, and were assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Mary, situate at Chittoe, in the said parish of Bishop's Cannings, and such consolidated chapelry was called 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Chittoe.'

"And whereas the said consolidated chapelry of Chittoe is assumed to have become, under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, a new parish of the character contemplated by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and is accordingly herein-before and hereinafter called the new parish of Chittoe.

"And whereas it has been proposed to us, and it has been made to appear to us to be expedient, that the boundaries of the said consolidated chapelry district of Christ Church, Derry Hill, and also that the boundaries of the said new parish of Chittoe should be altered in the manner herein-after described.

"Now therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend Walter Kerr, Bishop of the said diocese of Salisbury, who is also the patron in right of his see of the vicarage of the said parish of Calne, and of the vicarage of the said parish of Bremhill, and of the perpetual curacy of the said new parish of Chittoe, of the Reverend Meredith Brown, the incumbent of the same new parish, of the Reverend John Guthrie, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Calne, and as such vicar or incumbent the patron of the perpetual curacy of the said consolidated chapelry district of Christ Church, Derry Hill, of the Reverend Henry Mordaunt Fletcher, the incumbent of such last-mentioned perpetual curacy, of the Honourable and Reverend Charles Amyand Harris, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Bremhill, of the Right Honourable Frederick Henry Paul, Baron Methuen, the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Corsham, of the Reverend Joseph Abbott, the vicar or incumbent of the same vicarage, of the Reverend William Ewart, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Bishop's Cannings, of the Reverend Edward Betenson Edgell, the patron and also the rector or incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Bromham, and of the Reverend John Rich, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Chippenham (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), and with the consent of the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Saint Mary the Virgin at Salisbury, the patrons of the vicarage of the said parish of Bishop's Cannings, and with the consent of the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Christ at Oxford, the patrons of the vicarage of the said parish of Chippenham (in testimony whereof the said Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Saint Mary the Virgin at Salisbury, and the said Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Christ at Oxford, have hereunto respectively affixed their common or capitular seals), we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient, firstly, that the boundaries of the said consolidated chapelry district of Christ Church, Derry Hill, and the boundaries of the said new parish of Chittoe should be altered as between themselves in manner following, that is to say, that that portion of the said consolidated chapelry district of Christ Church, Derry Hill, which is described in the first part of the schedule hereunder written, and which is delineated upon the map or plan hereunto annexed and thereon coloured blue, should, from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this representation, be disannexed and dissevered from such consolidated chapelry district, and that such portion so disannexed and dissevered as aforesaid should thenceforth be included in and form part of the said new parish of Chittoe; and secondly, that the boundaries of the said new parish of Chittoe should be further altered in manner following, that is to say, that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this representation as aforesaid, all those portions of the said parish of Bromham which are described in the second part of the said schedule hereunder written, and which are also delineated and set forth upon the same map or plan hereunto annexed and thereon coloured yellow, should be included within and form part of the said new parish of Chittoe.

"And we humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"All that portion of the Consolidated Chapelry District of Christ Church, Derry Hill, in the county of Wilts and in the diocese of Salisbury, which is situate to the south-east of an imaginary line commencing at a point in the middle of the road leading from Corsham towards Chippenham where the boundary dividing the said consolidated chapelry district from the southern side of a certain detached portion (in the second part of this schedule fully described) of the parish of Bromham in the said county and diocese meets the boundary dividing the said consolidated chapelry district of Christ Church, Derry Hill, from the parish of Lacock, in the said county of Wilts and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol; and extending thence first eastward and then north-eastward along the middle of the said road to its junction with the turnpike road leading from Chippenham through Sandy Lane to Devizes; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-western end of the road leading from such last-named road to Bowood House; and extending thence north-eastward to and along the middle of the last-described road to the point where such road is intersected by the boundary which formerly divided the parish of Chippenham in the said county of Wilts and in the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol from the extra-parochial place known as the liberty of Bowood, in the same county of Wilts and in the said diocese of Salisbury; and all which said part of the said consolidated chapelry district of Christ Church, Derry Hill, is situate mainly to the west of another imaginary line commencing at the last-described point in the middle of the said road leading to Bowood House, where such road is intersected by the said boundary which formerly divided the said parish of Chippenham from the said extra-parochial place, known as the liberty of Bowood; and extending thence first south-eastward along the last-mentioned boundary (which also forms the western and southern boundary of the demesne known as Bowood Park), and then westward, southward, and north-eastward along the same boundary as far as the junction of the said boundary with the boundary dividing the said consolidated chapelry district of Christ Church, Derry Hill, from the parish of Calne, in the said county of Wilts and in the said diocese of Salisbury, in the middle of the road leading from Sandy Lane aforesaid to Calne, near Nuthill's Farm ; and extending thence in a direction mainly south-eastward along the last-described boundary to the junction of such boundary with the boundary dividing the said consolidated chapelry district of Christ Church, Derry Hill, from the parish of Heddington in the same county of Wilts and diocese of Salisbury, in the middle of the road leading from Chittoe to Calne.

"All that part of the Parish of Bromham, in the county of Wilts and in the diocese of Salisbury (including all that detached portion mentioned in the first part of this schedule of the said parish of Bromham, which is numbered 692 upon the tithe commutation map of the same parish and upon the map hereunto annexed, and which is bounded on some part of the south side thereof and also on some part of the west side thereof by the said parish of Lacock, and on the remaining part of the south and west sides thereof respectively, and also on all other sides by the said consolidated chapelry district of Christ Church, Derry Hill), which is situate to the north-west of an imaginary line commencing on the boundary dividing the said parish of Bromham from the said parish of Heddington at a point in the middle of the road leading from Sandy Lane through Wanshouse to Devizes, opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of the fence dividing the close numbered 73 upon the said maps from the close numbered 70 upon the same maps ; and extending thence south-westward to and along the middle of the said fence and of the fence dividing the close numbered 77 upon the said maps from the close numbered 70 as aforesaid to the junction of the last-described fence with the fence dividing the close numbered 77 as aforesaid from the close numbered 76 upon the said maps ; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-mentioned fence to its junction with the fence dividing the close numbered 75 upon the said maps from the close numbered 76 as aforesaid ; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the fence last referred to to a point in the middle of the said turnpike road from Chippenham, through Sandy Lane to Devizes, opposite to the middle of the south-western extremity of the last-described fence ; and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named road to a point opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of the fence dividing the close numbered 569 upon the said maps from the close numbered 555 upon the same maps ; and extending thence first westward to and along the middle of the last-described fence and then south-westward along the middle of the fences dividing the closes numbered respectively 568, 567, and 565 upon the said maps from the closes numbered respectively 555 as aforesaid, 557, and 558 upon the same maps to a boundary stone inscribed 'C. N. P. 1864,' and placed at the intersection of the fence which divides the close numbered 565 as aforesaid from the close numbered 558 as aforesaid by a certain brook which flows westward towards Melksham; and extending thence first westward along the middle of the said brook and then generally south-westward along the middle of the same brook (passing under Stockey Lane) as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of the fence which divides the close numbered 509 upon the said maps from the close numbered 507 upon the same maps; and extending thence in a direction generally north-westward to and along the middle of such last-described fence and of the fence which divides the closes numbered respectively 508 and 496 upon the said maps from the said close numbered 507 as aforesaid to the junction of the last-mentioned fence with the fence dividing the close numbered 498 upon the said maps from the said close numbered 507 as aforesaid; and extending thence in a direction generally south-westward along the middle of such last-described fence and of the fences which divide the said close numbered 498 as aforesaid and the closes numbered respectively 487, 486, and 478 upon the said maps from the closes numbered respectively 499, 476, 477, 454, and 453 upon the same maps as far as the junction of the fence dividing the close numbered 478 from the close numbered 453 as aforesaid with the fence which divides the said close numbered 478 from the close numbered 452 upon the said maps; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-described fence as far as the junction of the same fence with the fence which divides the close numbered 480 upon the said maps from the close numbered 452 as aforesaid; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-mentioned fence and of the fences which divide the closes numbered respectively 479, 412, and 443 upon the said maps from the closes numbered respectively 452 as aforesaid, 445, and 444 upon the same maps, to the junction of the fence dividing the close numbered 443 from the close numbered 444 as aforesaid with the fence which divides the said close numbered 443 from the closes numbered respectively 433*a* and 433 upon the said maps; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-described fence and of the fence which divides the said close numbered 443 upon the aforesaid maps from a certain occupation road which leads from the close and building numbered 439 upon the same maps to the road leading from Bromham to Melksham as far as a point opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of the said occupation road; and extending thence south-westward to and along the middle of the same occupation road to its junction with the said road leading from Bromham to Melksham; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of such last-mentioned road as far as a point (in the middle of the same last-mentioned road) upon the boundary which divides the parish of Bromham aforesaid from the parish of Melksham in the same county of Wilts and diocese of Salisbury."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Salisbury.

No. 1598.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of Saint Luke, Nutford Place, Saint Marylebone, in the County of Middlesex and Diocese of London.

Gazetted 14th June 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of June 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the first and second years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and seven, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourteenth day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the first and second years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and seven, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Luke, situate in Nutford Place, in the district rectory of Saint Mary, in Saint Marylebone, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Luke situate in Nutford Place aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London, and of the Reverend Charles Dallas Marston, the district rector or incumbent of the said district rectory of Saint Mary in Saint Marylebone aforesaid (testified by their having respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said district rectory of Saint Mary in Saint Marylebone which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church of Saint Luke situate in Nutford Place as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Luke, Nutford Place.'

"And, with the like consents of the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London, and of the said Charles Dallas Marston (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being; provided always, that so long as the said Charles Dallas Marston shall continue to be the district rector or incumbent of the said district rectory of Saint Mary in Saint Marylebone as aforesaid all the fees which shall be payable in respect of the performance of the before-mentioned offices at the said church of Saint Luke situate in Nutford Place aforesaid shall be paid by the said minister thereof to the said Charles Dallas Marston.

We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Luke, Nutford Place, being:—

"All that part of the district rectory of Saint Mary in Saint Marylebone, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, which is comprised within and is bounded by an imaginary line commencing on the boundary which divides such district rectory from the new parish of Saint John, Paddington, in the county and diocese aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the Edgware Road opposite to the middle of the western end of Upper Berkeley Street; and extending thence eastward to and along the middle of such street as far as the point where it is intersected by Adam Street West; and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with the street called Seymour Place; and continuing thence still northward along the middle of the last-named street to the point where it is intersected by Crawford Street; and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with John Street, West; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named street to the said boundary in the middle of the Edgware Road, which divides the said district rectory of Saint Mary, in Saint Marylebone, from the new parish of Saint John, Paddington, as aforesaid; and extending thence south-eastward along the said boundary (following the middle of the said road) to the first-described point opposite to the middle of the western end of Upper Berkeley Street aforesaid where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

No. 1601.

As to the Assignment of a Consolidated Chapelry to the Church of Saint Mark, Woolston, in the County of Southampton and Diocese of Winchester.

Gazetted 14th June 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of June 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourteenth day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mark situate at Woolston, in the parish of Saint Mary-extra-Southampton, in the county of Southampton and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Saint Mary-extra-Southampton and of the parish of Hound in the county and diocese aforesaid which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Saint Mary-extra-Southampton and of the said parish of Hound should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Mark situate at Woolston aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend Charles Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, and of Matilda Amelia Davies, of Itchen Parsonage, in the said county of Southampton, widow, patron of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Saint Mary-extra-Southampton (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), and with the consent of the Warden and Scholars, clerks of Saint Mary's College, of Winchester, near Winchester, in the said county of Southampton, patrons of the vicarage of the said parish of Hound (in testimony whereof they have affixed their common or corporate seal to this representation), we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Saint Mary-extra-Southampton and of the said parish of Hound which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Mark situate at Woolston aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Mark, Woolston.'

"And we further represent, that it has been mutually agreed between the said Matilda Amelia Davies and the said Warden and Scholars, clerks of Saint Mary's College, of Winchester (testified as aforesaid), that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Mark, Woolston, shall belong to and shall be exercised by the said Charles Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, and his successors, bishops of the same see for ever.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Mark, Woolston, being:—

"All that portion of the parish of Saint Mary-extra-Southampton, in the county of Southampton and in the diocese of Winchester, and also all that portion of the parish of Hound, in the same county and diocese, which are respectively comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing on the western boundary of the said parish of Saint Mary-extra-Southampton, in the middle of the River Itchen, at a point in the centre of the track of the steam ferry which connects the town of Southampton with the Portsmouth Road; and extending thence eastward along the said track to its junction with the said Portsmouth Road; and continuing thence eastward along the middle of the same road (crossing the boundary which divides the parish of Saint Mary-extra-Southampton from the parish of Hound aforesaid) as far as a point on the last-described boundary in the centre of the culvert which carries the Portsmouth Road aforesaid over the mill stream which flows from Miller's Pond into the River Itchen; and extending thence first south-westward and then north-westward along the middle of the said mill stream (following thereby in part the said last-mentioned boundary) to the junction of such stream with the said river; and extending thence in a direct line westward to the western boundary of the said parish of Saint Mary-extra-Southampton, in the middle of the River Itchen, as first mentioned; and extending thence northward along the boundary last referred to as far as the point in the track of the steam ferry where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

At the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of June 1864.

PRESENT :

The Queeen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourteenth day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church called Christ Church situate at Denshaw, in the new parish of Saint Thomas, Friar Mere, in the county of York and in the diocese of Manchester.

" Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church called Christ Church, situate at Denshaw aforesaid.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation,) we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Saint Thomas, Friar Mere, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Denshaw.'

" And, with the like consent of the said James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, (testified as aforesaid,) we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

" We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

" The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

" The District Chapelry of Denshaw, being :—

" All that part of the new parish of Saint Thomas, Friar Mere, in the county of York and in the diocese of Manchester, which is situate to the north-west of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said new parish from the new parish of East Crompton, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the Oldham and Ripponden Trust Road near to Grains Bar and opposite to the middle of the south-western end of a certain footpath leading from Grains towards the house called 'Doodle;' and extending thence first eastward to such footpath and then north-eastward along the middle of the said footpath as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-western end of a certain stream that flows down the centre of Rams Clough; and continuing thence still north-eastward to and along the middle of such stream to its junction with the River Tame; and extending thence first northward and then south-eastward along the middle of the said river as far as a point under the centre of the bridge which carries over such river the road leading from Old Tame to New Tame; and continuing thence still south-eastward along the middle of the last-described road to its intersection by the Denshaw and Dobcross branch of the Oldham and Ripponden Trust Road; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named trust road as far as a point in the centre of the culvert which carries such trust road over the stream which flows down the centre of Summer Hill Clough; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said stream to a point on the western side of Slack Gate Lane near to the house called Slack Gate; and continuing thence still north-eastward across the said lane to a point in the middle of the south-western end of a certain road which leads from Slack Gate Lane aforesaid towards Ox Hey Lane and which passes to the east of Broad Meadow; and continuing thence north-eastward along the middle of the same last-described road as far as the junction of such road with an occupation road leading from Ox Hey Lane aforesaid to Lockwood Hey; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said occupation road to its junction (at or near to Broad Meadow Top) with Ox Hey Lane aforesaid; and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-named lane to its junction with the south-western end of Moor Lane ; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named lane to its north-eastern extremity ; and continuing thence first north-eastward and then northward along the middle of the footpath which leads from Moor Lane aforesaid across Castleshaw Moor, past Lower Hind Hill and across Mere Clough Moss, to the junction of such footpath with the Huddersfield and New Hey Trust Road; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named trust road as far as the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Thomas, Friar Mere, from that part of the chapelry of Marsden, in the county of York aforesaid and in the diocese of Ripon, which is situate within the parish of Huddersfield, in the same county of York and diocese of Ripon."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

For making better provision for the Cure of Souls in certain Parishes and Districts.

Gazetted 14th June 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of June 1864.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-first day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

"We humbly recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us out of the Common Fund in the said Acts mentioned, in each and every year to the incumbent for the time being of each of the benefices or districts described in the first schedule hereunto annexed, the annual sum set opposite to the name of each such benefice or district in the last column of the same schedule, by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year ; provided always, that in consideration of the grant so recommended to be made by us to the benefice of Long Eaton, in the county of Derby and in the diocese of Lichfield, the annual sum or stipend of one hundred pounds which, under the provisions of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the seventeenth day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, was made payable by us to the vicar of the then consolidated benefice of Sawley with the chapelry of Long Eaton, in the said county of Derby and diocese of Lichfield, subject to the employment of a duly licensed curate by such vicar, shall, with the consent of the Reverend Samuel Hey, clerk, the present vicar or incumbent of the said vicarage of Sawley, from which the said chapelry of Long Eaton has, since the passing of such last-mentioned Order of Your Majesty in Council, become separated, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, absolutely cease and determine.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the lands and premises and other hereditaments particularly described in the second and three following schedules hereunto annexed respectively, with their appurtenances, now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the several spiritual persons herein-after mentioned respectively, that is to say, that the messuages, lands, hereditaments, and premises described in the first part of the second schedule hereunto annexed, situate at Holloway, in the parish of St. Mary, Islington, in the county of Middlesex and diocese of London, all which were conveyed to us by a deed bearing date the fifth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and made between James Peachey, of No. 17, Salisbury Square, in the city of London, gentleman, of the first part, Alfred Peachey, of the same place, gentleman, of the second part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the third part, which deed is intended to be deposited in the registry of the diocese of Winchester; and also the messuages, lands, hereditaments, and premises described in the second part of the same schedule, situate at Sydenham, in the county of Kent and said diocese of London, all which were conveyed to us by a deed bearing date the sixth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and made between Keturah Tuttiett Bishop, of Ludgate Hill, in the city of London, spinster, of the first part, Alfred Rogers, of Albany Cottage, Upper Sydenham, in the county of Kent, gentleman, of the second part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the third part, which deed is also intended to be deposited in the said registry of the diocese of Winchester; and also the messuages, lands, hereditaments, and premises described in the third part of the same schedule, situate at Holloway, in the parish of Saint Mary, Islington, aforesaid, all which were conveyed to us by a deed bearing date the second day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and made between Frederick Barlow, of Edwardes Square, Kensington, in the county of Middlesex, architect, of the one part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the other part, which lastly-mentioned deed is also intended to be deposited in the said registry of the diocese of Winchester, shall, subject nevertheless to the several indentures of lease, the dates of which with the names of the lessees to whom the same are respectively granted and the rents reserved thereunder are in the said second schedule hereunto annexed set opposite to the description of the hereditaments which are demised by such leases respectively, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of Saint Philip, Lambeth, in the county of Surrey and said diocese of Winchester; that the lands and hereditaments described in the third schedule annexed, situate within the parish of Oving, in the county of Sussex and diocese of Chichester, and now vested in us, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Oving; that the lands and hereditaments described in the fourth schedule hereunto annexed, situate within the parishes of Rhuddlan and Saint Asaph, in the county of Flint and diocese of Saint Asaph, formerly belonging to the chancellorship of the cathedral church of Saint Asaph, and now vested in us, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Rhuddlan; that the messuages, lands, hereditaments, and premises described in the first part of the fifth schedule hereunto annexed, situate at Park Lane, otherwise Marsh Lane, Tottenham, in the county of Middlesex and diocese of London, all which were conveyed to us by a deed bearing date the twelfth day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and made between John Green, of No. 4, Grove Villas, Albion Grove, Stoke Newington, in the same county and diocese, of the one part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the other part, which deed is intended to be deposited in the registry of the diocese of Winchester; and also the messuages, lands, hereditaments, and premises described in the second part of the same schedule, situate at Forest Gate, in the parish of West Ham, in the county of Essex and said diocese of London, all which were likewise conveyed to us by the herein lastly-mentioned deed, shall, subject nevertheless to the several indentures of lease, the dates of which with the names of the parties thereto and the rents reserved thereunder are in the said fifth schedule hereunto annexed set opposite to the description of the hereditaments which are demised by such leases respectively, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of Saint Jude, Southwark, in the county of Surrey and said diocese of Winchester.

"And whereas it appears to us, after duly considering the circumstances of the cases under-mentioned, to be expedient that the grants respectively recommended to be made by us to the benefices of Ebbesborne Wake, Lanchester, and Oving, and to the district of Saint Paul, Wokingham, should commence and take effect from the several dates herein-after mentioned respectively, that is to say, in the case of the perpetual curacy of Ebbesborne Wake, from the first day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three; in the case of the perpetual curacy of Lanchester, from the third day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three; in the case of the vicarage of Oving, from the twenty-ninth day of September in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two; and in the case of the district of Saint Paul, Wokingham, from the twelfth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the several grants herein-before recommended by us to be made to the said last-mentioned benefices respectively shall commence and take effect from the said dates herein-before in that behalf mentioned respectively.

"And whereas, under the provisions of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the third day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, an annual sum or stipend of one hundred and twenty-three pounds was made or intended to be made payable by us to the benefice of All Saints, Chardstock, in the counties of Devon and Dorset and in the diocese of Salisbury, but the said benefice was in such Order of Your Majesty in Council erroneously described to be situate in the counties of Devon and Somerset and in the diocese of Bath and Wells.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that such intended annual grant of one hundred and twenty-three pounds shall, notwithstanding such erroneous description as before mentioned, be confirmed and made payable by us to the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of All Saints, Chardstock, in the counties of Devon and Dorset and in the diocese of Salisbury, as and from the date of the publication in the London Gazette of the lastly-mentioned Order of Your Majesty in Council.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

ARTHUR HELPS.

No. 1605.

For augmenting the Income of the Archdeaconry of Wilts in the Diocese of Salisbury.

Gazetted 14th June 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of June 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and thirteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-first day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Your Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and thirteen, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for augmenting the income of the Archdeaconry of Wilts in the diocese of Salisbury.

"Whereas it was by the said Act enacted, that so soon as conveniently might be, and by the authority therein provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same) any archdeaconry might, subject to the consent of the bishop, be endowed, amongst other modes, by augmentation out of the Common Fund in the same Act mentioned, but not so as to raise the average annual income thereof to an amount exceeding two hundred pounds, with a proviso that no archdeacon should be entitled to hold any endowment or augmentation, or other emolument as such archdeacon, under the provisions of the same Act, unless resident for the space of eight months in every year within the diocese in which his archdeaconry should be situate, but subject to the same provisions as to licences for non-residence which are enacted with respect to incumbents of benefices by the Act relating to pluralities and residence in the same Act mentioned.

"And whereas, by an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the tenth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, and duly gazetted in the London Gazette of the sixteenth day of the same month, it was provided, that with a view to raising the income of the Archdeaconry of Wilts to the annual sum of two hundred pounds an annual sum of one hundred and fifty pounds should be paid by us to the archdeacon for the time being.

"And whereas the amount of the said grant of one hundred and fifty pounds per annum was fixed on the assumption that the average annual income of the said archdeaconry arising from other sources amounted as nearly as might be to the sum of fifty pounds, and it has been made to appear to us that the average net annual income of the said archdeaconry, inclusive of the grant above mentioned, does not now exceed one hundred and eighty pounds.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Walter Kerr, Bishop of Salisbury, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that in addition to the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds in the said recited Order mentioned there shall be paid by us, out of the said Common Fund, to the Honourable and Venerable Charles Amyand Harris, the present Archdeacon of the said Archdeaconry of Wilts, and to his successors in the said archdeaconry, so long as he and they shall respectively hold the same, and shall duly reside in accordance with the provisions of the said first-recited Act, or shall produce to us a licence of non-residence, the further annual sum of twenty pounds on the first day of January in every year, so as to make up the average income of the archdeaconry to two hundred pounds per annum, as contemplated by the said Act, and that the first such increased annual payment of one hundred and seventy pounds shall be made on the first day of January next.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Salisbury.

No. 1606.

For constituting the District of Saint Michael and All Angels, Bromley, in the County of Middlesex and Diocese of London.

Gazetted 14th June 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of June 1864.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

" Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of Saint Leonard, Bromley, herein-after mentioned and described (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship), should be constituted a separate district in manner herein-after set forth.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that all that part of the said parish of Saint Leonard, Bromley, which is described in the schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, be constituted and become and be a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Michael and All Angels, Bromley.'

" And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us in each and every year to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, the sum of two hundred pounds, and that so soon as a church shall have been erected within such district, and shall have been approved by us and consecrated as the church of such district, and for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the said last-mentioned Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us in each and every year to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish, the further sum of one hundred pounds, making in the whole the sum of three hundred pounds, and that the said sums of two hundred pounds or three hundred pounds, as the case may be, shall be paid by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister, or of the consecration and approval of such church as aforesaid, as the case may be ; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount then next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish ; provided always, that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time, that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the minister or perpetual curate of the said district or new parish. or, instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, tithe, or other hereditament, should be conveyed or secured to such minister or perpetual curate and his successors, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.

" And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

" The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing scheme has reference.

" The District of Saint Michael and All Angels, Bromley, being :—

" All that part of the parish of Saint Leonard, Bromley, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, which is situate to the south of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said parish from the parish of All Saints, Poplar, in the same county and diocese, at a point on the southern side of Bow Common Bridge where Upper North Street is intersected by the towing-path on the southern side of the Lea Cut; and extending thence north-eastward to and along the middle of such towing-path passing under the line of the North London Railway as far as the point where Saint Leonard's Road, otherwise called 'Bow Lane,' abuts upon the said towing-path; and extending thence southward and in a direct line to a point in the middle of the said Saint Leonard's Road, otherwise called 'Bow Lane,' aforesaid; and extending thence eastward along the middle of the said road or lane for a distance of one hundred and seventy yards or thereabouts to its junction with the road which leads from Bow to Bromley, and is called in part 'Brunswick Road;' and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-described road for a distance of twenty yards or thereabouts to the boundary which divides certain land and buildings belonging to the Right Honourable Viscount Eversley on the north from certain land and buildings belonging to David McIntosh, of Havering Park, Romford, in the county of Essex, Esquire, on the south; and extending thence first north-eastward and then south-eastward along the said property boundary to a boundary stone inscribed 'B. St. M. and A. A. D. 1864,' and placed on the western bank of Bow Creek; and extending thence in a direct line due east to the boundary in the middle of the said creek which divides the said parish of St. Leonard, Bromley, from the parish of West Ham, in the said county of Essex and in the diocese of London aforesaid."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-before secondly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron of the said parish of Saint Leonard, Bromley (out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken), and such incumbent and patron have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

For authorizing the Sale and Disposal of certain Property formerly belonging to the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Durham.

Gazetted 14th June 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of June 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her

Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Durham, and now vested in us.

"Whereas, under and by virtue of an indenture of lease bearing date the nineteenth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, made or expressed to be made between the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Durham of the one part, and us the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the other part, and by virtue of an order of exchange, under the hands and seal of the Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales, bearing date the twentieth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, the tithe rentcharges arising in the townships of Harton, Claxton, Sandhutton, and Flaxton, in the parish of Bossall and county of York, particularly described in the schedule hereto annexed, became vested in us in possession for a term of years, subject to the rents and conditions in the said lease reserved and contained.

"And whereas by another indenture, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, being a conveyance of the reversionary interest of the said dean and chapter, expectant on the determination of the outstanding term created by the herein-before recited indenture of lease, and made or expressed to be made between the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Durham, of the first part, the Right Honourable Henry Thomas, Earl of Chichester, and the Right Honourable Spencer Horatio Walpole, two of the Church Estates Commissioners duly constituted and appointed under and by virtue of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commisioners for England,' of the second part, and us the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the third part, the tithe rentcharges in question became and are now vested in us absolutely in fee, for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the tithe rentcharges aforesaid, or some part or parts thereof, on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said tithe rentcharges, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund, it is expedient that the same, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such tithe rentcharges, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any part or parts of the said tithe rentcharges so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

No. 1608.

For authorizing the Sale and Disposal of certain Property formerly belonging to the Bishoprick of Ely.

Gazetted 14th June 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of June 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, and of another Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, sections two, three, and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, and of another Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, sections, two, three, and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the bishoprick of Ely and now vested in us.

"Whereas on the vacancy of the said bishoprick, which occurred on or about the seventh day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, by the decease of the Right Reverend Thomas the late Bishop of Ely, all the lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments formerly belonging to the said bishoprick (except rights of patronage and the episcopal houses of residence situate at Ely, in the county of Cambridge, and in Dover Street, in the parish of Saint George, Hanover Square, in the city of Westminster and county of Middlesex), became absolutely vested in us, for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments aforesaid consist, to a considerable extent, of reversions expectant upon grants and leases for lives and years, and produce during the subsistence of such grants and leases only small annual revenues, and on that account, and in some instances on account of the character or situation of the property, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be assigned as an endowment for the said bishoprick or to be held or applied for the other purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by the last mentioned Act power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions or for the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas it is expedient that such of the aforesaid lands tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments lately belonging to the see of Ely (either with or without other property vested in us, as the case may require), as in the judgment of our Estates Committee, and subject to the approbation of the bishop for the time being, shall be deemed convenient to be held as an endowment for the said see, and as will secure a net annual income of five thousand and five hundred pounds, being the income named for the Bishop of Ely and his successors by an Act of the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, being the Act now in force, should be assigned as the endowment of the said see, and that for that purpose, as well as with a view to the more advantageous appropriation of the remainder of the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund, we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, and in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any), to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments heretofore belonging to the said bishoprick of Ely, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Ely.

No. 1609.

Relating to the Endowment of the Archdeaconry of Stafford in the Diocese of Lichfield.

Gazetted 14th June 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of June 1864.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twelfth day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme relating to the endowment of the Archdeaconry of Stafford in the diocese of Lichfield.

" Whereas it was by the said recited Act enacted, that so soon as conveniently might be, and by the authority therein provided (that is to say), by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, any archdeaconry might, subject to the consent of the bishop, be endowed by the annexation, either of an entire canonry, or of a canonry charged with the payment of such portion of its income as should be determined on, towards providing for another archdeacon in the same diocese, or with such last-mentioned portion of the income of a canonry, or by augmentation out of the Common Fund in the same Act mentioned, but not so as to raise the average annual income thereof to an amount exceeding two hundred pounds ; and that no canonry should be so charged with a payment of a portion of the income thereof to any archdeacon, unless the average annual income of such canonry, after payment of such portion as aforesaid should amount to or exceed five hundred pounds, with a proviso that no archdeacon should be entitled to hold any endowment, or augmentation, or other emolument, as such archdeacon, under the provisions of the same Act, unless resident for the space of eight months in every year within the diocese in which his archdeaconry should be situate, but subject to the same provisions as to licences for non-residence which are enacted with respect to incumbents of benefices by the Act relating to pluralities and residence in the same Act mentioned.

"And whereas by two several Orders of Your Majesty in Council, the one bearing date the fourth day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and duly gazetted in the London Gazette of the eleventh day of the same month and year, and the other bearing date the eleventh day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and duly gazetted in the London Gazette of the fifteenth day of the same month and year, it was provided, that until the next vacancy of a canonry in the cathedral church of Lichfield, there should be paid by us, out of the Common Fund, to the Archdeacon of Stafford for the time being the annual sum of one hundred and thirty-two pounds, on the first day of January in every year.

"And whereas a canonry in the said cathedral church of Lichfield has, since the passing of the lastly above-mentioned Order of Your Majesty in Council, become vacant, and the above-mentioned annual grant has therefore ceased to be payable under the provisions of the said recited Orders, but such canonry has not been annexed to the said archdeaconry of Stafford.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Lichfield, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that until the next avoidance of a canonry in the said cathedral church of Lichfield there shall continue to be paid by us, out of the said Common Fund, to the Venerable Henry Moore, the present Archdeacon of Stafford, and to his successors in the said archdeaconry, so long as he and they shall respectively hold the same and shall duly reside within the diocese according to law, or shall obtain licence of non-residence, the said annual sum of one hundred and thirty-two pounds on the first day of January in every year.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the said archdeaconry in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.

For setting out and constituting a District for Spiritual Purposes, and annexing such District to the Church of Saint Thomas, Lower Crumpsall, in the Parish of Manchester, in the County of Lancaster and Diocese of Manchester.

Gazetted 14th June 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of June 1864.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-one, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twelfth day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-one, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for setting out and constituting a district for spiritual purposes, and annexing such district to the consecrated church of Saint Thomas situate at Lower Crumpsall, within the original limits of the parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester.

" Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district for spiritual purposes should be set out and constituted for and annexed to the said church of Saint Thomas situate at Lower Crumpsall aforesaid.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose, that all those several parts of the new parishes of Saint Luke, Cheetham Hill, and Saint Mary, Crumpsall, respectively (which said new parishes were sometime part of the said parish of Manchester), which are described in the schedule hereunder written, and which are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, be severed and disannexed from the said new parishes of Saint Luke, Cheetham Hill, and Saint Mary, Crumpsall, respectively, and shall be set out and constituted for and annexed to the said church of Saint

Thomas situate at Lower Crumpsall aforesaid, and shall become and be a district for spiritual purposes, and shall be named 'The District of Saint Thomas, Lower Crumpsall.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or to any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-named Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Thomas, Lower Crumpsall, being :—

"All that part of the new parish of Saint Luke, Cheetham Hill, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester, which is situate to the north-east of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing such new parish from the new parish of Saint Oswald Collyhurst, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of Crompton's Lane, opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of the bridge over the River Irk which connects Crompton's Lane aforesaid with Smedley Lane ; and extending thence first north-westward to and along the middle of the said bridge and along the middle of the last-named lane, and then westward along the middle of the same lane as far as a point opposite to the middle of the southern end of a certain road which connects Smedley Lane aforesaid with Lower Crumpsall Road, and passes immediately to the south-west of certain farm buildings now in the occupation of Mr. John Appleton ; and extending thence north-westward to and along the middle of such road to its junction with Lower Crumpsall Road aforesaid ; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road as far as a point in the middle of the culvert which carries such road over a certain stream connecting the reservoirs of the Smedley paper mills with the pool which is situate immediately north of Willow House ; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said stream into and along the middle of the said pool to the north-western extremity of the same pool ; and continuing thence still north-westward along the middle of the stream which, flowing from Cheetham Hill, supplies the said pool, as far as the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Luke, Cheetham Hill, from the new parish of Saint Mark, Cheetham Hill, in the county and diocese aforesaid.

"And also all that part of the new parish of Saint Mary, Crumpsall, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester aforesaid which is situate on the southern side of an imaginary line extending north-east and south-west, such imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said last-mentioned new parish from the new parish of Saint Mark, Cheetham Hill, aforesaid, at the point where the Crumpsall Union or Workhouse Road is intersected by a certain footpath leading from Cheetham Hill aforesaid to Tetlow Bridge, such point being situate due south of the southern corner of the boundary wall of the premises belonging to the Crumpsall Union House; and extending thence eastward along the middle of the said footpath to a point in the centre of the aforesaid bridge called Tetlow Bridge which spans the River Irk; and extending thence first northward and then north eastward along the middle of the said river, and then again northward along the middle of the same river as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-western end of a certain branch stream flowing past the eastern side of Moss House into the said river; and extending thence north-eastward to and along the middle of the said branch stream as far as the boundary (near Moss House aforesaid) which divides the said new parish of Saint Mary, Crumpsall, from the new parish of Blackley in the county and diocese aforesaid."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-before firstly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the incumbents and to the patrons of the respective new parishes of Saint Luke, Cheetham Hill, and Saint Mary, Crumpsall, out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken.

And whereas one calendar month has elapsed since drafts of the said scheme were so transmitted as aforesaid, and no objections have been made thereto.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

For authorizing the Sale and Disposal of certain Property situate in the Township of Brynpolin and Parish of Saint Asaph.

Gazetted 14th June 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of June 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council,

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the second day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

"Whereas, under and by virtue of a certain indenture bearing date the fourth day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and made or expressed to be made between the Very Reverend Richard Bonnor Maurice Bonnor, Dean of Saint Asaph, the Reverend William Hicks Owen, Thomas Wynne Edwards, Thomas Brown, and John Sturkey, clerks (vicars of the parish and parish church of Saint Asaph, in the county of Flint), the Reverend William Robert Wyatt, clerk, formerly one of the vicars of the said parish and parish church of Saint Asaph, but then perpetual curate of Moreton, in the county of Salop, trustees of the National Boys' School, at Saint Asaph aforesaid, of the first part, the said Reverend John Sturkey, as the principal officiating minister of the parish of Saint Asaph aforesaid, Honoratus Leigh Thomas, Esq., Brynelwy Robert James Sisson, Esq., Talardy Owen Roberts, M.D., all of Saint Asaph aforesaid, the managers and directors for the time being of the said boys' school at Saint Asaph aforesaid, of the second part, the Right Reverend Father in God, Thomas Vowler, Lord Bishop of Saint Asaph, of the third part, the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Baronet, G.C.B., of 14, Eaton Place, in the county of Middlesex, Secretary of State for the Home Department, of the fourth part, and us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the fifth part, a certain piece or parcel of land with the National Boys' Schoolroom, teachers' house, and outbuildings thereon erected, situate near the River Elwy, in the township of Brynpolin, in the said parish of Saint Asaph, and coloured green on the plan attached to the same indenture, became and is now vested in us in fee simple for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the land, tenements, and hereditaments aforesaid are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant, and are now in possession, but, on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund, it is expedient that the said land, tenements, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time, and from time to time, think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such land, tenements, and hereditaments or in any parts or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said land, tenements, and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Saint Asaph.

For amending an Order in Council, bearing date Twenty-seventh day of July One thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, relating to the Endowment of the College of Saint David at Lampeter.

Gazetted 14th June 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of June 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter eighty-two, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the second day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following ; that is to say :

"Whereas by the said Order it was ordered and declared, that upon Your Majesty being pleased, by a new or supplemental charter, to authorize the principal, tutors, and professors of the said College of Saint David's at Lampeter to accept the endowment in the said Order and herein-after mentioned, subject to such endowment being applied to the purposes and in manner in the said Order specified, and to such further provisions and regulations as Your Majesty might think fit to establish by such charter, there should be paid by us to the said principal, tutors, and professors of the said College of Saint David's at Lampeter out of our Common Fund, in respect of the proceeds of certain lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments vested in us, by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of November and the first day of May in every year, the yearly sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds, until lands, tithes, and other hereditaments producing a net annual income of equivalent amount should be transferred from us to the said principal, tutors, and professors of the said College of Saint David at Lampeter and their successors.

"And whereas the purpose for which the annual payment aforesaid, and the proceeds of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments which may be substituted for the same is to be appropriated, is the provision of two-third parts of the salaries of the principal, vice-principal, and of three of the professors of the said college, the remaining parts of the same salaries being derived from the surplus of the matriculation and other fees payable by the pupils of the said college.

"And whereas it was our intention that the salary of the principal should be fixed at eight hundred pounds, but by an oversight in the engrossment of such scheme such salary was erroneously fixed at seven hundred pounds.

"And whereas the annual sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds, so to be paid by us as aforesaid, is sufficient to provide two-third parts of a salary of eight hundred pounds to the principal of the said College of Saint David at Lampeter without requiring any deduction to be made from the salaries fixed by the said scheme for the vice-principal and other professors of the said college respectively.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the said Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the said scheme may be amended, so that the salary receivable by the principal of the said College of Saint David's at Lampeter, in the county of Cardigan, shall be fixed at eight hundred pounds per annum, in lieu of seven hundred pounds per annum.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measure relating to the endowment of the said College of Saint David at Lampeter in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Saint David's.

for compensating the Incumbent of Saint John, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, in the County of Northumberland and Diocese of Durham, for the loss of certain Fees, Dues, or other Emoluments, which has been occasioned by reason of proceedings under the "New Parishes Acts."

Gazetted 14th June 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of June 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the second day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for compensating the Reverend Henry Wildey Wright, the incumbent of the parochial chapelry of Saint John, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, in the county of Northumberland and in the diocese of Durham, for the loss of certain fees, dues, or other emoluments which has been occasioned to him by reason of proceedings under the said Act.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that the fees, dues, or other emoluments of the said Henry Wildey Wright, as such incumbent as aforesaid, have been diminished by reason of the constitution under the provisions of the said Act of the district of Saint Paul, High Elswick, which district has since become a new parish under the provisions of the same Act, and that the assignment to the said Henry Wildey Wright of the annual sum herein-after mentioned would be a just and reasonable compensation for such diminution.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us to the said Henry Wildey Wright, the incumbent of the parochial chapelry of Saint John, Newcastle-upon-Tyne aforesaid, so long as he shall remain such incumbent and no longer, the annual sum of thirty pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year, by way of compensation for the loss of fees, dues, or other emoluments sustained by him by reason of the formation of the district of Saint Paul, High Elswick, which district has since become a new parish as before-mentioned.

"And we further recommend and propose, that payment of the said annual sum of thirty pounds shall be held to commence as from the thirtieth day of September in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, being the day on which a church provided for the said new parish of Saint Paul, High Elswick, was consecrated, and from which day the incumbent of the same new parish became empowered to perform in the church thereof various offices which had heretofore been performed at the church of the said parochial chapelry of Saint John, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and also became entitled to receive and retain for his own benefit the fees accruing therefrom.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Durham.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of Saint Michael, Tenterden, in the County of Kent and Diocese of Canterbury.

Gazetted 12th July 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of July 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twelfth day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Michael, situate in the parish of Tenterden, in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Canterbury.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Michael situate in the parish of Tenterden aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Charles Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Tenterden which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Michael, Tenterden.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Charles Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Michael, Tenterden, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Tenterden, in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Canterbury, which is situate to the north-east of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said parish from the parish of Woodchurch in the same county and diocese, at the point where the turnpike road leading from Woodchurch to Tenterden passes over Huntbourne Bridge; and extending thence westward along the middle of the said turnpike road as far as a point near the bottom of Clay Hill opposite to the middle of the southern end of a certain lane leading to Brissenden Farm; and extending thence first northward to and along the middle of the said lane, then north-westward, and then north-eastward along the middle of the same lane as far as a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'T. St. M. D. C. 1864, No. 1,' and placed on the western side of the said lane in the middle of the south-eastern end of the fence dividing the close numbered 1527 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Tenterden and upon the map hereunto annexed from the closes numbered respectively 1502 and 1501 upon the same maps; and extending thence north-westward to such boundary stone, and continuing thence in the same direction along the middle of the said fence and of the fence dividing the close numbered 1528 upon the said maps from the closes numbered respectively 1497 and 1498 upon the same maps to the junction of the last-described fence with the fence dividing the close numbered 1531 upon the said maps from the said close numbered 1498 as aforesaid; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-described fence to its junction with the fence dividing the close numbered 1532 upon the said maps from the closes numbered respectively 1495 and 1494 and the wood called Knock Wood and numbered 1405 upon the same maps; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-described fence to a point in the middle of a certain occupation road leading from Knock Farm through Knock Wood, to Tenterden, such point being opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of the said fence; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said occupation road as far as a point in the middle of the fence dividing the said Knock Wood from the closes numbered respectively 1443, 1442, and 1441 upon the said maps; and extending thence, alternately north-westward and north-eastward along the middle of the said fence and along the middle of the fence dividing the close numbered 1414 upon the said maps from the close numbered 1441 as aforesaid to a point in the middle of the lane leading from Knock Wood Farm to Tenterden, opposite to the middle of the north-western end of the last-described fence; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-described lane for a distance of sixty-two yards or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of a certain causeway which leads into the turnpike road leading from Tenterden to Ashford, and which passes between the closes and premises on the north numbered 1416, 1415, and 1429 upon the said maps and the close and premises on the south numbered 1418 upon the same maps; and extending thence north-westward to and along the middle of the said causeway to its junction with the said turnpike road leading from Tenterden to Ashford; and extending thence in a direct line due west across such turnpike road to a boundary stone inscribed 'T. St. M. D. C. 1864, No. 2,' and placed on the western side of the same turnpike road; and extending thence south-westward and in a direct line across the close numbered 649 upon the said maps to the point where the fence dividing such close from the close numbered 659 upon the said maps joins the fence dividing the close numbered 659 as aforesaid from the close numbered 647 upon the same maps; and extending thence first north-westward and then south-westward, along the middle of the said last-described fence, and along the middle of the fence dividing the close numbered 648 upon the said maps from the said close numbered 647 upon the same maps to the junction of the last-described fence with the fence dividing the wood called Home Wood, and numbered 634 upon the said maps, from the closes numbered respectively 647 as aforesaid, 646, and 635 upon the same maps; and continuing thence south-westward along the middle of the last-described fence to a point in the middle of a certain stream which flows from Home Wood to Ashbourne Mill; and continuing thence first south-westward and then westward along the middle of the said stream to its junction, near Brattle Watermill on the northern side of the road leading from Tenterden to Cranbrook, with the waste watercourse of the mill stream which, flowing from Gribble Wood and through the ponds called respectively Great Mill Pond and Town Pond, supplies the said Brattle Watermill; and extending thence northward along the middle of the said waste watercourse to the southern end of Town Pond aforesaid ; and extending thence first westward and then northward; along the southern and western margin of the said pond to its northern extremity; and continuing thence still northward along the middle of the said mill stream, following thereby the western side of the closes numbered respectively 838 and 839 upon the said maps and crossing under the road leading from Brown's Corner towards Cranbook as far as a point in the middle of the same road; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the southern end of the fence dividing the close numbered 843 upon the said maps from the close numbered 1008 upon the same maps; and extending thence northward to and along the middle of the last-described fence to its junction with the western side of Great Mill Pond aforesaid ; and extending thence north-westward along the said western side of the last-named pond to its northern extremity; and continuing thence still north-westward along the middle of the said mill stream (passing the western side of Gribble Wood aforesaid) to the boundary which divides the said parish of Tenterden from the parish of Biddenden, in the county and diocese aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Canterbury.

No. 1615.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of All Saints, Horton, in the Parish of Bradford, in the County of York and Diocese of Ripon.

Gazetted 12th July 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of July 1864.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twelfth day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints situate at Horton, in the parish of Saint Peter, Bradford, in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of All Saints situate at Horton aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Saint Peter, Bradford, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church of All Saints situate at Horton aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of All Saints, Horton.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being ; provided always, that so long as the Reverend John Burnet, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint Peter, Bradford, shall remain such vicar or incumbent, all the said fees shall be paid by the minister of the same church to the said John Burnet.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of All Saints, Horton, being :—

"All that part of the parish of Saint Peter, Bradford, in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon, which is comprised within and is bounded by an imaginary line commencing at the point in the middle of Great Horton Road where the boundary which divides the same parish from the new parish of Saint John, Bradford, in the county and diocese aforesaid, is met by the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Peter, Bradford, from the consolidated chapelry of Saint Andrew, Bradford, in the same county and diocese ; and extending thence south-westward along the last-described boundary following thereby the middle of Great Horton Road aforesaid to the junction (at or near to Primrose Hill) of such boundary with the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Peter, Bradford, from the district chapelry of Great Horton, some time part of the same parish; and continuing thence first south-westward along the last-described boundary and then alternately south-eastward and south-westward along the same boundary to a boundary stone inscribed 'H. A. S. D. C. 1864,' and placed on the northern side of the footway leading from Great Horton to Little Horton Lane; and extending thence first southward to the middle of the said footway and then south-eastward along the middle of the same footway to its junction with Little Horton Lane aforesaid ; and continuing thence still south-eastward across the said lane to a point in the middle of the western extremity of a certain road or street called Park Lane ; and continuing thence still south-eastward along the middle of the said last-named road or street as far as a point opposite to the middle of the north-eastern extremity of Greaves Street ; and extending thence still south-eastward and in a direct line for a distance of two hundred and twenty yards or thereabouts (crossing Hutson Street) to the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Peter, Bradford, from the district chapelry of Saint Stephen, Bowling, some time part of the same parish at a point on the western side of Manchester Road near Albion Mill; and extending thence first eastward along the said boundary to the middle of the said road and then north-eastward along the middle of the same road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of Gate Street ; and extending thence north-westward to and along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Crowther Street; and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named street as far as the point where it is intersected by College Street; and continuing thence still northward across the last-named street and to and along the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Peter, Bradford, from the particular district of Saint James, Bradford, some time part of the same parish, to the point where such boundary diverges to the east at the intersection of Grafton Street by Crowther Street; and continuing thence still northward along the middle of Crowther Street aforesaid as far as the first-described boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Peter, Bradford, from the new parish of Saint John, Bradford aforesaid ; and extending thence first westward then south-eastward, then westward, and lastly north-westward, along the last-mentioned boundary to its junction in the middle of Great Horton Road with the boundary dividing the parish of Saint Peter, Bradford, from the consolidated chapelry of Saint Andrew, Bradford, aforesaid, at which point of junction the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.

ARTHUR HELPS.

No. 1616.

For assigning certain Lands and Hereditaments as the Endowment of the See of Norwich.

Gazetted 12th July 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of July 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, sections two, three, four, and seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twelfth day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures, following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, sections two, three, four, and seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for assigning certain lands and hereditaments as the endowment of the see of Norwich.

"Whereas the Right Reverend John Thomas, Bishop of Norwich, succeeded to the see of Norwich on an avoidance which happened before the passing of the herein-before mentioned Act, and is in receipt of the amount named by Act of Parliament as the income of the Bishop of Norwich, videlicet, four thousand and five hundred pounds per annum; and the said Bishop of Norwich has signified to us his willingness to accept an endowment for his see in lands and hereditaments in lieu of his said income, and that the arrangement herein-after set forth should be made for that purpose.

"And whereas the lands and hereditaments specified and described in the schedule hereto annexed now belong to and are vested in the said bishop and his successors in the said see, and are in the opinion of our Estates Committee convenient to be held as the endowment of the said see of Norwich, and are calculated to secure to the holder thereof, as nearly as may be, (after deducting costs of management,) a net annual income of four thousand and five hundred pounds and no more.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said John Thomas, Bishop of Norwich, testified by his having signed this scheme, and sealed the same with his episcopal seal, we humbly recommend and propose, that upon the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly published Order, the lands, tenements, and hereditaments particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, with their appurtenances, shall be assigned and remain as the endowment for the said see of Norwich, absolutely freed and discharged from all right, title, interest, claim, or demand of or from us, other than such as is created or allowed by the said Act, and shall as from the twenty-fifth day of March last be and remain the endowment for the said see of Norwich as contemplated by the said Act, subject always and nevertheless to the liabilities and charges to which the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments are now specifically liable, to the end that all the lands, hereditaments, and emoluments of or belonging to the said see of Norwich, except such as are so specified and described in the schedule aforesaid, and except also all rights of patronage and presentation, and the residence of the bishop may become vested absolutely in us, under and by virtue of and subject to the provisions of the said herein-before mentioned Act.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid in conformity with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament.

ARTHUR HELPS.

No. 1617.

For constituting the District of Saint Paul, Old Brentford, out of the District Chapelry of Saint George, Old Brentford, and Parish of Saint Mary, Ealing, in the County of Middlesex and Diocese of London.

Gazetted 12th July 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of July 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the district chapelry of Saint George, Old Brentford, sometime part of the parish of Saint Mary, Ealing, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, and out of the said parish of Saint Mary, Ealing.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the portions of the said district chapelry of Saint George, Old Brentford, and of the said parish of Saint Mary, Ealing, which are herein-after mentioned and described, such portions not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship should be constituted a separate district in the manner herein-after set forth.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the said parish of Saint Mary, Ealing, have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein mentioned Acts.

"And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us in each and every year to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the provisions of the herein secondly-mentioned Act, the sum of two hundred pounds, and that so soon as a church shall have been built within such district, and shall have been duly approved by us and consecrated as the church of such district, and for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us in each and every year to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish the further sum of one hundred pounds, making together the annual sum of three hundred pounds, and that the said sums of two hundred pounds and one hundred pounds respectively shall be paid by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, and that the first of each of such respective payments, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or the first day of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister or of the approval and consecration of such church as aforesaid, as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or incumbency of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November the amount next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish; provided always, that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the minister or perpetual curate of the said district or new parish, or, instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, tithe, or other hereditament should be conveyed or secured to such minister or perpetual curate and his successors, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"SCHEDULE.

"The District of Saint Paul, Old Brentford, being:—

"All that portion of the district chapelry of Saint George, Old Brentford, sometime part of the parish of Saint Mary, Ealing, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, and also all that portion of the said parish of Saint Mary, Ealing, which are respectively situate to the west of an imaginary line commencing upon the southern boundary of the said district chapelry at a point in the middle of the River Thames opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of the alley or passage called 'Smith Hill;' and extending thence in a direct line north-westward to and along the middle of such alley or passage to its north-western extremity; and continuing thence still north-westward and in a direct line across the High Street of Old Brentford to a point in the middle of the south-eastern end of Drum Lane; and continuing thence still north-westward along the middle of the said lane, passing over the loop line of the London and South-western Railway, to the junction of such lane with Ealing Lane; and continuing thence in the same direction along the middle of the last-named lane as far as a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'O. B. St. P. D. 1864, No. 1,' and placed on the western side of the said lane, at a point opposite to the south-western corner of the Ealing New Parish Burial Ground; and all which said portions of the district chapelry of Saint George, Old Brentford, and of the parish of Saint Mary, Ealing, aforesaid, are also situate to the south of another imaginary line commencing at the last-described point in the middle of Ealing Lane opposite to the said boundary stone; and extending thence south-westward to the same boundary stone; and continuing thence, still south-westward and in a direct line for a distance of six hundred and sixty-seven yards or thereabouts, across Ealing Park, to another boundary stone inscribed 'O. B. St. P. D. 1864, No. 2,' and placed on the eastern side of Windmill Lane opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of a bridle road called 'The Ride;' and extending thence still south-westward across Windmill Lane aforesaid to and along the middle of the said bridle road called 'The Ride,' to a point on the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Mary, Ealing, from the parochial chapelry or parish of Saint Lawrence, New Brentford, in the county and diocese aforesaid, such point being situate in the middle of Boston Lane opposite to the middle of the south-western end of the bridle road called 'The Ride' aforesaid."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the said secondly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the incumbents and to the patrons of the said district chapelry of Saint George, Old Brentford, and of the said parish of Saint Mary, Ealing (out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken), and the said incumbents and patrons have severally consented to the constitution of such district.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

No. 1618.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of the Holy Trinity, Gateshead, in the County and Diocese of Durham.

Gazetted 12th July 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of July 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following ; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate in the parish of Saint Mary, Gateshead, in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Gateshead, aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Saint Mary, Gateshead, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Gateshead.'

"And with the like consent of the said Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Gateshead, being :—

"All that part of the parish of Saint Mary, Gateshead, in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham, which is comprised within and is bounded by an imaginary line commencing at a point upon the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Mary, Gateshead, from the parish of Saint John, Gateshead Fell, in the same county and diocese, such point being situate in the middle of High Street, Gateshead, opposite to the middle of the northwestern end of the Sunderland Road, and also opposite to the middle of the south-western end of a certain lane leading from High Street aforesaid to Leazes Street; and extending thence north-eastward to and along the middle of the said lane to its junction with Leazes Street aforesaid; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Peareth Street; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Park Lane; and continuing thence still north-westward across such last-named lane to and along the middle of Trinity Street and of East Street as far as a point in the middle of the last-named street opposite to the middle of the eastern end of the footway on the southern side of Easton Street; and extending thence south-westward to and along the middle of the said footway and of the footway and stairs known as 'Crutched Tom's Stairs,' which connect Easton Street with High Street to the western extremity of the said footway and stairs; and continuing thence still south-westward diagonally across High Street aforesaid to a point in the middle of the north-eastern end of Nelson Street; and continuing thence still south-westward along the middle of the last-named street to its western extremity; and extending thence first south-eastward and then south-westward along the middle of the roadway which leads from Nelson Street aforesaid past the eastern and southern sides of the building known as the Dispensary to the junction of the said roadway with West Street; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with the turnpike road leading from Gateshead to Hexham; and continuing thence still south-eastward across the said turnpike road to and along the middle of High West Street as far as a point in the last-named street opposite to the middle of the south-western end of Ann Street; and extending thence north-eastward to and along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with High Street aforesaid; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named street as far as the point (opposite to the middle of the north-western end of the Sunderland Road) at which the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Durham.

No. 1619.

For effecting an Exchange of the Patronage of certain Benefices between the Bishop of London and the Principal and Scholars of the King's Hall and College of Brasenose in the University of Oxford.

Gazetted 12th July 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of July 1864.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter fifty, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the second day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting an exchange of the patronage of certain benefices between the Bishop of London and the Principal and Scholars of the King's Hall and College of Brasenose in the University of Oxford.

"Whereas the said Bishop of London is seised in fee, in right of his see, of the patronage of or perpetual right of nomination to the several benefices specified in the first part of the schedule hereto annexed.

"And whereas the said Principal and Scholars of the King's Hall and College of Brasenose in the University of Oxford are seised in fee of the patronage of or perpetual right of nomination to the several benefices specified in the second part of the said schedule, and have also the right to nominate and present fit clerks to officiate in all churches or chapels which now are or which shall be built within the limits of the said several benefices specified in the said second part of the said schedule.

"And whereas by the third section of the above-recited Act it is enacted that the word 'person' shall include any corporation, and the master, provost, warden, or head of any college or collegiate establishment, and the master, guardian, or head of any hospital, and the governing body respectively entitled in his or their corporate capacity to any such patronage ; and shall also extend to and include the Queen's Majesty, as well in respect of patronage vested or to be vested in or exercised by Her Majesty in right of the Crown, as in right of the Duchy of Lancaster or of the Duchy of Cornwall; and in every case of exchange in right of the Crown, where the benefice is above the yearly value of twenty pounds in the Queen's books, the assent of Her Majesty shall be testified by the signature of the Lord High Treasurer or First Commissioner of the Treasury for the time being; and when such yearly value shall be twenty pounds or under, such assent shall be testified by the signature of the Lord High Chancellor; and the assent of Her Majesty, when the patronage is in respect of the Duchy of Lancaster, shall be testified by the signature of the Chancellor of the Duchy; and when the patronage is in respect of the Duchy of Cornwall, such assent shall be testified by two or more of the principal officers of the said duchy, to be appointed in manner provided for appointment of officers to grant leases under the provisions of an Act passed in the session held in the first and second years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter five, which assent they are hereby authorized and empowered to give; and in every case of exchange in right of the Duchy of Cornwall, when there is a Duke of Cornwall, the assent of the said Duke shall be testified in writing under the privy seal of the said Duke first had and obtained for that purpose.

"And whereas the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, and the Principal and Scholars of the King's Hall and College of Brasenose aforesaid, have signified to us their desire that the patronage of the said several benefices, and the right of nomination to all the churches or chapels herein-before mentioned, may be exchanged as hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas we have made due inquiry and calculation as to the circumstances of the proposed exchange, and the relative values of the said benefices and patronage; and we do hereby certify to Your Majesty, that after making all proper deductions and allowances, the values of the said benefices respectively are as set forth in the two parts of the schedule hereunto annexed.

"Now, therefore, with the assent of the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, as patron in right of his see of the several benefices set forth in the first part of the said schedule, and of the said Principal and Scholars of the King's Hall and College of Brasenose, as patrons of the several benefices set forth in the second part of the said schedule, in testimony whereof the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, has signed and sealed, and the said Principal and Scholars of the said King's Hall and College of Brasenose have sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose, that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the patronage of or perpetual right of nomination to the said several benefices specified in the said first part of the schedule hereto annexed shall be assigned and transferred from the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, and his successors in the said see, and shall become and be vested in and may from time to time be exercised by the said Principal and Scholars of the King's Hall and College of Brasenose and their successors for ever; and that in exchange for the same the patronage of or perpetual right of nomination to the benefices specified in the second part of the said schedule hereto annexed, and the right of nomination and presentation to all churches and chapels which now are or shall hereafter be built within thelimits of the said benefices specified in the said second part of the said schedule shall be assigned and transferred from the said Principal and Scholars of the King's Hall and College of Brasenose and their successors, and shall in like manner become and be vested in and may from time to time be exercised by the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, and his successors in the said see for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament.

No. 1620.

For making better Provision for the Cure of Souls in certain Parishes and Districts.

Gazetted 12th July 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of July 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-third day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"Whereas the several benefactions, consisting of sums of cash or stock which are mentioned in the fourth column of the schedule hereunto annexed, have been paid over or transferred to us in favour of the several benefices set forth in the first column of the same schedule respectively, upon condition that certain annual sums herein-after mentioned shall be paid by us out of our Common Fund, created by the herein firstly mentioned Act, to the incumbents for the time being of the said several benefices respectively; and upon further condition, that in respect of the said benefactions, or such part or parts thereof as shall from time to time remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the incumbents for the time being of the said benefices respectively, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year, the yearly sums respectively specified and set forth in the fifth column of the same schedule, or a proportionate part of each of such annual sums.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered to pay out of the said Common Fund, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year, to the incumbent for the time being of each of the several benefices specified in the first column of the said schedule hereunto annexed respectively, the annual sum set against the name of each such benefice in the sixth column of the same schedule.

"And we further recommend and propose, that if at any time it shall appear to us to be desirable that land, tithe, or other hereditaments should be substituted for such or any of such annual sums, nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution, or from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

ARTHUR HELPS.

No. 1621.

For constituting the District of Saint Martin, Kentish Town, in the Parish of Saint Pancras, in the County of Middlesex and Diocese of London.

Gazetted 12th July 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of July 1864.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the second day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the new parish of Kentish Town, sometime part of the parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, and out of the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Haverstock Hill, also sometime part of the said parish of Saint Pancras.

" Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said new parishes herein-after mentioned and described (such portions not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship) should be constituted a separate district in the manner herein-after set forth.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the said parish of Saint Pancras have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein-mentioned Acts.

"And whereas a sum of four thousand two hundred pounds New Three Pounds per Centum Annuities has been contributed and transferred to our account and into our name in the books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England by John Derby Allcroft, of Porchester Terrace, Bayswater, in the said county of Middlesex, Esquire, in aid of the maintenance of the minister for the time being of the district herein-after recommended to be constituted, and we have, in respect thereof, agreed with the said John Derby Allcroft, and have undertaken to provide and pay, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, to such minister as aforesaid, when duly licensed, the yearly sum of one hundred and twenty-six pounds.

"And whereas the said sum of four thousand two hundred pounds New Three Pounds per Centum Annuities was so contributed and transferred to our account as aforesaid, upon the understanding that the annual sum of twenty-four pounds should be granted and paid by us out of our Common Fund in further augmentation of the maintenance of the minister for the time being of the district herein-after recommmended to be constituted.

"And whereas it has been proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that in consideration of the transfer of the said sum of four thousand two hundred pounds New Three Pounds per Centum Annuities as aforesaid the whole right of patronage of the district herein-after recommended to be constituted and of the nomination of the minister thereof should be assigned to the said John Derby Allcroft, his heirs and assigns, in the manner herein-after recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that all that portion of the said new parish of Kentish Town, and also all that portion of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Haverstock Hill, which are respectively mentioned and described in the schedule hereunder written, and which are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Martin, Kentish Town.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us in each and every year to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed as aforesaid, the sum of twenty-four pounds, by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister as aforesaid ; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry of such district shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount then next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister succeeding to such district ; provided always, that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the minister of the said district, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, tithe, or other hereditament should be conveyed or secured to such minister and his successors, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and become absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said John Derby Allcroft, his heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Martin, Kentish Town, being :—

"All that portion of the new parish of Kentish Town, sometime part of the parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, and also all that portion of the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Haverstock Hill, also sometime part of the said parish of Saint Pancras, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parishes at a point in the middle of Weedington Road ; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of such road to its north-western extremity; and continuing thence still north-westward and in a direct line to a point in the middle of the fence which forms the southern boundary of the close known as 'the Church lands,' belonging to the trustees of the said parish of Saint Pancras, and which is also the northern boundary of a certain brickfield belonging to and in the occupation of George Bassett, of Southampton Street, Fitzroy Square, in the said county of Middlesex, at which said point a boundary stone inscribed 'K. T. St. M. D. 1864, No. 1,' has been placed ; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said fence to a boundary stone inscribed 'K. T. St. M. D. 1864, No. 2,' and placed at or near to the junction of the said fence, with the wall or fence which forms the western boundary of the said close, and which is also the eastern boundary of the gardens at the back of Oakfield Terrace; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-described wall or fence to a boundary stone inscribed 'K. T. St. M. D., 1864, No. 3.,' and placed at or near to the junction of the said last-mentioned wall or fence with the fence which forms the northern boundary of the same close; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-mentioned fence as far as a point in the middle of the gateway at the south-eastern end of a certain road leading from the said close to Lismore Circus; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said road to a point in the middle of its north-western extremity, such point being opposite to the north-eastern angle of the house and garden called 'Ventnor House,' and known also as 'No. 1, Lismore Circus;' and extending thence in a direct line north-westward across the open space which is designed to form the centre of the said circus to a point in the middle of the southern end of the road leading to Heriot Place; and continuing thence still north-westward along the middle of the last described road to its north-western extremity; and continuing thence in the same direction and in a straight line across Mansfield Road to a boundary stone inscribed 'K. T. St. M. D. 1864, No. 4,' and placed on the northern side of the last-named road; and extending thence in a straight line and in a direction due north across a certain close of pasture land belonging to the Earl of Mansfield to a boundary stone inscribed 'K. T. St. M. D., 1864, No. 5,' and placed on the southern side of the line of the Hampstead and North London Junction Railway; and continuing thence, still in the last-mentioned direction across the said line of railway to the fence which forms the northern and eastern boundary thereof; and extending thence first eastward, then south-eastward, and then southward, along the middle of the last described wall or fence (crossing the boundary which divides the new parish of Kentish Town from the new parish of The Holy Trinity, Haverstock Hill, as aforesaid) as far as a point in the middle of the Prince of Wales' Road; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of Weedington Road aforesaid; and extending thence north-westward to and along the middle of the road last referred to as far as the point on the boundary which divides the said new parish of Kentish Town from the new parish of The Holy Trinity, Haverstock Hill, as aforesaid, where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-before secondly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the incumbents, and to the patrons of the said new parish of Kentish Town, and of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Haverstock Hill, out of which new parishes it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such incumbents and patrons have respectively signified their assent to such scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-third day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

"Whereas the several benefactions, consisting of cash or stock, or of land or other hereditaments, which are mentioned in the fourth column of the schedule hereunto annexed, have been paid over to us in favour of or have been otherwise secured to the several benefices set forth in the first column of the same schedule respectively, upon condition that certain capital sums herein-after mentioned should be appropriated by us to the said several benefices respectively.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered to appropriate, out of the Common Fund created by the herein firstly mentioned Act, to each of the several benefices specified in the first column of the said schedule hereunto annexed respectively, the capital sum set against the name of each such benefice in the fifth column of the same schedule, and that such capital sums respectively, or any part or parts thereof, may be paid and applied by us towards the purchase or acquisition for such livings respectively, or any one or more of them, of any land, tithe, or other hereditaments which may appear to us to be suitable for annexation to such benefices respectively, or towards defraying the cost of providing suitable parsonage houses for the same.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

No. 1623.

For making better Provision for the Cure of Souls within the New Parish of All Saints, Bishopsgate, in the City and Diocese of London.

Gazetted 12th July 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of July 1864.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the ninth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter eighty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls within the new parish of All Saints, Bishopsgate, in the city of London and in the diocese of London.

" Whereas the Bishop of the said diocese of London for the time being is in right of his see patron of the perpetual curacy of the said new parish of All Saints, Bishopsgate, and is also in the same right patron of the rectory of the parish of Saint Botolph Without, Bishopsgate, of which last-named parish the said new parish of All Saints, Bishopsgate, heretofore formed part.

" And whereas by an Act passed in the sixth year of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, and entitled ' An Act for extinguishing tithes and customary payments in lieu of tithes within the parish of Saint Botolph Without, Bishopsgate, in the liberties of the city of London, and for making compensation to the rector for the time being in lieu thereof,' it is enacted, that the churchwardens of the said parish for the time being shall from time to time for ever thereafter pay or cause to be paid to the rector for the time being of the said parish, or to such person as he shall appoint to receive the same, the annual sum of money in the said Act mentioned, in lieu, satisfaction, and discharge of all tithes or payment in lieu of tithes to which such rector is entitled or might by law claim as such rector as aforesaid within the same parish.

"And whereas by the same last-mentioned Act it is further enacted, that if at any time after the passing thereof an additional church shall be erected in and for the said parish, then and in such case the rector for the time being of the said parish shall, by and out of the said annual sum by the same Act directed to be paid to him as aforesaid, when and as the same shall from time to time be received by him, pay or cause to be paid to the officiating minister for the time being of such additional church, or to such person as he shall appoint to receive the same, the annual sum of three hundred pounds of lawful money of Great Britain, by equal quarterly payments, as in the same Act is mentioned.

"And whereas by the same last-mentioned Act the said annual sum so directed to be paid to the rector for the time being of the said parish of Saint Botolph Without, Bishopsgate, is subject to revision every ten years in manner provided by such Act.

"And whereas, since the passing of the said last-mentioned Act, an additional church has been erected in the said parish of Saint Botolph Without, Bishopsgate, to wit, the Church of All Saints, Bishopsgate, and the incumbent for the time being of the said new parish of All Saints, Bishopsgate, is accordingly, as the officiating minister for the time being of the said church, entitled to and he receives the said annual sum of three hundred pounds under the herein-before recited provisions of the said last-mentioned Act.

"And whereas the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, the present Bishop of the said diocese of London, has, as such patron as aforesaid of the rectory of the said parish of Saint Botolph Without, Bishopsgate, and of the said new parish of All Saints, Bishopsgate, proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that the present or remaining income of the rector for the time being of the said parish of Saint Botolph Without, Bishopsgate, should be apportioned between such rector and the incumbent for the time being of the said new parish of All Saints, Bishopsgate, in manner herein-after recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Charles Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, and of the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the Reverend William Rogers, clerk, the now rector of the said parish of St. Botolph Without, Bishopsgate (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that the said William Rogers, the present rector of the said parish of Saint Botolph Without, Bishopsgate, and his successors, rectors of the same parish for ever, shall, by and out of such annual sum as may from time to time be payable to him and them under and by virtue of the said herein-before mentioned Act of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, and when and as the same shall from time to time be received by him and them respectively, pay or cause to be paid unto the Reverend Thomas Hugo, clerk, the now incumbent of the said new parish of All Saints, Bishopsgate, and to his successors, incumbents of the same new parish for ever, or to such person as he and they shall from to time appoint to receive the same, the annual sum of two hundred and fifty pounds, part and parcel of such annual sum as may for the time being be payable under and by virtue of the said last-mentiond Act as aforesaid, in addition to and independently of the annual sum of three hundred pounds which is now payable by virtue of the same Act to the said Thomas Hugo, as the officiating minister for the time being of the said church of All Saints, Bishopsgate, such annual sum of two hundred and fifty pounds to be payable and paid by equal quarterly payments on the twenty-fifth day of March, the twenty-fourth day of June, the twenty-ninth day of September, and the twenty-fifth day of December in each and every year, or within twenty-one days next after each quarterly payment of such annual sum as aforesaid shall have been paid to the rector for the time being of the said parish of Saint Botolph Without, Bishopsgate, the same annual payment of two hundred and fifty pounds to accrue and be calculated as from the fourth day of March now last past, being the day upon which the Order of Your Majesty in Council assigning a separate district to the said church of All Saints, Bishopsgate, was published in the London Gazette.

"And, with the same consents, so testified as aforesaid, we further recommend and propose, that all powers and provisoes relating to the said herein-before mentioned annual sum of three hundred pounds, which are contained in the said Act of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, shall (mutatis mutandis) be held to apply to the said annual sum of two hundred and fifty pounds herein-before proposed to be made payable, and shall be of the same force and validity with respect to such last-named sum and every portion thereof as if the same last-named sum had been mentioned in such Act, instead of or in addition to the said sum of three hundred pounds.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the three herein-before first-mentioned Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

Gazetted 12th July 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of July 1864.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-third day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

" Whereas the several benefactions, consisting of sums of cash or stock, or of land, tithe, rentcharges, or other hereditaments, which are mentioned in the fourth column of the schedule hereunto annexed, have been paid over to us in favour of, or have been otherwise secured to, the several benefices set forth in the first column of the same schedule respectively, upon condition that certain capital sums herein-after mentioned should be appropriated by us to the said several benefices respectively, and upon further condition that in respect of such of the said benefactions as consist of cash, or of Government stock, or such part or parts thereof as shall from time to time remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the incumbents for the time being of the said benefices respectively, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year, the yearly sums respectively specified and set forth in the sixth column of the same schedule, or a proportionate part of each of such annual sums.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered to appropriate out of the Common Fund, created by the herein firstly mentioned Act, to each of the several benefices specified in the first column of the said schedule hereunto annexed respectively, the capital sum set against the name of each such benefice in the fifth column of the same schedule, and that such capital sums respectively, or any part or parts thereof, may be paid and applied by us towards the purchase or acquisition for such livings respectively, or any one or more of them, of any land, tithe, or other hereditaments which may appear to us to be suitable for annexation to such benefices respectively, or towards defraying the cost of providing suitable parsonage houses for the same, and that in the meantime there shall be allowed and paid by us, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year, to the incumbents for the time being of the said several benefices respectively, in respect of such capital sums, or of such part or parts thereof as shall remain from time to time unapplied towards such purposes as aforesaid, the several yearly sums specified in the seventh column of the said schedule, and therein set against the names of the said several benefices respectively, or such parts of the said several yearly sums respectively as shall bear a proportion to the parts of the said several capital sums last-mentioned, so remaining unapplied as aforesaid, corresponding with the proportion or proportions which the amounts of the said several yearly payments respectively bear to the amounts of the said respective capital sums so specified in the fifth column as aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

For authorizing the Sale and Disposal of certain Property formerly belonging to the Archdeaconry of Dorset in the Diocese of Salisbury.

Gazetted 12th July 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of July 1864.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixteenth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following ; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the archdeaconry of Dorset in the diocese of Salisbury, and now vested in us.

"Whereas under an Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and another Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and by virtue of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, made under the provisions of the same Acts and bearing date the seventh day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and duly published in the London Gazette on the tenth day of the same month, all lands, tenements, and other hereditaments then belonging to the said archdeaconry of Dorset (except rights of patronage) became absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tenements, and hereditaments aforesaid are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant, but are now in possession, but some portions thereof, on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, all or any of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments heretofore belonging to the said archdeaconry of Dorset, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Salisbury.

For making better Provision for the Cure of Souls in certain Parishes and Districts.

Gazetted 12th July 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of July 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the thirtieth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

"We humbly recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, out of the Common Fund in the said Acts mentioned, in each and every year, to the incumbent for the time being of each of the benefices described in the first schedule hereunto annexed, the annual sum set opposite to the name of each such benefice in the last column of the same schedule, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the lands and hereditaments described in the second schedule hereunto annexed, situate within the parish of Brixworth in the county of Northampton and diocese of Peterborough, with their appurtenances, formerly belonging to the Chancellorship of the Cathedral Church of Salisbury, and now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Brixworth.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the lands and hereditaments described in the third schedule hereunto annexed, with their appurtenances, situate within the parish of Godalming, in the county of Surrey and diocese of Winchester, and now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein, shall, in like manner and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of Farncombe in the same county and diocese.

"And whereas it appears to us, after duly considering the circumstances of the cases under-mentioned, to be expedient that the grants respectively recommended to be made by us to the benefices of Saint Luke, Nutford Place, London, and Salcombe, should commence and take effect from the dates herein-after mentioned, that is to say, in the case of the perpetual curacy of Saint Luke, Nutford Place, London, from the fourteenth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four ; and in the case of the perpetual curacy of Salcombe, from the twenty-sixth day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the several grants herein-before recommended by us to be made to the said last-mentioned benefices respectively shall commence and take effect from the said dates herein-before in that behalf mentioned respectively.

"And we further recommend and propose, that if at any time it shall appear desirable to us that any lands, tithe, or other hereditaments should be substituted for the annual sums herein-before mentioned, or any of them, or any part thereof, nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such substitution, or any other measure relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

No. 1627.

As to the Assignment of a Consolidated Chapelry to the Church of the Holy Trinity, Little Amwell, in the Parish of All Saints, Hertford, in the County of Hertford and Diocese of Rochester.

Gazetted 2nd August 1864.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of July 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-first day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of The Holy Trinity, situate at Little Amwell, in the parish of All Saints, Hertford, in the county of Hertford and in the diocese of Rochester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of All Saints, Hertford, and of the parish of Saint John, Hertford, thereto annexed, and of the parish of Great Amwell, in the county and diocese aforesaid, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parishes of All Saints, Hertford, Saint John, Hertford, and Great Amwell, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of The Holy Trinity situate at Little Amwell aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend Joseph Cotton, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester, of the Right Honourable Richard, Baron Westbury, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, acting on behalf of Your Majesty, as the alternate patron in right of the Crown of the vicarage of the said parish of All Saints, Hertford, and of the rectory of the said parish of Saint John, Hertford, thereto annexed, of the most Honourable John Villiers Stuart, Marquis Townshend, the alternate patron with the Crown of the vicarage and rectory lastly mentioned, of Harriet McNab, of Ware, in the said county of Hertford, widow of Daniel Robert McNab, of Epping, in the county of Essex, surgeon, of Joseph Thomas Humphry, of Princes Square, Bayswater, in the county of Middlesex, barrister-at-law, and of George Murray Humphry, of the town of Cambridge, doctor of medicine, the trustees of the will of the late William McNab, Esquire, deceased, and as such trustees the patrons in trust of the vicarage of the said parish of Great Amwell, and of Harriet Parrott (the wife of the Reverend Richard Parrott, of Great Amwell aforesaid, clerk), being the person entitled under the same will to nominate to the trustees for the time being of such will a vicar or incumbent to hold the vicarage of the said parish of Great Amwell (in testimony of which several consents the said parties herein-before named have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of All Saints, Hertford, of the said parish of Saint John, Hertford, and of the said parish of Great Amwell, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of The Holy Trinity, situate at Little Amwell aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of The Holy Trinity, Little Amwell.'

"And we further represent, that it has been proposed, with the like consents of the said Richard, Baron Westbury (acting on behalf of Your Majesty as aforesaid), John Villiers Stuart, Marquis Townshend, Harriet McNab, Daniel Robert McNab, Joseph Thomas Humphry, George Murray Humphry, and Harriet Parrott (so testified as aforesaid), and it would in our opinion be expedient that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of the said consolidated chapelry of The Holy Trinity, Little Amwell, should belong to and be exercised jointly by the Honourable and Reverend Lowther Barrington, the rector or incumbent of the rectory of the parish of Watton, in the said county of Hertford, by the Reverend Charles Deedes, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Bengeo, in the said county of Hertford, by the Reverend Thomas Woodward, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Thundridge, in the said county of Hertford, and by Robert Cooper Lee Bevan, of Trent Park, in the said county of Middlesex, Esquire, their heirs and assigns.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Little Amwell, being :—

"All those several portions of the liberty of Little Amwell, within the parish of All Saints, Hertford, in the county of Hertford and in the diocese of Rochester, of the parish of Great Amwell in the same county and diocese, and of the parish of Saint John, Hertford, also in the same county and diocese, which are comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said liberty of Little Amwell from the parish of Great Amwell aforesaid at a point in the middle of the road called Walnut Tree Walk ; and extending thence first southward and then alternately south-eastward and south-westward along the said boundary as far as a point in the middle of the road leading from Little Amwell to Amwell ; and extending thence south-westward as far as a point upon the boundary dividing the said parish of Great Amwell from the parish of Saint Margaret, Stanstead, in the same county and diocese, such point being situate at the north-west angle of such boundary, and being also situate at or near to the eastern side of a certain footpath leading from Little Amwell aforesaid to Hailey Bury ; and extending thence south-eastward along the last-named boundary following also mainly the course of the said footpath as far as the point at which the same boundary diverges to the east at or near to the north-eastern corner of a certain occupation road leading from Hailey Lane past the eastern and northern sides of Hailey Bury College into the turnpike road leading from Hertford to London ; and extending thence south-westward and in a direct line to a point in the middle of the said occupation road ; and extending thence westward along the middle of the same road (passing to the north of Hailey Bury College aforesaid) to the junction of such road with the said turnpike road leading from Hertford to London ; and extending thence first south-eastward, then southward, and then again south-eastward along the middle of the same turnpike road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of a certain occupation road leading from such turnpike road to Box Wood ; and extending thence south-westward to a point (in the middle of the north-eastern end of the said occupation road) upon the boundary dividing the said parish of Great Amwell from the consolidated chapelry district of Hoddesdon in the same county and diocese ; and extending thence first north-westward and then south-westward along the last-described boundary to its junction (in the middle of Elbow Lane, near to the homestead called or known as the Keeper's House,) with the boundary dividing the said parish of Great Amwell from the parish of Saint John, Hertford, aforesaid ; and extending thence northward along the last-described boundary (which follows at first the middle and afterwards the western side of the said lane) to the junction of the same boundary with the boundary dividing the liberty of Little Amwell aforesaid from the said parish of Saint John, Hertford, such point of junction being situate at or near to the junction of Elbow Lane aforesaid with the turnpike road leading from Hertford to London before mentioned ; and continuing thence still northward along the last-described boundary (following the western side of the said turnpike road) to the point at which such boundary turns north-eastward across such turnpike road ; and extending thence north-eastward along the same boundary as far as the middle of the same turnpike road ; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the same turnpike road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-western end of a certain occupation road connecting such turnpike road with Gallows Lane ; and extending thence first eastward and then north-eastward to and along the middle of the said occupation road as far as a point upon the boundary dividing a certain detached portion of the said parish of Great Amwell from the parish of Saint John, Hertford, aforesaid ; and extending thence first northward (crossing Gallows Lane aforesaid) and then north-eastward along the last-described boundary to its junction with the boundary dividing the same detached portion of the said parish of Great Amwell from the liberty of Little Amwell aforesaid ; and extending thence south-eastward along the last-described boundary as far as a point in the middle of Gallows Lane aforesaid ; and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-named lane to a point opposite to the middle of the south-western end of the road called Walnut Tree Walk aforesaid ; and extending thence north-eastward to and along the middle of the last-named road as far as the point upon the boundary dividing the said liberty of Little Amwell from the parish of Great Amwell aforesaid, where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Rochester.

As to the Assignment of a Consolidated Chapelry to the Church of All Saints, Rhodes, in the Parish of Middleton, in the County of Lancaster and Diocese of Manchester.

Gazetted 2nd August 1864.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of July 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twelfth day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints situate at Rhodes in the parish of Middleton, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Middleton and of the parish of Prestwich, in the county and diocese aforesaid, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parishes of Middleton and Prestwich should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of All Saints situate at Rhodes aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, of William Wagstaff, of Rhûg, near Corwen, in the county of Merioneth, Esquire, the patron of the rectory of the said parish of Middleton, and of the Right Honourable Thomas, Earl of Wilton, the patron of the rectory of the said parish of Prestwich (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Middleton and of the said parish of Prestwich which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of All Saints situate at Rhodes aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Rhodes.'

"And we further represent, that it has been proposed, with the like consents of the said William Wagstaff and Thomas, Earl of Wilton (so testified as aforesaid), and it would in our opinion be expedient that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of the said consolidated chapelry of Rhodes should belong to and be exercised by the rector or incumbent for the time being of the said parish of Middleton.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Rhodes, being :—

"All that portion of the parish of Middleton, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester, and also all that portion of the parish of Prestwich in the same county and diocese, which are bounded on the north by the consolidated chapelry district of Saint Mary, Birch, in the said county and diocese; on the east by the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Parkfield in Middleton, in the same county and diocese; on the south by the new parishes of Tonge-cum-Alkrington, and of Saint Peter, Blackley, both in the county and diocese aforesaid; and on the west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said parish of Middleton from the consolidated chapelry district of Saint Mary, Birch, aforesaid, at a point near Bow Lee, upon the eastern side of the Manchester and Heywood Trust Road, such point being situate at a distance of seventy-five yards or thereabouts to the north of the milestone indicating five and a half miles from Manchester; and extending thence first westward in a direct line to a point in the middle of the said trust road and thence south-eastward along the middle of the same road to its junction with the Rochdale and Manchester Trust Road; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named trust road for a distance of one hundred and fifty-four yards or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of the north-western end of a certain occupation road leading to Lands End Bleach Works; and extending thence south-eastward to and along the middle of such occupation road to its south-eastern termination; and continuing thence in a direct line still south-eastward to and across the River Irk to the boundary on the southern bank of the same river which divides the said parish of Prestwich from the new parish of Saint Peter, Blackley, aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

No. 1629.

For altering the Boundaries of the Consolidated Chapelry or New Parish of Hounslow, in the County of Middlesex and Diocese of London.

Gazetted 2nd August 1864.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of July 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the second day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation for altering the boundaries of the consolidated chapelry or new parish of Hounslow, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order in Council of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, bearing date the twenty-second day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, and published in the London Gazette upon the sixteenth day of February in the following year, certain contiguous portions of the parish of Heston, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and of the parish of Isleworth, in the same county and diocese, were formed into a consolidated chapelry, and were assigned to a consecrated church situate at Hounslow, in the said parish of Heston, and such consolidated chapelry was called 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Hounslow.'

"And whereas the said consolidated chapelry of Hounslow is reputed to have become, under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, a new parish of the character contemplated by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven.

"And whereas it has been proposed to us, and it has been made to appear to us to be expedient, that the boundaries of the said consolidated chapelry or new parish of Hounslow should be altered in the manner herein-after described.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, the Bishop of the said diocese of London, and the patron, in right of his see, both of the vicarage of the said parish of Heston and of the perpetual curacy of the said consolidated chapelry or new parish of Hounslow, of the Reverend Edward Spooner, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Heston, of the Reverend Edward East, the incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the said consolidated chapelry or new parish of Hounslow, and of the Reverend Henry William Perry Richards, the vicar or inbumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Isleworth (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), and with the consent of the Dean and Canons of the Queen's Free Chapel of Saint George within her Castle of Windsor, the patrons of the vicarage of the said parish of Isleworth (testified by their having affixed their common or capitular seal to this representation), we humbly represent, that in our opinion it would be expedient that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this representation, the boundaries of the said consolidated chapelry or new parish of Hounslow should be altered so as to dissever therefrom all that portion thereof which is described in the schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured green, and which heretofore formed part of the said parish of Heston, and that all the said portion of the consolidated chapelry or new parish of Hounslow aforesaid so to be dissevered therefrom as last proposed, should be re-annexed to and should again form part of the said parish of Heston.

"And we humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto, as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"Territory proposed to be re-annexed to the Parish of Heston, being :—

"So much of that portion of the consolidated chapelry or new parish of Hounslow, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, which was heretofore part of the parish of Heston, in the same county and diocese as lies to the west of an imaginary line commencing at a point in the middle of the high road leading from Staines to London, opposite to the middle of the southern end of Wellington Lane ; and extending thence northward to and along the middle of such lane as far as the boundary which at present divides the said consolidated chapelry or new parish from the said parish of Heston at a point opposite to the middle of the eastern end of the road known as the 'Sixth Private Road' or Green Lane."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

No. 1630.

For making better Provision for the Cure of Souls in certain Parishes and Districts.

Gazetted 2nd August 1864.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of July 1864.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the ninth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

"We humbly recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, out of the Common Fund in the said Acts mentioned, in each and every year, to the incumbent for the time being of each of the benefices described in the first schedule hereunto annexed, the annual sum set opposite to the name of each such benefice in the last column of the same schedule, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year.

"Provided always, that the grants so recommended to be made by us to the benefices of Saint Stephen, Spitalfields, Holy Trinity, Stockton-on-Tees, and East Stoke with Syerston and Elston, shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or before the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, of certificates under the hand of the bishops of the respective dioceses, that a curate duly licensed by such bishop has in each instance been employed within the parish or district during the preceding half year ; and provided also, that with regard to the payment of a portion, amounting to one hundred pounds, of the grant so recommended to be made by us to the benefice of Yetminster with Chetnole, a like certificate be required that a curate has been duly employed at Chetnole.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes described in the second schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate within the parish of Llanarmon yn Yâl, in the counties of Denbigh and Flint and diocese of Saint Asaph, with their appurtenances, formerly belonging to the sinecure rectory of Llanarmon yn Yâl, and now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Llanarmon yn Yâl.

"And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Reverend John Owen, clerk, the perpetual curate or incumbent of the perpetual curacy of Erryrys, in the said counties of Denbigh and Flint and diocese of Saint Asaph, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that the tithes, or rentcharges in lieu of tithes, described in the third schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate within the said parish of Llanarmon yn Yâl, with their appurtenances, formerly belonging to the said sinecure rectory of Llanarmon yn Yâl, and now vested in us, shall, in like manner and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of Erryrys, in lieu of and in full substitution for and discharge of the annual sum or stipend of one hundred and fifty pounds now payable by us to the same perpetual curate or incumbent, under the provisions of an Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the eleventh day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

"And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Reverend Frederick Harvey Freeth, clerk, the perpetual curate or incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the parish of Lyss, in the county of Southampton and diocese of Winchester, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes described in the fourth schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate within the said parish of Lyss, with their appurtenances, formerly belonging to the Chancellorship of the Cathedral Church of Salisbury, and now vested in us, shall, in like manner and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Lyss, in lieu of and in full substitution for and discharge of the stipend or customary payment heretofore payable and made by us to the said perpetual curate or incumbent in respect of the estates formerly belonging to the said Chancellorship of Salisbury Cathedral, and also in lieu of and full substitution for and discharge of the annual sum or stipend of four pounds heretofore payable by us to the same perpetual curate or incumbent, under the provisions of an Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the twenty-seventh day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven ; provided always, that the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes to be so vested as last-mentioned shall be charged and chargeable at all times for ever hereafter in exoneration of all or any other hereditaments formerly belonging to the said chancellorship, with the liability to repair and maintain the chancel of the parish church of Lyss.

" And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Reverend Thomas Bennett Round, clerk, the perpetual curate or incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the parish of Rotherwick, in the said county of Southampton and diocese of Winchester, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes described in the fifth schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate within the said parish of Rotherwick, with their appurtenances, formerly belonging to the said chancellorship of the Cathedral Church of Salisbury, and now vested in us, shall, in like manner and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Rotherwick, in lieu of and in full substitution for and discharge of the stipend or customary payment heretofore payable and made by us to the said perpetual curate or incumbent, in respect of the estates formerly belonging to the said Chancellorship of Salisbury Cathedral; provided always, that the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes, to be so vested as last-mentioned, shall be charged and chargeable at all times for ever hereafter in exoneration of all or any other hereditaments formerly belonging to the said chancellorship, with the liability to repair and maintain the chancel of the parish church of Rotherwick.

" And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Reverend George Edward Smith, clerk, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Owston in the county and diocese of Lincoln (testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme), that the lands and hereditaments described in the first part of the sixth schedule hereunto annexed, situate within the said parish of Owston, with their appurtenances, all which hereditaments and premises were conveyed to us by a deed, bearing date the tenth day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and made between Richard Dawson, late of Epworth in the county of Lincoln, but now of Elm Field House in the borough of Kingston-upon-Hull, gentleman, of the first part; Godfrey Hudson, of Sandtoft, in the parish of Belton, in the said county of Lincoln, farmer, of the second part; the said Richard Dawson of the third part; George Fish, of Owston aforesaid, farmer, of the fourth part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the fifth part, which deed is intended to be deposited in the registry of the said diocese of Lincoln ; and also the lands and hereditaments described in the second part of the same schedule, likewise situate within the said parish of Owston, with their appurtenances, all which said last-mentioned hereditaments and premises were conveyed to us by a deed bearing date the eleventh day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and made between Charles Barningham, of Ferry in the said parish of Owston, stonemason, of the first part, the said Reverend George Edward Smith, of Owston aforesaid, clerk, of the second part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the third part, which said last-mentioned deed is also intended to be deposited in the said registry of the diocese of Lincoln, and all our estate and interest therein shall, in like manner and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Owston, in lieu of and in full substitution for and discharge of the annual sum or stipend of thirty-nine pounds, payable by us to the same vicar or incumbent, under the provisions of an Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the twenty-second day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine.

"And whereas it appears to us, after duly considering the circumstances of the cases under-mentioned, to be expedient that the grants respectively recommended to be made by us to the benefices of Balderton, Camden Town, Farndon, Lyss, Milnrow, and Rotherwick, should commence and take effect from the dates herein-after mentioned respectively, that is to say, in the case of the vicarage of Balderton, from the fourth day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four; in the case of the perpetual curacy of Camden Town, from the twentieth day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three; in the case of the vicarage of Farndon, from the eighteenth day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four; in the case of the perpetual curacy of Lyss, from the twenty-fifth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three; in the case of the perpetual curacy of Milnrow, from the first day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two; and in the case of the perpetual curacy of Rotherwick, from the twenty-second day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the several grants herein-before recommended by us to be made to the said last-mentioned benefices respectively shall commence and take effect from the said dates herein-before in that behalf mentioned respectively.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"Sixth Schedule.

"First Part.

"All those three several closes, pieces, or parcels of land or ground situate, lying, and being within the parish of Owston, in the county of Lincoln, commonly called or known by the name of Hopyard Closes, containing by estimation ten acres one rood and three perches (more or less), heretofore described as one close, and containing nine acres three roods and three perches, and formerly divided into three several inclosures of three acres two roods and nineteen perches, four acres two roods and twenty perches, and one acre two roods (more or less), which said several closes, pieces, or parcels of land were formerly in the occupation of Robert Laughton, and afterwards of William Laughton, since of John Till, afterwards of Moses Till, and now in the possession of the said George Fish, and are bounded by Owston Ings and lands of Isaac Chapman and William Rayner and John Chapman, on or towards the east; by lands of Earl Beauchamp, Robert Popplewell Johnson, and William Skipworth, theretofore belonging to Mr. Robert Pindar and the heirs of John Stanhope, Esq., on or towards the west; by the said lands of the said William Skipworth on or towards the north; and by lands of Edward Briggs, and the said lands of Earl Beauchamp on or towards the south.

"Second Part.

"All that close, piece, or parcel of land situate and being at Owston, in the county of Lincoln, called the Houp Close, formerly estimated to contain three acres two roods and thirty-four perches (were the same more or less), but now estimated at three acres three roods and twenty-nine perches, as the same is bounded by land of William Davey on the east; late of Miss Lazonby, but now of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, on the west; of William Rayner and the said William Davey, respectively, on the north; and by the next described close on the south, and numbered 595 on the tithe commutation plan for the parish of Owston aforesaid; and also all that other close, piece, or parcel of land situate and being at Owston aforesaid, called the New Close, formerly estimated to contain six acres and twenty-five perches (were the same more or less), but now estimated at six acres two roods and twenty-eight perches, as the same is bounded by land of the said William Davey on the east; of Edward Briggs on the west; the last-described close of land on the north; and by Burnham Road on the south, and numbered 598 on the tithe commutation plan for the said parish of Owston, and which said closes, pieces, or parcels of land are now or were late in the occupation of the said William Rayner."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the respective Registrars of the several dioceses of Canterbury, London, Durham, Winchester, Saint Asaph, Bath and Wells, Saint David's, Lincoln, Llandaff, Manchester, Ripon, and Salisbury.

No. 1631.

For making better Provision for the Cure of Souls in the Parish of Husthwaite, in the County and Diocese of York.

Gazetted 2nd August 1864.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of July 1864.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the ninth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following ; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in the parish of Husthwaite, in the county of York and in the diocese of York.

"Whereas by virtue of and under the provisions of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and made under the provisions of the Act of the first and second years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and six, and of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-eight, the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Husthwaite, and the perpetual curacy of the parish of Birdforth, in the said county of York and diocese of York, will, upon the next avoidance of either of the said perpetual curacies, become united into one benefice, with cure of souls, for ecclesiastical purposes only.

"And whereas it was by the same Order directed that the patrons for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of Husthwaite, and the patron for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of Birdforth, should present or nominate to such benefice alternately for ever, the patron of the said perpetual curacy of Birdforth being entitled to present or nominate for the first turn after the said union should be fully perfected.

"And whereas the patronage of the said perpetual curacy of the said parish of Husthwaite, and the right of nominating the minister or incumbent of the church of the same parish is now vested in the Master, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity within the town and University of Cambridge, of King Henry the Eighth's foundation, commonly and herein-after called Trinity College, Cambridge, subject to the provisions of the said Order of Your Majesty in Council, and the patronage of the said perpetual curacy of the said parish of Birdforth, and the right of nominating the minister or incumbent of the church of the same parish is now vested in the Archbishop of York for the time being, subject to the provisions of the same Order of Your Majesty in Council.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us, that the said perpetual curacy of the said parish of Husthwaite is insufficiently endowed, and that it is desirable that some additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the limits of the same parish.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the said parish of Husthwaite have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein-before firstly and secondly mentioned Acts.

"And whereas the said Master, Fellows, and Scholars of Trinity College, Cambridge, are willing that the patronage of the said perpetual curacy of the said parish of Husthwaite, and the right of nominating the minister or incumbent of the church of the same parish now so vested in them as aforesaid, and also the alternate patronage of the said perpetual curacies of the said parishes of Husthwaite and Birdforth, when so united together into one benefice as aforesaid, and the alternate right so vested by the herein-before mentioned Order as aforesaid in the patrons for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of Husthwaite to present or nominate to such benefice should be transferred and vested in manner herein-after recommended and proposed, upon the understanding that the income of the said perpetual curacy of the said parish of Husthwaite be augmented by us in manner herein-after mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William, Archbishop of York, and of the said Master, Fellows, and Scholars of Trinity College, Cambridge, in testimony whereof the said William, Archbishop of York, has hereunto affixed his signature and seal, and the said Master, Fellows, and Scholars have hereunto also affixed their common or corporate seal, we humbly recommend and propose, that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such Order, the patronage of the said perpetual curacy of the said parish of Husthwaite, and the right of nominating the minister or incumbent of the same parish now as aforesaid vested in the said Master, Fellows, and Scholars of Trinity College, Cambridge, subject to the provisions of the said herein-before mentioned Order of Your Majesty in Council, shall, subject to the same provisions, be transferred to and absolutely vested in the said William, Archbishop of York, and his successors, Archbishops of the same see, so that the right (now by the same Order vested in them, the said Master, Fellows, and Scholars as patrons for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of Husthwaite) to present or nominate to the benefice formed or to be formed by the union as aforesaid of the said perpetual curacies of the said parishes of Husthwaite and Birdforth alternately with the patron for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of Birdforth, shall henceforth and hereafter be and remain vested in the said William, Archbishop of York, and his successors, Archbishops of the same see for ever, in such manner that he and they shall from the day aforesaid become and be sole patron and patrons of such benefice.

"And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us to the incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of the said parish of Husthwaite, until the union herein-before mentioned shall have been completed, and thenceforth to the incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of the said united benefice of Husthwaite and Birdforth, the annual sum of one hundred pounds by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year, and that the first such half-yearly payment shall be made on the first day of November next ensuing after the day of the date of this scheme; provided always, that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the incumbent of the said perpetual curacy of the said parish of Husthwaite or to the incumbent of the said perpetual curacy of the said united benefice of Husthwaite and Birdforth, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, tithe, or other hereditament, should be conveyed and secured to such incumbent and his successors in fee, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of York.

For effecting an Exchange of the Patronage of the Vicarage of Duffield, in the County of Derby and Diocese of Lichfield, for the Patronage of the Perpetual Curacy of Stone, in the County of Stafford and Diocese of Lichfield.

Gazetted 2nd August 1864.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle Wight, the 28th day of July 1864.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the ninth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting an exchange of the patronage of the vicarage of Duffield, in the county of Derby and diocese of Lichfield, for the patronage of the perpetual curacy of Stone, in the county of Stafford and diocese of Lichfield.

" Whereas the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Lichfield, is seised in fee, in right of his see, of the patronage of or perpetual right of nomination to the said vicarage of Duffield.

" And whereas Rowland Smith, of Duffield Hall, in the county of Derby, Esquire, is seised in fee of the patronage of or perpetual right of nomination to the said perpetual curacy of Stone.

" And whereas the said John, Bishop of Lichfield, and the said Rowland Smith, have signified to us their desire that the patronage of the said benefices may be exchanged as herein-after recommended and proposed.

" And whereas we have made due inquiry and calculation as to the circumstances and relative values of the said benefices and patronage, and we do hereby certify to Your Majesty that after making all proper deductions and allowances, the circumstances and values of the said benefices respectively are as set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the said John, Bishop of Lichfield, and of the said Rowland Smith (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the patronage of or perpetual right of nomination to the said vicarage of Duffield, with the appurtenances, shall be assigned and transferred from the said John, Bishop of Lichfield, and shall become and be vested in and shall and may be exercised by the said Rowland Smith, his heirs and assigns for ever; and that, in exchange for the same, the patronage of or perpetual right of nomination to the said perpetual curacy of Stone shall in like manner be assigned and transferred from the said Rowland Smith and his heirs, and shall become and be vested in and shall and may be exercised by the said John, Bishop of Lichfield, and his successors in the said see for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament.

Gazetted 2nd August 1864.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of July 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and thirteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventh day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Your Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and thirteen, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for augmenting the income of the Archdeaconry of Leicester, in the diocese of Peterborough.

"Whereas it was by the said Act enacted, that so soon as conveniently might be, and by the authority therein provided (that is to say), by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, any archdeaconry might, subject to the consent of the Bishop, be endowed by the annexation either of an entire canonry or of a canonry charged with the payment of such portion of its income as should be determined on towards providing for another archdeacon in the same diocese, or with such last-mentioned portion of the income of a canonry, or by augmentation out of the Common Fund in the same Act mentioned, but not so as to raise the average annual income thereof to an amount exceeding two hundred pounds; and that no canonry should be so charged with a payment of a portion of the income thereof to any archdeacon, unless the average annual income of such canonry, after payment of such portion as aforesaid, should amount to or exceed five hundred pounds, with a proviso that no archdeacon should be entitled to hold any endowment or augmentation or other emolument as such archdeacon, under the provisions of the same Act, unless resident for the space of eight months in every year within the diocese in which his archdeaconry should be situate, but subject to the same provisions as to licences for non-residence which are enacted with respect to incumbents of benefices by the Act relating to pluralities and residence in the same Act mentioned.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the net average annual income of the said archdeaconry does not exceed one hundred and sixty-two pounds.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Francis, Bishop of Peterborough, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose, that until the Archdeaconry of Leicester shall have been endowed by the annexation thereto of a canonry in the cathedral church of Peterborough there shall be paid by us, out of our said Common Fund, to the Venerable Henry Fearon, the present archdeacon of the said archdeaconry, and to his successors in the same archdeaconry, so long as he and they shall respectively hold the same, and shall duly reside, in accordance with the provisions of the said first-recited Act, the annual sum of thirty-eight pounds on the first day of January in every year; and every such whole yearly payment shall be made only on production to us of a certificate, under the hand of the bishop of the diocese for the time being that the said Henry Fearon, or his successor, for the time being in the said archdeaconry, has duly resided as aforesaid during the preceding year, or on the production to us of a licence of non-residence, and that the first such yearly payment shall be made on the first day of January next.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Peterborough.

For adding to and improving the Episcopal House of Residence in the City of Gloucester belonging to the Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol.

Gazetted 2nd August 1864.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of July 1864.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty, chapter twenty-six, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventh day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following ; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of Your Majesty, chapter twenty-six, duly prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for adding to and improving the episcopal house of residence in the city of Gloucester belonging to the Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol.

"Whereas it has been represented to us by the Right Reverend Charles John, Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, that the episcopal house of residence at Gloucester aforesaid requires certain additions and improvements to be made therein, in order to render it suitable and convenient, and it has been proposed to us by the said bishop, and it appears to us to be expedient, that towards defraying the cost of effecting such additions and improvements, a sum of nine hundred pounds, being a sum not exceeding two years' income of the see, should be provided by borrowing the same by way of mortgage upon the security of all or any part of the endowments of or belonging to the bishoprick.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Charles John, Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that the said bishop be authorized to borrow from the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and that the said governors be empowered to lend, under the provisions of the above-mentioned Acts, the sum of nine hundred pounds ; and as a security for the same, that the said bishop do mortgage all or any part of the endowments now belonging or which hereafter may belong to his said see, to the said governors by deed, for the term of thirty-five years, or until the said sum of nine hundred pounds, with the interest for the same, and all costs and charges which may attend the recovery thereof, shall be fully paid and satisfied; and that such principal sum shall be repaid, with interest, in manner following, that is to say, from and after the expiration of the first year of the said term, computed from the day of the date of the mortgage, in which year no part of the said principal sum shall be repayable, the said bishop, or his successors, shall yearly and every year pay to the said governors, their successors or assigns, one thirtieth part of the said principal sum, until the whole thereof shall be repaid; and shall, at the end of the first and each succeeding year, pay interest at the rate of four pounds per centum per annum on the said principal sum, or on so much thereof as shall from time to time remain unpaid; and if and when it shall happen that the principal and interest directed to be paid as herein-before mentioned shall be in arrear and unpaid for the space of forty days after the same shall have become due, it shall and may be lawful for the said governors, their successors, and assigns, to recover the same, and the costs and charges attending the recovery thereof, by distress and sale, in the like manner as rents may be recovered by landlords or lessors from their tenants, by the laws in force at the time of such distress and sale; and that such mortgage deed shall be in the form and to the effect to be approved by us, and shall bind as well the said Charles John, Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, as every succeeding bishop of the said see, until the principal money and interest, costs and charges, shall have been paid off and discharged.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the said sum of nine hundred pounds shall be paid to us, and that the receipt of our joint treasurers for the time being endorsed on the said mortgage deed shall be a good and sufficient discharge to the said governors and their successors for the same, who shall not be bound or required to see to the application thereof; and that upon the receipt of the said sum of nine hundred pounds, the whole, or any part or parts thereof, shall be applied by us at such times and in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient towards effecting the said additions and improvements in the episcopal house of residence aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose, that so soon as such additions and improvements shall have been completed, the Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol for the time being shall, at his personal charge and expense, insure and keep insured the said episcopal house of residence from loss or damage by fire, in one of the public offices of assurance in London or Westminster to be approved by us, in a sum of not less than seven thousand pounds, and that such bishop shall, within fourteen days after any premium for such insurance shall have become due and payable, deliver to us the receipt for the same; and that in case of any loss or damage by fire to the said house any and every sum of money receivable under such insurance shall become and be payable and be paid to and deposited with us in trust to be applied, and the same, together with any interest and accumulations thereof, shall be applied by us towards the rebuilding or repairing and reinstating of the said house, or of any part thereof which may have so suffered loss or damage, in such manner as shall be determined on by us with the concurrence of the Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol for the time being.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the herein-named Acts or of any other Act of Parliament.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the respective Registrars of the two several registries of the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, at Bristol and Gloucester.

No. 1635.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church situate at Riverhead in the Parish of Sevenoaks in the County of Kent and Diocese of Canterbury.

Gazetted 2nd August 1864.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of July 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before

Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the seventh day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church situate at Riverhead, in the parish of Sevenoaks, in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Canterbury.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church situate at Riverhead aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Charles Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Sevenoaks which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Riverhead.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Charles Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published and that marriages, baptisms, churchings and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being; provided always, that so long as the Reverend Henry Francis Sidebottom, the present rector or incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Sevenoaks, shall continue to be such rector or incumbent, all the said fees shall be paid by the minister aforesaid to the said Henry Francis Sidebottom.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Riverhead, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Sevenoaks, in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Canterbury, which is situate to the west of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing such parish from the parish of Otford, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of the turnpike road leading from Dartford to Sevenoaks ; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said road as far as the centre of the bridge which carries such road over the line of the Sevenoaks Railway Extension to Tub's Hill ; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said line of railway as far as a point near Tub's Hill, under the centre of the bridge which carries the road leading from Sevenoaks to Riverhead over the same line of railway ; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-described road to its junction with a certain other road leading from Riverhead, past Britton's Farm and past the house called the Cross Keys, towards Sevenoaks Common ; and extending thence mainly southward along the middle of the last-described road to its intersection at or near to the said house called the Cross Keys by the road leading from Sevenoaks towards Bailey's Hill ; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-described road to the boundary which divides the said parish of Sevenoaks from the new parish of Sevenoaks Weald, in the county and diocese aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Canterbury.

Gazetted 2nd August 1864.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight the 28th day of July 1864.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty

King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the seventh day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Nicholas situate in the parish of Plumstead, in the county of Kent and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Nicholas situate in the parish of Plumstead aforesaid.

"Now, [therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Plumstead which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'the District Chapelry of Saint Nicholas, Plumstead.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being ; provided always, that so long as the Reverend James Adair McAllister, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Plumstead, shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent, all the fees which shall be payable in respect of the performance of the said offices at the said church of Saint Nicholas shall be paid by the minister thereof to the said James Adair McAllister.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Nicholas, Plumstead, being :—

"All that part of the parish of Plumstead, in the county of Kent and in the diocese of London, which is comprised within and is bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides such parish from the parish of Erith, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of the line of the North Kent Railway ; and extending thence westward along the middle of the said line of railway as far as a point under the centre of the bridge which carries the Plumstead Road over such line of railway; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the northern end of Maxey Road ; and extending thence first southward to and along the middle of the last-named road, and then south-westward along the middle of the same road (crossing over the line of the North Kent Railway aforesaid) as far as a point opposite to the middle of the north-western end of the road or street called "Swetenham Place;" and extending thence south-eastward to and along the middle of the last-named road or street to its junction with Pattison Road ; and extending thence south-westward for a distance of thirty-nine yards or thereabouts along the middle of the last-named road to a point opposite to the middle of the western end of a certain passage leading to Hudson Road, the said western end of which passage is situate between the houses on the eastern side of Pattison Road aforesaid, which are respectively distinguished by the numbers 67 and 69, and are numbered accordingly upon the map hereunto annexed ; and extending thence south-eastward to and along the middle of the said passage to its junction with Hudson Road aforesaid; and continuing thence in a direct line, still south-eastward across the northern end of the last-named road to a point in the middle of Vicarage Road; and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the north-western end of Rose Street ; and extending thence south-eastward to and along the middle of such street to its junction with Park Road ; and continuing thence first south-eastward and then southward along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with a certain road leading across Plumstead Common towards the cottages called 'The Slade;' and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last described road to its junction with Plumstead Common Road; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of one hundred and thirty-two yards or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of the northern end of Hopgood's Lane, otherwise called 'Timber Croft Lane;' and extending thence first southward to and along the middle of the last-named lane and then south-eastward along the middle of the same lane as far as a point opposite to the middle of the north-western end of the footpath leading from the said lane across the close numbered 931 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Plumstead and upon the said map hereunto annexed into the road numbered 1090 upon the same maps; and continuing thence, still south-eastward, to and along the middle of the said footpath to its junction with the road numbered 1090 as aforesaid; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the road last referred to for a distance of one hundred and three yards, or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the middle of the north-western end of a certain lane leading past the southern side of Woolwich Cemetery to East Wickham; and extending thence south-eastward to and along the middle of the last described lane as far as the boundary dividing the said parish of Plumstead from the parish of East Wickham in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence south-eastward or north-eastward along the said boundary to its junction with the boundary dividing the parish of Plumstead from the parish of Erith as aforesaid; and extending thence northward along the boundary last referred to as far as the point in the middle of the line of the North Kent Railway, where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

For authorizing the Sale and Disposal of certain Property formerly belonging to the Prebend of Saint Margaret, Leicester, in the Cathedral Church of Lincoln.

Gazetted 2nd August 1864.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of July 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following ; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the prebend of Saint Margaret's, Leicester, in the cathedral church of Lincoln, and now vested in us.

"Whereas under an Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and another Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty's reign, chapter thirty-nine, and by virtue of an Order of Your Majesty in Council made under the provisions of the same Acts, bearing date the twelfth day of September in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and duly published in the London Gazette on the fifteenth day of the same month, all lands, tithes, and other hereditaments whatsoever then belonging to the said prebend (except rights of patronage), became absolutely vested in us, for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas our estate in the lands, tithes, and hereditaments aforesaid consists of reversions expectant upon the determination of beneficial leases for lives, and such lands, tithes, and hereditaments produce during the subsistence of such leases only small annual revenues, and partly on that account, and partly on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions or the purchase of the leasehold interests to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly, that we should be empowered to dispose of our interests therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders thereof (if any) to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments theretofore belonging to the said prebend of Saint Margaret's, Leicester, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lincoln.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty first day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Michael and All Angels, situate in the new parish of Saint John Paddington, aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that portion of the said new parish of Saint John, Paddington, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portion, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Michael and All Angels, Paddington.'

"And with the like consent of the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Michael and All Angels, Paddington, being :—

"All that portion of the new parish of Saint John, Paddington, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, which is situate to the north-west of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing such new parish from the district rectory of Saint Mary-le-bone, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of the Edgware Road opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of Tichborne Street; and extending thence south-westward to and along the middle of such street to its south-western extremity; and continuing thence, still south-westward and in a straight line across Upper Porchester Street, to a point in the middle of the north-eastern end of the road which passes through the Oxford Mews; and extending thence, still south-westward along the middle of such road to the boundary in the middle of Upper Southwick Street which divides the said new parish of Saint John, Paddington, from the new parish of All Saints, Paddington, in the county and diocese aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty, in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

For altering the Boundaries of the New Parish of Saint John, Smallbridge, and Chapelry District of Saint James, Wardleworth, in the County of Lancaster and Diocese of Manchester.

Gazetted 30th August 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of August 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty, of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the seventh day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter sixty, of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Saint John, Smallbridge, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester, and also for altering the boundaries of the chapelry district of Saint James, Wardleworth, in the county and diocese aforesaid.

" Whereas, by the authority of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-third day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and duly published in the London Gazette on the thirtieth day of November in the same year, a part of the ancient parish of Rochdale, in the county and diocese aforesaid, was assigned as a district to the consecrated church called Saint John, situate at Smallbridge, in the said parish of Rochdale, and such district was called ' The Chapelry District of Saint John, Smallbridge.'

" And whereas the said chapelry district of Saint John, Smallbridge, is reputed to have since become, under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, a new parish of the character contemplated by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven.

" And whereas by the herein-before mentioned Order of Your Majesty in Council a further part of the said ancient parish of Rochdale was assigned as a district to the consecrated church, called Saint James, situate at Wardleworth, in the said parish of Rochdale, and such district was called ' The Chapelry District of Saint James, Wardleworth.'

" And whereas it has been proposed to us, and it seems to us to be expedient, that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint John, Smallbridge, and also the boundaries of the said chapelry district of Saint James, Wardleworth, should be altered in the manner herein-after described.

" Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, and in right of his see the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Rochdale, of the Reverend John Edward Nassau Molesworth, Doctor in Divinity, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Rochdale, and as such vicar or incumbent the patron both of the perpetual curacy of the said new parish of Saint John, Smallbridge, and of the perpetual curacy of the said chapelry district of Saint James, Wardleworth, of the Reverend Robert Keningale Cook, the incumbent of the said perpetual curacy of the said new parish of Saint John, Smallbridge, and of the Reverend Robert Strettell Rowan, the incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the said chapelry district of Saint James, Wardleworth (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that in our opinion it would be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint John, Smallbridge, and also the boundaries of the said chapelry district of Saint James, Wardleworth, should be respectively altered, so as to dissever and dis-annex from such last-mentioned chapelry district, and so as to include within the said new parish of Saint John, Smallbridge, all that part of the said chapelry district of Saint James, Wardleworth, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, and which is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured green; and that the said part of the said chapelry district of Saint James, Wardleworth, so to be dissevered and disannexed therefrom as aforesaid, should, from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this representation, and without any other assurance in the law, be included within the limits of the said new parish of Saint John, Smallbridge, and should become and be and form part of such new parish.

"And we humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The territory proposed to be dissevered and disannexed from the Chapelry District of Saint James, Wardleworth, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester, and to be included within the limits of the New Parish of Saint John, Smallbridge, in the same county and diocese, being :—

"All that piece or parcel of land called or known as Grindrod Bank, containing by admeasurement three acres two roods and thirty-two perches, be the same more or less, lying and being within the limits of the chapelry district of Saint James, Wardleworth, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester, and belonging to John Smith Entwistle, of Foxholes, in the said county of Lancaster, Esquire, which said piece or parcel of land is bounded on the south-west by the park or pleasure-ground of Foxholes aforesaid, belonging to the said John Smith Entwistle ; and on the north-west, north, and north-east by a certain other piece or parcel of land, called or known as 'Will Rhodes,' belonging to the same John Smith Entwistle; and on the south-east and east by the stream called or known as Hey Brook which divides the said piece or parcel of land called or known as Grindrod Bank from the land (also belonging to the said John Smith Entwistle) within the said new parish of Saint John, Smallbridge, upon which stands a certain cotton mill called or known as Hamer Hall Mill."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

For constituting the District of Saint James, Stockton-upon-Tees, in the County and Diocese of Durham.

Gazetted 30th August 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of August 1864.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventh day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Stockton-upon-Tees, in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham.

" Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of Stockton-upon-Tees herein-after mentioned and described (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship), should be constituted a separate district in manner herein-after set forth.

" And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the said parish of Stockton-upon-Tees have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein-mentioned Acts.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that all that part of the said parish of Stockton-upon-Tees which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that such district shall be named 'The District of Saint James, Stockton-upon-Tees.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the provisions of the herein secondly-mentioned Act, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds, and that upon any building within such district being duly licensed by the bishop of the diocese for the performance of divine service according to the provisions of the same Act, there shall be paid by us in like manner to such minister the further sum of fifty pounds, making together the sum of two hundred pounds, and that so soon as a church or chapel shall have been erected within such district, and shall have been approved by us and consecrated as the church or chapel of such district, and for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish the further sum of one hundred pounds, making in the whole the sum of three hundred pounds, and that the said sums of one hundred and fifty pounds, two hundred pounds, or three hundred pounds, as the case may be, shall be paid by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, and that the first such payment or a proportionate part thereof shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister or of such building or of the consecration of such church or chapel as aforesaid, as the case may be, and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount then next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish; provided always, that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time, that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the minister or perpetual curate of the said district or new parish, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, tithe, or other hereditament should be conveyed or secured to such minister or perpetual curate and his successors, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.'

" And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

" The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing scheme has reference.

" The District of Saint James, Stockton-upon-Tees, being :—

" All that part of the parish of Stockton-upon-Tees within the limits of the municipal borough of Stockton-upon-Tees, in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham, which is situate generally to the east of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary of the said municipal borough at a point in the middle of the southern end of Norton Bridge which carries the road leading from Norton to Stockton-upon-Tees over Lustring Beck ; and extending thence first southward and thence south-westward along the middle of the said road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the north-western end of Station Street ; and extending thence south-eastward to and along the middle of the said street as far as a point opposite to the middle of the northern end of Croft Street; and extending thence southward to and along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Major Street ; and continuing thence still southward across Major Street to the middle of the northern end of Haffron Street ; and extending thence in the same direction along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Garbutt Street ; and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Brown Street ; and extending thence first south-westward and then southward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Portrack Lane ; and continuing thence still southward across the last-named lane to the middle of the northern end of Maritime Street ; and extending thence still southward along the middle of the last-named street to a point opposite to the middle of the western end of Commercial Street ; and extending thence eastward to and along the middle of the last-named street to its eastern extremity, and continuing thence still eastward and in a direct line across a certain timberyard in the occupation of Messrs. Pearce and Lockwood, of Stockton-upon-Tees, to a boundary stone inscribed ' S.-upon-T., St. J., D, 1864,' and placed against the wall or fence which divides such timberyard from the line of the West Hartlepool Railway ; and continuing thence still eastward and in a direct line to a point in the middle of the said line of railway ; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the same line of railway to the boundary on the northern bank of the River Tees of the municipal borough of Stockton-upon-Tees aforesaid."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has been, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-before secondly-mentioned

Act transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron of the vicarage of the parish out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such incumbent and patron have respectively assented to the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Durham.

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter eighty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls within the consolidated chapelry of Saint Mark, Woolston, in the county of Southampton and in the diocese of Winchester.

" Whereas the bishop of the said diocese of Winchester for the time being is, in right of his see, the patron of the perpetual curacy of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Mark, Woolston.

" And whereas the bishop of the same diocese for the time being is also, in right of his see, the patron of the rectory of the parish of Saint Mary, in the town and county of the town of Southampton and in the said diocese of Winchester.

" And whereas the Right Reverend Charles Richard, the present Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, has, as bishop of the diocese and as patron as aforesaid of the rectory of the said parish of Saint Mary, Southampton, and of the perpetual curacy of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Mark, Woolston, proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that the income of the rector or incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Saint Mary, Southampton, should be apportioned between the rector or incumbent thereof and the incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Mark, Woolston, in the manner herein-after recommended and proposed.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Charles Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Charles Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (testified as aforesaid), and with the consent of the Reverend Mark Cooper, the rector or incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Saint Mary, Southampton (testified as aforesaid), we humbly recommend and propose, that the whole of the glebe lands belonging to the rectory of the said parish of Saint Mary, Southampton, and now under lease, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette, become and for ever thereafter be charged and chargeable with one annuity or yearly rentcharge of one hundred and fifty pounds in favour and for the sole and proper use and benefit of the incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Mark, Woolston; and with such consents as aforesaid, testified as aforesaid, we further recommend and propose, that the said annuity or yearly rentcharge of one hundred and fifty pounds shall be payable and paid by the rector or incumbent for the time being of the rectory of the said parish of Saint Mary, Southampton, or his assigns, unto the incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Mark, Woolston, or to such person or persons as he, the said incumbent, may from time to time appoint to receive the same, by equal half-yearly payments on the fourteenth day of June and the fourteenth day of December in each and every year, and that the first of such half-yearly payments shall be made on the fourteenth day of December now next ensuing, and that the said incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint

Mark, Woolston, shall have all such and the like powers of entry and distress and other (if any other) remedies for recovering payment of the said annuity or yearly rentcharge, or so much thereof as shall in any one half-year remain unpaid by the space of twenty-one days after the day herein-before named for payment thereof as landlords may have with respect to rent reserved upon a lease and in arrear.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any part thereof, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

For amending an Order in Council, bearing date Twenty-ninth day of November One thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, for substituting a Money payment for certain Property belonging to the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Worcester.

Gazetted 30th August 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of August 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for amending an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of November one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, and duly published in the London Gazette on the sixteenth day of December in the same year, for substituting a money payment for certain property belonging to the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Worcester.

"Whereas by the said Order of Your Majesty in Council, a certain scheme which had been prepared by us, and which was therein fully set forth, having been approved by Your Majesty in Council, was, by and with the advice of Your Majesty's said Council, ratified, and the same and every part thereof became effectual in law from and after the time of the publication of the said Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid.

"And whereas it was in the said scheme stated (inter alia) that it had been made to appear to us, by reason of the great antiquity of the said cathedral church, and of the want of due reparation thereof in times past, that it had become necessary for the due sustentation thereof to expend thereon forthwith such a sum as could not be wholly charged on the parties then entitled to the receipt and enjoyment of the divisible corporate revenues of the said dean and chapter, and it was in the said scheme also stated that we had ascertained that the sum so required to be forthwith expended in such repairs, and in effecting improvements conducive to the security of the fabric of the said cathedral church, amounted to fifteen thousand three hundred pounds or thereabouts.

"And whereas it was and is one of the purposes of certain Acts of Parliament specified in the said scheme, by and under the authority whereof the said scheme was prepared by us, and was ratified by Your Majesty in Council as aforesaid, to provide a fund for making better provision for the cure of souls, and we were of opinion that it would ultimately conduce to the improvement of the said fund that certain manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments then belonging to the said dean and chapter should become and be transferred to and vested in us and our successors, and the same became, upon the passing and publication of the said Order of Your Majesty in Council, transferred to and vested in us accordingly.

"And whereas by the said scheme it was recommended and proposed, that as a part consideration for such transfer and conveyance there should be forthwith paid and expended by us, in effecting such repairs of the said cathedral church and improvements as aforesaid, the sum of fifteen thousand three hundred pounds aforesaid.

"And whereas, in entering into the arrangements with the said dean and chapter which were set forth in the said scheme, it was estimated by us and we remain satisfied, that the improvement derivable and accruing therefrom to the said fund so applicable to making better provision for the cure of souls as aforesaid will be of very considerable amount.

"And whereas the said sum of fifteen thousand three hundred pounds has been now wholly expended in the execution of works conducive to the security of the fabric of the said cathedral church according to plans and specifications prepared by the architect of the said dean and chapter, and approved by us.

"And whereas it has been now ascertained, by the actual execution of such works, and by the more complete investigation of the state of the fabric which has thereupon become practicable, that the said estimate of fifteen thousand three hundred pounds was inadequate and insufficient to provide for the whole of the said necessary repairs of the said cathedral church, notwithstanding that a considerable sum of money in addition thereto, and in excess of the yearly revenues of their fabric fund, has been appropriated by the dean and canons towards the sustentation and improvement of the same church.

"And whereas the said dean and canons have applied to us for a contribution of two thousand pounds, in aid of the further reparation of the said cathedral church, towards which repair and towards the restoration and embellishment of the same church the said dean and canons have individually subscribed to an extent in the aggregate equal to the said last-mentioned sum, and other contributions of very considerable amount have been either paid or promised towards the same object by other parties residents in the county of Worcester, and others.

"And whereas if, at the time when we entered into the arrangements with the Dean and Chapter of Worcester which were set forth in the scheme so passed by us and ratified by your Majesty in Council as aforesaid, it had been made to appear to us that the reparation required by the fabric of the said cathedral church was as extensive as it has now proved to have been, we should have been willing and prepared to recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council, that the sum to be appropriated by us for or towards the the execution of the works so required as such part consideration as aforesaid should have been larger by the said sum of two thousand pounds than was then actually recommended and proposed as aforesaid.

"And whereas it was, in the scheme so passed by us and ratified by Your Majesty in Council, also recommended and proposed that nothing therein contained should prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters therein contained, in accordance with the Acts of Parliament therein mentioned, or any of them.

"And whereas, under all the circumstances of the case, we deem it just and expedient that the provisions of the scheme so passed by us and ratified by Your Majesty in Council as aforesaid should be altered and amended in manner herein-after set forth.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that for and towards the further repair and sustentation required by the said cathedral church as aforesaid there shall be paid by us a further sum of two thousand pounds, together with interest on the same, or upon the balances thereof which may from time to time remain in our hands, after the rate of three pounds per cent. per annum, to be calculated from the day upon which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette; provided always, that the works, the cost of which shall be defrayed out of such sum of two thousand pounds or the interest thereon, shall be such as we may consider necessary or desirable for the sustentation of the fabric of the said cathedral church, and be executed according to plans and specifications to be approved by us, and to our satisfaction.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Worcester.

No. 1643.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of Saint Saviour, Pimlico, in the County of Middlesex and Diocese of London.

Gazetted 30th August 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of August 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter sixty, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Saviour, situate in Saint George's Square, Pimlico, in the district chapelry of Saint Gabriel, Pimlico, sometime part of the district parish of Saint Peter, Pimlico, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Saviour, situate in Saint George's Square, Pimlico, aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that portion of the said district chapelry of Saint Gabriel, Pimlico, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portion, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Saviour, Pimlico.'

"And with the like consent of the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being; provided always, that all the said fees which may be received in respect of the performance of the said offices in the church of Saint Saviour as aforesaid, shall be paid by the said minister thereof to the incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of the district chapelry of Saint Gabriel, Pimlico, so long as such district chapelry shall remain subject to the provisions of the Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the thirteenth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, whereby one half of all the fees which may be received from the performance of the same offices of the church as are above mentioned within the said district chapelry of Saint Gabriel, Pimlico, is reserved to the Reverend Thomas Fuller, the present incumbent of the said perpetual curacy of the district parish of Saint Peter, Pimlico, so long as he shall continue to be such incumbent.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Saviour, Pimlico, being:—

"All that portion of the district chapelry of Saint Gabriel, Pimlico, sometime part of the district parish of Saint Peter, Pimlico, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, which is situate to the east of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing such district chapelry from the district parish of Saint Peter, Pimlico, aforesaid, at a point in the middle of Warwick Street, opposite to the middle of the northern end of Denbigh Street; and extending thence south-eastward to and along the middle of the last-named street (crossing the Belgrave Road) to the junction of the said Denbigh Street with Lupus Street; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named street as far as a point opposite to the middle of the northern end of Ranelagh Road; and extending thence south-eastward to and along the middle of the last-named road to its southern extremity; and continuing thence still south-eastward and in a direct line across Grosvenor Road to the southern boundary of the said district chapelry of Saint Gabriel, Pimlico."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

For making better Provision for the Cure of Souls in certain Parishes and Districts.

Gazetted 30th August 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of August 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

"We humbly recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us out of the Common Fund in the said Acts mentioned, in each and every year, to the incumbent for the time being of each of the benefices described in the first schedule hereunto annexed, the annual sum set opposite to the name of each such benefice in the last column of the same schedule, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year.

"Provided always, that the grants so recommended to be made by us to the benefices of Beaminster with Holy Trinity, Saint Oswald, Durham, Saint Paul, Bunhill Row, London, Saint Barnabas, King Square, London, and Shadforth, shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or before the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, of certificates under the hand of the bishops of the respective dioceses, that a curate duly licensed by such bishop has in each instance been employed within the parish or district during the preceding half year; and provided also, that the said several grants so recommended to be made by us as last-mentioned to the benefices of Beaminster with Holy Trinity, Saint Oswald, Durham, Saint Paul, Bunhill Row, London, Saint Barnabas, King Square, London, and Shadforth, shall continue in force so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances affecting the respective cures, in favour of which the same conditional grants are so recommended and proposed.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the two several rentcharges, chiefrents, or annual sums of eight pounds two shillings and sixpence and thirteen pounds four shillings and twopence, issuing out of and charged upon certain lands situate within the township of Northowram, in the parish of Halifax, in the county of York and diocese of Ripon, which rentcharges were conveyed to us by a deed, bearing date the twelfth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and made between Isaac Green, of Horley Green, in the said parish of Halifax, Gentleman, of the first part, Thomas Parker, of Horley Green Place, in the same parish, salesman, Henry Whitaker, of Horley Green Place aforesaid, fishmonger, Robert Midgeley, of Salterbe, in the said township of Northowram, worsted spinner, John Walshaw, of the same township, dyer, and John Goodyear, of Shilden, in the said parish of Halifax, stone merchant, of the second part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the third part, which deed is intended to be deposited in the registry of the diocese of Ripon; and all our estate and interest therein shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of Saint Thomas, Charlestown, in the same county of York and diocese of Ripon.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the messuage, lands, hereditaments, and premises described in the second schedule hereunto annexed, situate at Darnall, in the parish of Sheffield, in the county and diocese of York, which were conveyed to us by a deed, bearing date the eighth day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and made between James Crossland, of Sheffield aforesaid, grocer, chandler, and soap boiler, and the Reverend Thomas Crossland, of Milford, near Belper, in the county of Derby, Clerk, of the one part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the other part, together with the right of way or road which is also conveyed to us by the same lastly-mentioned deed, and is therein more particularly described, shall, in like manner and by the authority aforesaid, be conveyed to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of Darnall aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose, that all our reversionary estate and interest in the messuage, lands, hereditaments, and premises described in the third schedule hereunto annexed, situate within the parish of Llanelwedd, in the county of Radnor and diocese of Saint David's, now belonging to the prebend of Llanelwedd, in the collegiate church of Brecon, shall, in like manner and by the authority aforesaid, be conveyed to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the said parish of Llanelwedd.

"And whereas it appears to us, after duly considering the cases undermentioned, to be expedient that the grants respectively recommended to be made by us to the benefices of Saint Paul, Bunhill Row, London, Christ Church, Saint George's-in-the-East, Saint Philip, Stepney, Saint Thomas, Stepney, and Turton, should commence and take effect from the dates hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, in the case of the perpetual curacy of Saint Paul, Bunhill Row, London, from the twenty-fifth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the case of the perpetual curacy of Christ Church, Saint George's-in-the-East, from the twelfth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the case of the perpetual curacy of Saint Philip, Stepney, from the first day of March in the year one thousand and sixty-four, in the case of the perpetual curacy of Saint Thomas, Stepney, from the twelfth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and in the case of the perpetual curacy of Turton, from the first day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the several grants herein-before recommended by us to be made to the said last-mentioned benefices respectively shall commence and take effect from the said dates herein-before in that behalf mentioned respectively.

"And we further recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered to pay out of the Common Fund aforesaid, on behalf of the benefices specified in the fourth schedule hereunto annexed, such annual sums as may be necessary for discharging the yearly instalments, which, in respect of interest and principal monies may, from and after the dates set opposite to the names of the said benefices respectively in the fourth column of the same schedule, become from time to time due and owing, on account of certain mortgages of the said several benefices which by certain deeds, bearing the respective dates set forth in the fifth column of the same schedule, have been effected under the provisions of the Acts known as Gilbert's Acts, enabling the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor clergy to lend money for the purpose of providing residences for the clergy.

"And we further recommend and propose, that if at any time it shall appear desirable to us that any lands, tithe, or other hereditaments, should be substituted for the annual sums hereinbefore mentioned, or any of them, or any part thereof, nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such substitution, or any other measure relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

Gazetted 30th August 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of August 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

"Whereas the several benefactions, consisting of sums of cash or of land, tithe, rentcharges, or other hereditaments, which are mentioned in the fourth column of the schedule hereunto annexed, have been paid over to us in favour of or have been otherwise secured to the several benefices set forth in the first column of the same schedule respectively, upon condition that certain capital sums herein-after mentioned should be appropriated by us to the said several benefices respectively, and upon further condition that, in respect of such of the said benefactions as consist of cash, or such part or parts thereof as shall from time to time remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the incumbents for the time being of the said benefices respectively, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year, the yearly sums respectively specified and set forth in the sixth column of the same schedule, or a proportionate part of each of such annual sums.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered to appropriate, out of the Common Fund created by the herein firstly mentioned Act, to each of the several benefices specified in the first column of the said schedule hereunto annexed respectively, the capital sum set against the name of each such benefice in the fifth column of the same schedule, and that such capital sums respectively, or any part or parts thereof, may be paid and applied by us towards the purchase or acquisition for such livings respectively, or any one or more of them, of any land, tithe, or other hereditaments, which may appear to us to be suitable for annexation to such benefices respectively, or towards defraying the cost of providing suitable parsonage houses for the same ; and that in the meantime there shall be allowed and paid by us, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year, to the incumbents for the time being of the said several benefices respectively, in respect of such capital sums, or of such part or parts thereof as shall remain from time to time unapplied towards such purposes as aforesaid, the several yearly sums specified in the seventh column of the said schedule, and therein set against the names of the said several benefices respectively, or such parts of the said several yearly sums respectively as shall bear a proportion to the parts of the said several capital sums last mentioned, so remaining unapplied as aforesaid, corresponding with the proportion or proportions which the amounts of the said several yearly payments respectively bear to the amounts of the said respective capital sums so specified in the fifth column as aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

No. 1648.

For constituting the District of Saint Paul, Greenwich, in the County of Kent and Diocese of London.

Gazetted 30th August 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of August 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Saint Alphage, Greenwich, in the county of Kent and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of Saint Alphage, Greenwich, herein-after mentioned and described (which part does not at present contain within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship), should be constituted a separate district in manner herein-after set forth.

"And whereas a sum of five thousand pounds, three pounds per centum consolidated bank annuities, has been contributed and transferred to our account and into our name in the books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England by the Reverend George Blisset, of East Wells in the county of Somerset, Clerk, upon the understanding herein-after set forth, that is to say, that in consideration of such contribution and transfer we should provide and pay to or for the maintenance of the minister of such district when constituted, and so soon as the same district shall have become a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes under the provisions of the herein secondly-mentioned Act, then of the perpetual curate of such new parish, a yearly sum of one hundred and fifty pounds, and should also make a grant out of our Common Fund of a like sum of one hundred and fifty pounds per annum for the maintenance of the same minister or perpetual curate, and that the whole right of patronage of the said district herein-after recommended to be constituted, and when such district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid, then of the said new parish, should be assigned (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) to the said George Blisset, his heirs and assigns, in manner herein-after recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that all that part of the said parish of Saint Alphage, Greenwich, which is described in the schedule herein-under written, and is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, be constituted and become and be a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Paul, Greenwich.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us out of our Common Fund, in each and every year, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the provisions of the herein-before secondly-mentioned Act, and so soon as such district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid, then to the perpetual curate thereof the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year; and that the first such payment or a proportionate part thereof shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister or perpetual curate as aforesaid, and that in case a vacancy in the ministry of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount then next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish; provided always, that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time that instead of any annual sum or sums then in course of payment by us to the minister or perpetual curate of the said district or new parish, or, instead of any part of such annual sum or sums, any land, tithe, or other hereditament should be conveyed or secured to such minister or perpetual curate and his successors, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, and so soon as the same district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid, then of the said new parish and of the perpetual curate thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said George Blisset, his heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"SCHEDULE.

"The District of Saint Paul, Greenwich, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Saint Alphage, Greenwich, in the county of Kent and in the diocese of London, which is situate to the north of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing such parish from the parish of Saint Paul, Deptford, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the centre of the bridge (called Deptford Bridge), which carries the road leading from Deptford to Blackheath over the stream known as the River Ravensbourne otherwise Deptford Creek; and extending thence first eastward and then south-eastward along the middle of the said road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-western end of South Street; and all which said part of the parish of Saint Alphage, Greenwich, aforesaid, is also situate generally to the west of another imaginary line commencing at the last described point in the middle of the road leading from Deptford to Blackheath, opposite to the middle of the south-western end of South Street; and extending thence north-eastward to and along the middle of the said street as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-western end of Blisset Street; and extending thence still north-eastward to and along the middle of the last-named street as far as a point opposite to the middle of the eastern end of Green Lane; and extending thence westward to and along the middle of the said lane to its junction with South Street aforesaid; and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with the Greenwich Road ; and extending thence north-westward across the last-named road to and along the middle of Prince of Orange Lane to the junction of the last-named lane with the public highway (consisting in part of a footway, and in other part of a carriageway and footway) called 'Straight's Mouth ;' and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of Straight's Mouth aforesaid to its junction with the eastern end of Roan Street ; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of sixty-six yards or thereabouts to a point opposite to the south-eastern end of the wall which forms the western boundary of the building and ground known as 'The Grey Coat School,' such wall being also the outer wall of the dwelling house appropriated to the master of the said school ; and extending thence north-westward to and along the middle of such wall or fence as far as the junction of the same wall or fence with the wall or fence which bounds the southern and western sides of the burial ground belonging to the parish church of Saint Alphage, Greenwich ; and extending thence first south-westward and then generally north-westward along the middle of the last described wall or fence to a point in the middle of Lamb Lane opposite to the middle of the northern end of such last described wall or fence ; and extending thence first eastward and then northward along the middle of the last-named lane to its junction with Bridge Street ; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Church Street ; and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named street to its northern extremity; and continuing thence in a straight line and in the last-mentioned direction as far as the northern boundary of the said parish of Saint Alphage, Greenwich, in the middle of the River Thames."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the said secondly-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patron and to the incumbent of the said parish of Saint Alphage, Greenwich (out of which parish it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken), and certain observations and objections which have been offered and taken by the said incumbent have been laid before Her Majesty in Council, together with the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has, notwithstanding such observations and objections, been approved by Her Majesty in Council : now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty, of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following ; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter sixty, of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation for altering the boundaries of the new Parish of Saint Mark, Peterborough, in the county of Northampton, and in the diocese of Peterborough.

"Whereas, by the authority of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the sixth day of April one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, and published in the London Gazette on the tenth day of the same month, a part of the parish of Saint John the Baptist, Peterborough, in the county and diocese aforesaid, was assigned as a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mark situate in the same parish, and such district chapelry was named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Mark, Peterborough.'

"And whereas the said district chapelry of Saint Mark, Peterborough, is reputed to have become, by the operation of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, a new parish of the character contemplated by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven.

"And whereas it has been proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Mark, Peterborough, should be altered as herein-after is mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Francis, Bishop of the said diocese of Peterborough, and in right of his see the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint John the Baptist, Peterborough, and also in the same right the patron (after the next avoidance of the same vicarage) of the perpetual curacy of the said new parish of Saint Mark, Peterborough, and with the consent of the Reverend Edmund Davys, clerk, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint John the Baptist, Peterborough, and as such vicar or incumbent the patron (during his incumbency) of the perpetual curacy of the said new parish of Saint Mark, Peterborough, and of the Reverend Samuel Williamson Merry, clerk, the incumbent of the same perpetual curacy (in testimony of which consent the said Francis, Bishop of Peterborough, Edmund Davys, and Samuel Williamson Merry, have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that in our opinion it would be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Mark, Peterborough, should be altered and extended so as to include within the limits of such new parish so much of the territory now belonging to the said parish of Saint John the Baptist, Peterborough, as is set forth and described in the schedule hereunto appended, and as is delineated upon the map or plan hereunto annexed and thereon coloured green; and that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this representation, and without any other assurance in the law, the said territory so to be included within the limits of the said new parish of Saint Mark, Peterborough, should become and be and form part of such new parish.

"And we humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The territory proposed to be taken from the Parish of Saint John the Baptist, Peterborough, and added to the New Parish of Saint Mark, Peterborough, being :—

"All that portion of the parish of Saint John the Baptist, Peterborough, in the county of Northampton and in the diocese of Peterborough, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is situate to the north of an imaginary line extending along the middle of a certain road called the South Workhouse Close Road, which said portion comprises (inter alia) the site of the Peterborough National School."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Peterborough.

No. 1651.

As to the Assignment of a Consolidated Chapelry to the Church of the Grey Friars, in the Parish of Saint Lawrence, Reading, in the County of Berks and Diocese of Oxford.

Gazetted 30th August 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of August 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of the Grey Friars, situate in the parish of Saint Lawrence, Reading, in the county of Berks and in the diocese of Oxford.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Saint Lawrence, Reading, and of the parish of Saint Mary, Reading, in the same county and diocese, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Saint Lawrence, Reading, and of the said parish of Saint Mary, Reading, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of the Grey Friars, situate in the parish of Saint Lawrence, Reading, aforesaid.

" Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Oxford, and the patron in right of his see both of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint Lawrence, Reading, and of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint Mary, Reading (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Saint Lawrence, Reading, and of the said parish of Saint Mary, Reading, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of the Grey Friars, situate in the parish of Saint Lawrence, Reading, aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of the Grey Friars, Reading;' and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of the said consolidated chapelry of the Grey Friars, Reading, should belong to, and should be exercised jointly by the Reverend John Ball, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint Lawrence, Reading, by the Reverend Peter French, the present incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the district parish of the Holy Trinity, Burton-upon-Trent, by John Neale, of Reading aforesaid, solicitor, by the Venerable William Whitmarsh Phelps, Archdeacon of Carlisle, and by John Simonds, of Reading aforesaid, banker, their heirs and assigns, for ever.

" We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

" The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

" The Consolidated Chapelry of the Grey Friars, Reading, being :—

" All that portion of the parish of Saint Lawrence, Reading in the county of Berks and in the diocese of Oxford, and also all that portion of the adjoining parish of Saint Mary, Reading, in the same county and diocese, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing on the boundary which divides the said parishes at a point in the middle of the Caversham Road, upon the southern side of the bridge which carries the Berkshire and Hampshire branch line of the Great Western Railway over such road; and extending thence eastward along the middle of the fence which forms the southern boundary of the said branch line as far as the south-western corner of the down station of the Great Western Railway aforesaid; and extending thence due southward in a straight line across the road in front of the said station to a point in the middle of the north-eastern end of a certain new road which leads from the same station to Grey Friars Road; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of such new road to its junction with Grey Friars Road aforesaid ; and extending thence first south-westward and then southward along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with Friar Street ; and extending thence westward along the middle of such street as far as a point opposite to the middle of the north-western end of West Street ; and extending thence south-eastward to and along the middle of the last-named street to the boundary which again divides the said parishes at a point in the middle of the eastern end of Oxford Street ; and extending thence first westward and then northward along the said boundary (following thereby first the middle of Oxford Street aforesaid and then the middle of Thorn Street) as far as a point in the middle of the last-named street opposite to the middle of the eastern end of Chatham Street ; and extending thence westward to and along the middle of the last-named street as far as a point opposite to the middle of the southern end of the footway which passes along the front of the cottages and gardens in York Place ; and extending thence northward to and along the middle of such footway to the wall at its northern end which forms the southern boundary of the gardens and premises in rear of and belonging to the houses on the southern side of Welldale Street ; and extending thence westward along the middle of such wall to its junction with the fence which forms the eastern boundary of Bedford Gardens ; and extending thence northward along the middle of such fence, crossing the western end of Welldale Street aforesaid, to the north-western corner of the garden in the rear of and belonging to the westernmost house on the northern side of the same street ; and extending thence still northward in a straight line to the south-east corner of the wall of the passage at the eastern end of Portland Place ; and continuing thence northward along the said wall to its extremity on the south side of Great Knollys Street; and continuing thence in a straight line due north, across the last-named street and across certain pasture land, to a point in the middle of the fence which forms the southern boundary of the Berkshire and Hampshire branch line of the Great Western Railway as aforesaid ; and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last described fence as far as the first described point upon the parish boundary in the middle of the Caversham Road as aforesaid, where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Oxford.

No. 1652.

For constituting the District of Saint James, Haydock, out of the Parish of Ashton in Makerfield, in the County of Lancaster and Diocese of Chester.

Gazetted 30th August 1864.

At the Court at Windsor the 27th day of August 1864.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Ashton-in-Makerfield, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Chester, and out of the parish of Saint Thomas in Ashton-in-Makerfield, in the same county and diocese.

" Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parish of Ashton-in-Makerfield, and of the said parish of Saint Thomas in Ashton-in-Makerfield, herein-after mentioned and described (such portions not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship), should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes in manner herein-after set forth.

" And whereas a piece or parcel of land containing two statute acres or thereabouts, situate at Haydock, in the said parish of Saint Thomas in Ashton-in-Makerfield (except the mines and minerals lying and being under such land), has been granted and released unto us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, as and for an endowment for the minister of the district herein-after recommended to be constituted.

" And whereas it is estimated that the annual value of the piece or parcel of land aforesaid is not less than forty pounds.

" And whereas it has been made to appear to us that upon the constitution of the district herein-after recommended to be constituted the minister thereof will, under and by virtue of an Act passed in the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to amend an Act passed in the fourth year of Her present Majesty, intituled 'An Act for the division of the "Rectory of Winwick, in the County Palatine of Lancaster,'" be entitled to receive a sum of forty pounds per annum arising out of and charged upon the tithes or commutation in lieu thereof arising out of the township of Haydock, and forming part of the endowments of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint Thomas in Ashton-in-Makerfield.

"And whereas the patron and the rector or incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Ashton-in-Makerfield have entered into an engagement with us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners England, to grant and annex to the district herein-after recommended to be constituted, when and so soon as the same shall be duly constituted as an additional endowment, a sum of twenty pounds per annum, to be charged upon and to be secured out of the tithes or tithe commutation rentscharge belonging to the last-named rectory.

"And whereas, in order to further augmenting the permanent endowment of the said district herein-after recommended to be constituted, certain persons have contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England a sum of eight hundred pounds sterling, and we have, in respect thereof and of certain accumulations of interest which have accrued thereon since the date of such payment, agreed and have undertaken to provide and pay by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, to the minister of the said district, when duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, the yearly sum of twenty-eight pounds five shillings and eightpence.

"And whereas the said two acres of land (except the mines and minerals lying and being thereunder as aforesaid) and the said sum of twenty pounds per annum, and the said sum of eight hundred pounds sterling have been or are to be so granted, secured, contributed, and paid respectively as aforesaid upon the understanding that we should appropriate out of the Common Fund created by the firstly herein-named Act the capital sum of one thousand pounds, as herein-after mentioned, in further augmentation of the permanent endowment of the said district, and for the benefit of the minister of the said district, when duly licensed as before mentioned, and upon the further understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, should be assigned in the manner herein-after mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of Chester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said parish of Ashton-in-Makerfield and of the said parish of Saint Thomas in Ashton-in-Makerfield which are described in the schedule hereunder written, and which are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint James, Haydock.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered to appropriate out of the Common Fund before referred to a capital sum of one thousand pounds in aid of the endowment of the district so recommended to be constituted, and for the benefit of the minister thereof for the time being, when duly licensed according to the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, and that such capital sum or any part thereof may be paid or applied by us towards the purchase or acquisition for the endowment of such district of any land, tithe, or other hereditament which may appear to us to be suitable for annexation thereto; and that in the meantime there shall be allowed and paid by us, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, to the minister for the time being of the said district, when duly licensed as aforesaid, in respect of such capital sum, or such part thereof as shall remain from time to time unapplied towards such purposes as aforesaid, the annual sum of thirty-three pounds six shillings and eightpence, or such a part thereof as shall bear the same proportion to the whole of such annual sum as the part of the said capital sum so remaining unapplied as aforesaid bears to the amount of the whole of such capital sum.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the rector or incumbent for the time being of the rectory of the said parish of Ashton-in-Makerfield.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"SCHEDULE.

"The District of Saint James, Haydock, being:—

"All that portion of the parish of Ashton-in-Makerfield, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Chester, and also all that portion of the parish of Saint Thomas in Ashton-in-Makerfield, in the same county and diocese, which are situate to the south and west of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said parish of Ashton-in-Makerfield from a detached portion of the parochial chapelry or new parish of Billinge, in the same county and diocese, at the point where the brook called 'The Goyt' enters the lake called 'Carr Mill Dam;' and extending thence south-eastward along such boundary, following thereby the middle of the said brook, as far as a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'H. St. J. D. 1864,' and placed on the eastern bank of such brook at its most southern bend, and continuing thence still south-eastward to such boundary stone; and extending thence north-eastward and in a direct line across the south-eastern portion of the inclosure styled 'The Deer Park,' and across the line of railway which extends from Blackley Hurst Colliery to the Black Brook branch of the Saint Helen's Canal as far as a point in the middle of the western end of Garswood Lane; and extending thence first eastward, then north-eastward, and then south-eastward along the middle of the said lane to its junction with Robinson's Lane; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of seventy-four yards or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of the north-western end of a certain footpath connecting Robinson's Lane aforesaid with the Ashton and Saint Helen's turnpike road; and extending thence south-eastward to and along the middle of such footpath (passing to the south of Pew Fall Colliery) to its junction with the said turnpike road; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the same turnpike road for a distance of one hundred and fifteen yards or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of the north-western end of a certain other footpath leading to North Florida and Haydock, such last-mentioned point being situate at a distance of two hundred and ninety-three yards or thereabouts to the north-east of the third milestone from Saint Helen's on the said turnpike road; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-described footpath as far as the boundary (near to North Florida aforesaid) dividing the said parish of Ashton-in-Makerfield from the parish of Saint Thomas in Ashton-in-Makerfield aforesaid; and extending thence first northward and then north-eastward along the said boundary as far as a point in middle of Mill Field Lane; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named lane to its junction with Haydock Lane (East); and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-named lane as far as a point opposite to the middle of the north-western end of Withins Lane; and extending thence south-eastward to and along the middle of the last-named lane to its junction with the high road leading from Haydock to Newton; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said high road for a distance of three hundred and twenty yards or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of the north-western end of Vista Lane; and extending thence south-eastward to and along the middle of the the last-named lane as far as a point opposite to the middle of the north-western end of a certain footpath leading from such last-named lane to Crow Lane; and extending thence first south-eastward to and along themiddle of the last-described footpath and then south-westward along the middle of the same footpath as far as the boundary (near to Hathern Covert) which divides the said parish of Saint Thomas in Ashton-in-Makerfield from the new parish of Saint Peter Newton-in-Makerfield in the same county and diocese."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-before secondly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the respective incumbents and to the respective patrons of the churches of the said parishes of Ashton-in-Makerfield and of Saint Thomas in Ashton-in Makerfield (out of which parishes it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken), and such respective incumbents and patrons have severally consented to the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chester.

For authorizing the Sale and Disposal of certain Property formerly belonging to the Prebend of Wisborough Green, in the Cathedral Church of Chichester.

Gazetted 30th August 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of August 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the prebend of Wisborough Green in the cathedral church of Chichester, and now vested in us.

"Whereas the said prebend was vacant at the time of the passing of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, and all the lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments theretofore belonging to the said prebend (except any rights of patronage), became upon the passing of the said Act and by virtue thereof absolutely vested in us, for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments aforesaid are subject to beneficial leases, and produce during the subsistence of such leases only small annual revenues, and partly on that account and partly on account of their character or situation are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign with the consent of the holder or holders thereof (if any), to be testified by his, her, or their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments and endowments, theretofore belonging to the said prebend of Wisborough Green, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chichester.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of Saint Michael, Haworth, in the Parish of Bradford, in the County of York and Diocese of Ripon.

Gazetted 30th August 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of August 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Michael situate at Haworth, in the parish of Saint Peter, Bradford, in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Michael, situate at Haworth aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Saint Peter, Bradford, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Michael, Haworth.'

"And with the like consent of the said Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being; provided always, that so long as the Reverend John Burnet, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint Peter, Bradford, shall remain such vicar or incumbent all the said fees shall be paid by the minister aforesaid to the said John Burnet.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Michael, Haworth, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Saint Peter, Bradford, in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon, which now constitutes the parochial chapelry of Haworth, and all which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the contiguous hamlets of Haworth and Stanbury."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.

Gazetted 30th August 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of August 1864.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eight and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following represensation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Paul, situate in Dock Street, in the new parish of Saint Mark, Whitechapel, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Saint Mark, Whitechapel, and of the parish of Saint John, Wapping, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and of the parish of Saint Botolph, Aldgate, in the same county and diocese, which lie contiguous one to another and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective new parish and parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint Mark, Whitechapel, and of the said parish of Saint John, Wapping, and of the said parish of Saint Botolph Aldgate, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Paul situate in Dock Street aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London, and patron in right of his see of the perpetual curacy of the said new parish of Saint Mark, Whitechapel, and of the rectory of the said parish of Saint John, Wapping, and of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Saint Botolph, Aldgate, (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint Mark, Whitechapel, of the said parish of Saint John, Wapping, and of the said parish of Saint Botolph, Aldgate, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Paul situate in Dock Street aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Paul, Dock Street, Whitechapel;' and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of the said consolidated chapelry should belong to and should be exercised jointly by the Honourable William Henry Hugh Cholmondeley, commonly called Lord Henry Cholmondeley, of Holly Hill, in the county of Southampton, the Honourable Francis Maude, of Onslow Square, in the said county of Middlesex, Captain in Your Majesty's Navy, Charles James Bevan, of Bryanstone Square, in the last-mentioned county, Esquire, William Ellice, of Brook Street Grosvenor Square, in the same county, Esquire, and Alfred Daniel Chapman, of Norfolk Street, Park Lane, in the same county, Esquire, their heirs and assigns for ever.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDUDE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Paul, Dock Street, Whitechapel, being:—

"All that portion of the new parish of Saint Mark, Whitechapel, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, which is situate to the south of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing such new parish from the parish of Saint Botolph, Aldgate, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of Royal Mint Street; and extending thence eastward along the middle of the same street to its junction with Cable Street; and continuing thence still eastward along the middle of the last-named street to the boundary dividing the said new parish of Saint Mark, Whitechapel, from the parish of Saint George-in-the-East, in the same county and diocese; and continuing thence still eastward along the last-described boundary as far as the point where it diverges from the middle of Cable Street aforesaid.

"And also all that portion of the parish of Saint John, Wapping, in the county and diocese aforesaid, which is situate generally to the west of an imaginary line commencing at the point on the southern side of Wellclose Square, where the boundary dividing the new parish of Saint Mark, Whitechapel, from the parish of Saint George-in-the-East, as last-mentioned, meets the boundary dividing such last-named parish from the said parish of Saint John, Wapping; and extending thence first southward, then south-westward, and again southward along the said last-mentioned boundary as far as a point in the middle of the lock or sluice connecting the London Docks with the Hermitage Basin; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said lock or sluice, and along the middle of the said Hermitage Basin, to its junction with the lock or sluice connecting such basin with the River Thames; and continuing thence still south-westward along the middle of the last-described lock or sluice to the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint John, Wapping, from the parish of Saint Botolph, Aldgate, aforesaid.

"And also all that portion of the said parish of Saint Botolph, Aldgate, which is situate to the south of an imaginary line commencing at the first-described point in the middle of Royal Mint Street on the boundary dividing such parish from the new parish of Saint Mark, Whitechapel, as aforesaid; and extending thence westward along the said boundary as far as the point where it diverges from the middle of the last-named street; and continuing thence in the same direction still along the middle of the said street to the boundary of the city of London; and extending thence south-westward along the said city boundary to its junction at a point near the southern end of the Minories with the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Botolph, Aldgate, from the precincts of the Tower of London, in the said county of Middlesex, save and except only out of the above-described portion of the parish of Saint Botolph, Aldgate, aforesaid, all those three several parts which are numbered respectively upon the map or plan hereunto annexed 1, 2, and 3, and may be described as follows, that is to say,—number 1, all that territory sometime known as 'the parish or precinct of Saint Katharine, near the Tower of London,' in the said county and diocese, which under the provisions of a certain Act of Parliament, to wit, the Act of the sixth George Fourth, chapter one hundred and five, was for ecclesiastical purposes united to the said parish of Saint Botolph, Aldgate; number 2, all that part of the said parish of Saint Botolph, Aldgate, which is comprised within the limits of the buildings and premises known as Her Majesty's Mint; number 3, all that part of the same parish, situate on Little Tower Hill, adjacent to the entrance gates of Her Majesty's Mint aforesaid, whereon stand the buildings and premises now occupied and known as Saint Botolph's, Aldgate, Charity Schools."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

No. 1656.

For setting out and constituting a District for Spiritual Purposes, and annexing such District to the Church of Saint Michael, Hulme, in the Parish of Manchester, in the County of Lancaster and Diocese of Manchester.

Gazetted 30th August 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of August 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-one, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-one, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for setting out and constituting a district for spiritual purposes, and annexing such district to the consecrated church of Saint Michael, Hulme, situate within the limits of the new parish of Saint George, Hulme, sometime part of the parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district for spiritual purposes should be set out and constituted for and annexed to the said church of Saint Michael, Hulme, aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that all that portion of the said new parish of Saint George, Hulme, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, be severed and disannexed from such new parish, and shall be set out and constituted for and annexed to the said church of Saint Michael, Hulme, aforesaid, and shall become and be a district for spiritual purposes, and shall be named 'The District of Saint Michael, Hulme.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or to any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-named Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Michael, Hulme, being :—

"All that portion of the new parish of Saint George, Hulme, sometime part of the parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester, which is situate to the south of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing such new parish from the new parish of Saint Mark, Hulme, in the same county and diocese, at the point in the middle of Jackson Street where it is intersected by the City Road ; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said road as far as the point where it is intersected by Lower Moss Lane.

"And all which same portion of the new parish of Saint George, Hulme, aforesaid, is also situate to the east of another imaginary line commencing at the last-described point in the middle of the City Road where it is intersected by Lower Moss Lane as aforesaid ; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of such lane to the boundary in the middle of Stretford New Road which divides the said new parish of Saint George, Hulme, from the new parish of Saint Paul, Hulme, in the county and diocese aforesaid."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the said firstly-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the incumbent and to the patrons of the rectory of the said new parish of St. George, Hulme, out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such incumbent and patron have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

For annexing certain Lands to the Episcopal Residence of the Archbishop of Canterbury at Addington, in the County of Surrey.

Gazetted 30th August 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of August 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the tenth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for annexing to the episcopal residence of the Archbishop of Canterbury at Addington, in the county of Surrey, certain lands which are necessary for the enjoyment of such residence.

"Whereas by the said recited Act it is enacted, that upon the first avoidance of the see of any archbishop or bishop happening after the passing of the same Act, all the lands, hereditaments, and emoluments of or belonging to such see (except all rights of patronage or presentation, and the residences of the archbishop or bishop, and such lands necessary for the enjoyment of such residences as shall be attached thereto by any scheme sanctioned by Order in Council), shall become vested absolutely in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

" And whereas the Archbishoprick of Canterbury has become vacant since the passing of the said Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, but the lands which are necessary for the enjoyment of the episcopal residence at Addington have not been attached thereto by any scheme prepared by us and sanctioned by Order of Your Majesty in Council.

" And whereas it appears to us that the lands specified in the schedule annexed to this scheme are necessary for the enjoyment of the episcopal residence at Addington, and are such as it is contemplated by the said Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty should be attached to the residence and should be held by the archbishop exclusively of and in addition to the lands, tenements, and hereditaments which, by the provisions of the same Act, are to be assigned as the endowment of his said see for the purpose of securing the statutory income named for such archbishop.

" Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that immediately upon the publishing in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any legal conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly published Order, the lands specified in the schedule annexed to this scheme shall become and be attached to and form part of the residence of the Archbishop of Canterbury at Addington, in the county of Surrey, and shall be held and enjoyed by the said archbishop and his successors in the see of Canterbury irrespectively of and in addition to the lands, tenements, and hereditaments which may hereafter be from time to time assigned to the said archbishop or his successors as the permanent endowment of the see for the purpose of securing the statutory income of the archbishoprick, viz., fifteen thousand pounds per annum.

" And we further recommend, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid in compliance with the said recited Act or any other Acts of Parliament.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of Saint Michael and All Angels, Swanmore, in the Parish of Newchurch, in the Isle of Wight, and Diocese of Winchester.

Gazetted 30th August 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of August 1864.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Michael and all Angels, situate at Swanmore, in the parish of Newchurch, in the Isle of Wight and in the diocese of Winchester.

" Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Michael and All Angels situate at Swanmore aforesaid.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Newchurch which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Swanmore.'

" And with the like consent of the said Charles Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (testified as aforesaid), we further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being ; provided always, that so long as the Reverend William Harding Girdlestone, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Newchurch (to whom also belongs the cure of souls within the parish or chapelry of Ryde), shall continue to be the vicar or incumbent of such benefice all the fees which may be received in the church of Saint Michael and All Angels aforesaid, in respect of the performance of burials, shall be paid by the minister thereof to the said William Harding Girdlestone.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Swanmore, being :—

"All that part of the parish of Newchurch, in the Isle of Wight and in the diocese of Winchester, which is comprised within and is bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing such parish from the consolidated chapelry of Saint Peter, Haven Street, in the same isle and diocese, at a point near Coleman's Wood Pottery, in the middle of the road leading from Saint Helen's to Haven Street; and extending thence first north-eastward and then north-westward along the said boundary as far as a point on the eastern side of Dame Anthony's Common in the middle of the footpath or road leading from Haven Street through Play Street Farm towards Play Street; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-described road to its junction with the road leading from Play Street towards Swanmore ; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-described road to its junction with the road which leads from Gatehouse, past Haylands and Swanmore, to Ryde ; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-described road to its junction with the road called 'Ashey Road;' and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named road as far as the point near the Small Brook turnpike gate where the said road is intersected by the road leading from Saint Helen's to Haven Street aforesaid ; and extending thence in a direction mainly westward along the middle of the said last-described road as far as the point near Coleman's Wood Pottery, where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

No. 1660.

For constituting the District of Saint James, Gateshead, in the County and Diocese of Durham.

Gazetted 30th August 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of August 1864.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following ; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Saint Mary, Gateshead, in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of Saint Mary, Gateshead, herein-after mentioned and described (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship), should be constituted a separate district in manner herein-after set forth.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the said parish of Saint Mary, Gateshead, have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein mentioned Acts.

"And whereas by an indenture bearing date the ninth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and made or expressed to be made between the Venerable Edward Prest, Archdeacon of the Archdeaconry of Durham, and rector or incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Saint Mary, Gateshead, of the first part, the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham, and in right of his see the patron of the rectory of the said parish of Saint Mary, Gateshead, of the second part, and us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the third part, which indenture is intended to be enrolled in Your Majesty's High Court of Chancery at Westminster, certain tithe commutation rentcharges, or portions of tithe commutation rentcharges, amounting in gross to the sum of one hundred and twenty-two pounds fourteen shillings and eightpence per annum, issuing, arising, and payable out or in respect of certain lands, tenements, and hereditaments, situate within the said parish of Saint Mary, Gateshead, and being portions of the tithe commutation rentcharges belonging to the said rectory of Saint Mary, Gateshead, have been granted and secured to the minister of the district herein-after recommended to be constituted, so soon as one shall be appointed and licensed, and to his successors, ministers thereof.

"And whereas it has been proposed to us by the said Edward Prest, and it appears to us to be expedient, that in consideration of such grant of tithe commutation rentcharges as aforesaid the whole right of patronage of the district herein-after recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister of the same, should be assigned to the said Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham, and his successors, in manner herein-after mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that all that part of the said parish of Saint Mary, Gateshead, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, be constituted and become and be a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint James, Gateshead.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that in respect of the local claim upon the hereditaments and premises hereinbefore mentioned to have become vested in us under and for the purposes of the herein-mentioned Acts, there shall be paid by us in each and every year to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the provisions of the herein secondly-mentioned Act, the sum of one hundred pounds, and that so soon as a church shall have been erected within such district, and shall have been approved by us and consecrated as the church of such district, and for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the said last-mentioned Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish, the further sum of one hundred pounds, making in the whole the sum of two hundred pounds, and that the said two sums of one hundred pounds each shall be paid by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, and that the first such payment or a proportionate part thereof shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister or of the consecration and approval of such church as aforesaid, as the case may be, and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount then next thereafter payable by us shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy or his personal representative or representatives and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish; provided always, that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the minister or perpetual curate of the said district or new parish, or instead of any part of such annual sum any land, tithe, or other hereditament should be conveyed or secured to such minister or perpetual curate and his successors, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and so soon as the same shall have become a new parish as aforesaid, then of the said new parish and of the nomination or appointment of the minister or perpetual curate thereto, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham, and his successors, bishops of the same diocese for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint James, Gateshead, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Saint Mary, Gateshead, in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham, which is situate to the north of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said parish from the chapelry of Heworth, in the parish of Jarrow, in the county and diocese aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the Sunderland Road at or near to the Felling turnpike gate; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said road to a point on the southern boundary of the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Gateshead, in the county and diocese aforesaid, at the junction between the Sunderland Road aforesaid and High Street:—And all which said part of the parish of Saint Mary, Gateshead, aforesaid, is also situate generally to the east of another imaginary line commencing at the said last-described point on the southern boundary of the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Gateshead, aforesaid; and extending thence, first north-eastward along the last-mentioned boundary, and then north-westward along the eastern boundary of the said new parish, to the point in the middle of East Street where such last-mentioned boundary diverges to the south-west; and continuing thence, still north-westward, along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Sun Street; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named street, and (passing under the line of the North-eastern Railway) along the middle of Hawks Lane as far as a point in the last-named lane opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of Maiden Lane; and extending thence north-westward to and along the middle of the last-named lane (crossing the road which gives access to the Gateshead Park Iron Works) to the junction of the same lane with the head of Maiden Stairs; and continuing thence north-westward along the middle of Maiden Stairs aforesaid to a point in the middle of the South Shore Road opposite to the middle of the foot or north-western end of the same stairs; and extending thence north-eastward for a distance of twenty yards thereabouts along the middle of the last-named road to a point opposite to the middle of the head or south-eastern end of the stairs known as 'Haggies Ferry;' and extending thence north-westward to and along the middle of the last-named stairs to their foot or north-western extremity; and continuing thence still north-westward and in a direct line to the northern boundary of the said parish of Saint Mary, Gateshead, in the middle of the river Tyne."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-before secondly-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron of the church of the said parish of Saint Mary, Gateshead (out of which parish it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken), and such incumbent and patron have severally consented to the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Durham.

No. 1661.

For constituting the District of Saint Mary the Virgin, Collaton, out of the Parish of Paignton, in the County of Devon and Diocese of Exeter.

Gazetted 30th August 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of August 1864.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the tenth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following, that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Paignton, in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter.

" Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of Paignton which is herein-after mentioned and described (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship) should be constituted a separate district in manner herein-after set forth.

" And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the said parish of Paignton have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein-mentioned Acts.

" And whereas a sum of three thousand pounds has been contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England, by the Reverend John Roughton Hogg, of Torquay, in the said county of Devon, clerk, to be applied in the erection of a church for the district herein-after recommended to be constituted, and in the erection of a house of residence for the minister who shall be appointed and licensed to such district.

"And whereas the said John Roughton Hogg has also granted and conveyed to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and our successors two acres of land situate within the proposed limits of the district herein-after recommended to be constituted as the sites of the said proposed church, and of the house of residence for the minister thereof.

"And whereas the said sum of three thousand pounds and the said two acres of land have been so contributed and paid, granted and conveyed respectively, as aforesaid, upon the understanding that we should provide and pay by equal half-yearly payments the annual sum herein-after mentioned to the minister of the district herein-after recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according the provisions of the herein secondly-mentioned Act, and upon the further understanding, that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district and of the nomination of the minister thereof should be assigned in the manner herein-after mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that all that part of the said parish of Paignton which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication of the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Mary the Virgin, Collaton.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, out of the Common Fund referred to in the herein-mentioned Acts, in each and every year, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the provisions of the herein secondly-mentioned Act, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, and that the first of such payments, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or the first day of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister as aforesaid, and that in case a vacancy in the ministry of such district shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister making the vacancy or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister succeeding to such district; provided always, that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the minister of the said district, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, tithe, or other hereditament should be conveyed or secured to such minister and his successors, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said John Roughton Hogg, his heirs and assigns, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Mary the Virgin, Collaton, being :—

"All that part of the parish of Paignton, in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter, which is situate to the west of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing such parish from the parish of Stoke Gabriel, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of the turnpike road leading from Brixham and Dartmouth through Paignton to Newton ; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said turnpike road to its junction near Clayland Cottages with the parish road leading to Marldon ; and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-described road as far as the boundary which divides the said parish of Paignton from the parish of Marldon in the county and diocese aforesaid."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-before secondly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the incumbent and to the patrons of the vicarage of the said parish of Paignton, out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and the said incumbent and patrons have respectively signified their assents to such scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Exeter.

ARTHUR HELPS.

No. 1662.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of All Saints, Publow, in the County of Somerset and Diocese of Bath and Wells.

Gazetted 30th August 1864.

At the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of August 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the tenth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints situate at Publow, in the county of Somerset and in the diocese of Bath and Wells.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Robert John, Baron Auckland, Bishop of the said diocese of Bath and Wells (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that territory in the county and diocese aforesaid, which constitutes the parish or place now called or known as Publow, all which territory is more particularly mentioned in the schedule hereunder written, and, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church of All Saints situate at Publow aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Publow.'

" And, with the like consent of the said Robert John, Baron Auckland, Bishop of the said diocese of Bath and Wells (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

" We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

" The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

" The District Chapelry of Publow, being :—

" All that territory in the county of Somerset and in the diocese of Bath and Wells which now constitutes the parish or place called or known as Publow, the said territory being bounded on the north and east by the parish of Whitchurch, otherwise called Felton, by the parish of Queen Charlton, by the parish of Compton Dando, and by the parish of Chelwood, all in the county and diocese aforesaid, on the south by the said parish of Chelwood, and on the west by the parish of Stanton Drew and by the parish of Pensford, both in the county and diocese aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Bath and Wells.
